

Bend Legion ends losing streak, beats Indian nine

By Web Ruble
Bulletin Staff Writer

Coach Bill Bauer's Bend American Legion team finally ended its losing streak last night, but the Bend players could take little solace in their victory.

Victim of the Bend onslaught was a scrappy, athletic crew from Warm Springs. It was the first game for the Indians, and as a matter of fact last night was the first time the Warm Springs squad ever donned its uniforms, caps and shoes. It was the Indians' first practice.

Bend won the first game, 16-1, and gained the nightcap 8-4.

Warm Springs, playing with only nine players, showed tremendous improvement in the second game, and as the contest continued, the flashy Indian youngsters really gave Bauer's crew a run for the money.

Local fans saw perhaps one of the best short stops at municipal ballpark this season in the person of Clarence Cowpoo, a sharp fielding, hard-hitting all-around athlete who played last year on the prep championship Pendleton team.

Cowpoo continually scooped up hot grounders that normally would have gone into left field for base hits, and threw to first for putouts from great distances.

Cowpoo took his turn on the mound, too. It was his pitching that gave Bend batters trouble in the last two innings of the second game. An all-around athlete by the name of Mike Clements, also took a whirl at mound duty and offered the locals some trouble, too.

In the opener, Bend batters immediately began to fatten their batting averages. The locals picked up five runs in the first, four in the second, one in the third, and six in the fourth. Warm Springs was swamped. Wild pitches, outfield errors on fly balls, and good Bend hitting, contributed to the Indian dilemma. The Indians rallied together enough forces in the third, however, to push across a tally.

At the end of the fifth inning, however, Bend led 16-0, and the game was over. Bend had more than a 10 run advantage after five innings, causing the cancellation of the rest of the contest.

During the 10-minute intermission that followed, the Indians held a tribal conclave in the dugout and came up with a lineup re-shuffle that improved their fortunes immensely. The war clouds gathered, and once again the Warm Springs nine took the field to do battle with the Bend Legionnaires.

This time Ralph Minnick started on the mound for the visitors, but he ran into trouble immediately. He walked three Bend clubbers in the first frame, plus an error on Danial Katchia, the catcher, gave the Bend squad three tallies.

Canadian pulls tennis upset

PORTLAND (UPI) — Don McCormick of Victoria, B.C., pulled off an upset in the Oregon State Tennis Championships Tuesday by defeating Harry Doyle of Portland, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2.

Tournament favorite Horst Ritter of Germany and Foothill College, Calif., had the day off, while second-seeded Doug Sykes of the University of California won over Jim Barnes of Portland, 6-1, 6-3.

Jerry Cromwell of Southern California defeated Alan Skelton of Vancouver, B.C., 8-6, 6-3.

Then in the second frame, Mike Clark walked after Bend tosser Paul Wardlaw took a base on balls. Mike Metke then sacrificed Wardlaw to third. Dave Shelton came to bat and rapped a single to score Wardlaw, and Bend hitting parade seemed to be on again.

Willie breaks up best tosser duel

By Milton Richman
UPI Staff Writer

With one swing of his bat, Willie Mays broke up the National League's greatest pitching duel in 30 years and all but broke Warren Spahn's heart.

Mays accomplished his handiwork when he lined a home run over the left field fence with one out in the 18th inning Tuesday night to give Juan Marichal and the San Francisco Giants a 1-0 victory over the Milwaukee Braves.

For 15 dramatic innings, the 42-year-old Spahn called on all his cunning and pitched on dead even terms with the stronger and harder-throwing 25-year-old Marichal, but Mays' 15th homer ended the league's finest pitching duel since Carl Hubbell of the Giants went 18 innings to beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 1-0, exactly 30 years to the day.

Marichal scattered eight hits and struck out 10 in posting his 13th victory of the season and his ninth in a row.

The defeat was doubly tough for Spahn. Not only did it snap his personal five-game winning streak and represent his fourth loss against 11 victories, but it also nullified a valiant 14th inning effort in which he heroically pitched himself out of a jam by getting Ed Bailey on a fly ball for the final out with the bases full.

It was the Giants' only other serious threat of the night against the Milwaukee veteran, a single by Minnick, and an error by Bend short stop Mike Clark. The Indians scored three runs in the frame's top half.

From that point on the going was tougher for Bend, and the Indians came on strong under the combined no-hit hurling of Mike Clements and Clarence Cowpoo. It wasn't enough, however, as Coach Bauer's crew took advantage of their lead and rode home with another victory, this time 8-4.

Before the games started the Warm Springs crew was one man short. They arrived in segments, and when team leaders counted noses in the dressing room, it was apparent that the Indians had only eight players. A conversation with Bend Coach Bauer okehed the utilization of a Warm Springs baseball player, who's age is above Legion limits.

One player said to another as they trotted out for a little pregame throwing practice, "these shoes feel funny. I don't like them. I think I'll take them off."

Another disclosed that his uniform was ill-fitting. The team manager took a quick glance at his charges and began to scribble down a lineup. It was all in first names. The score keeper and announcer at the ballpark suggested that they use last names. The manager liked the idea and jotted them down, too.

Amid all of this confusion, team manager (name not revealed) complained of his team never having made it together for a practice or two. He shouldn't have worried too much, however, for he had some real competitors. Throughout the game's history, green teams have risen to the occasion to put together a seemingly experienced effort. That's just what the Indians did. In the first one, they got annihilated, but with one game under their belts, the Indians came on with more confidence in the nightcap and made Bend go all out for the win.

Last night's doubleheader got started an hour late. The Warm Springs nine began arriving from the reservation in segments a few minutes after 7. The game, originally slated to begin at 6:30, finally got underway at about 7:45.

Larry Barnes tossed all but the last inning in the opener to pick up the win. Paul Wardlaw went the distance in the nightcap for his victory.

Today, the Bend Legion commences a two-day, two-game road series with Roseburg at Roseburg. Coach Bauer's Legion then returns home for a single game Friday with Parkrose. Parkrose stays in Bend for another single game on Saturday. Bend, however, plays two on Saturday. The locals' second opponent is Hillsboro. Hillsboro will then stay overnight and play a doubleheader against Bauer's crew on Sunday.

San Antonio Texan favored to beat Germany's Bungert

WIMBLEDON, Eng. (UPI)—Chuck McKinley, the dynamic tennis slugger from San Antonio, Tex., was favored to whip German upstart Willy Bungert today and reach the men's singles final of the Wimbledon championships for the second time in three years.

The other semifinal match at the All-England Club pitted second-seeded Manuel Santana of Spain against unseeded Fred Stolle of Australia.

McKinley, ranked No. 1 in the States and seeded fourth here, hopes to become the first Yank to win the men's crown since Tony Trabert walked off with the trophy in 1955. Chunky Chuck almost made it in 1961 when he marched all the way to the final before bowing to Australia's Rod Laver.

Bungert, a 24-year-old student architect, gained the semifinals by surprising top-seeded Roy Emerson of Australia in a five-set thriller Monday. He looked ahead to his match with McKinley with great confidence.

"Of all the players in the semifinals, McKinley is the one I fear least," said the unseeded German upstart. "I don't know why
