Gals slate pairings in Mirror Pond fest

The Mirror Pond July 4th Golf Tournament needs caddies, according to Pro Ken Spence.

"We would like to have the boys report to the pro shop by 7:30 a.m. Thursday morning," Spence said.

Age limit is 10 years old. Boys with prior experience are needed, but those without experience can probably find jobs, Spence said. Caddies, except at tournament time, are a thing of the past because of the invention in recent years of caddie carts.

Elsewhere on the tournament scene pairings for the women's tournament scheduled Friday at Redmond and Saturday at Bend were announced today. Post entries will be accepted and prizes will be awarded at a luncheon at Bend Golf Club upon completion of play.

Heavy favorite will be June Robinson of Albany, who won the tournament in 1961 and is one of the top female players in the Northwest.

Mrs. A. C. Stipe is Bend Golf Club champion and leads the local contingent.

The pairings:

8 a.m. — Miss June Robinson, Mrs. James Barlow, Mrs. A. C. Stipe.

8:07 — Mrs. Amel Pascuzzi, Mrs. M. W. Waage, Mrs. George Calderwood.

8:14 — Mrs. Dick Crosby, Mrs. Roy Renoud, Mrs. C. L. Robinson.

8:21 — Mrs. Don Lehman, Mrs. Art Stearns, Mrs. Vern Larson.

8:28 — Mrs. Jim Juhl, Mrs. A. C. Stipe, Mrs. C. F. Coryell.

Horn to face toughest foe

EUGENE (UPI)—Young Bobby Horn of Eugene, who has 17 victories and one draw in his middleweight career, takes on possibly his toughest opponent tonight in a 10-rounder at the fairgrounds here against Don Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah.

Fullmer is the younger brother of former middleweight champion Gene Fullmer.

The fight was to have been held last Friday but Horn missed four days of training because of a strained shoulder muscle and it was postponed until tonight.

Bend All-Star Little Leaguers in annual fray tomorrow, 1:30

Tomorrow, July 4, is the big day for Bend Little Leaguers, or at least for the cream of the crop of those who will graduate from the program this year.

Top 12-year-olds from the Cascade League will go against the best of the American League in the annual Bend Little League All-Star Game.

Top National League 12-year-olds will be split into two camps. Half of them will play for the American Leaguers and the others will swat the ball for the Cascade League all-stars. The breakdown is like this: the best from the National League's first and fourth place teams will go to the American League side, and those from the second and third place squads will go to the Cascade camp.

Actually, there will be three from each team (all leagues) who will play in the all-star fray. Every all-star will get to play. The contest will go 17 innings.

In years of yore, the all-star game has always drawn good sized crowds, and locals have shown interest in the annual event.

Game time is 1:30 p.m. The scene of battle is Juniper Park.

World champion pole vaulter severely injured

SEATTLE (UPI)—Brian Sternberg, holder of the pending world record pole vault of 16 feet 8 inches, remained in critical condition here today at University Hospital following an accident on the trampoline.

University of Washington officials said Sternberg was executing a double twist back somersault last night at HEC Edmundson Pavilion on the campus when he landed on the back of his head and neck.

Dr. William Robertson, medical director of the university hospital, said an examination indicated a dislocation of the cervical or neck vertebrae.

Robertson said this indicated possible damage to the spinal cord. Sternberg was placed in traction, Robertson said, and no surgery was foreseen in the immediate future.

Sternberg, 20, and a junior next year at the University of Washington, set the pending world mark at the Compton Relays at Compton, Calif., June 7.

He also won the National AAU championship June 22 in St. Louis with a winning vault of 16 feet, 4 inches. He was to have left New York July 14 with a U.S. track and field team which will go to Europe for four meets. The team will compete against a Russian team in Moscow July 21-22.

He has been football coach at North Eugene High School.

Nod to Pepitone

HOUK, STUART ENTER INTO ALL-STAR BEEF

NEW YORK (UPI) — Ralph Houk, never one to dodge a fight, fired right back at Dick Stuart today in the first thubarb of the 1963 All-Star Game.

Stuart, putting in his first season in the American League with the Boston Red Sox and leading the circuit's first basemen in homers and runs batted in, finished second to Joe Pepitone of the Yankees in the balloting by the players but was passed over by Houk.

"It's tough to have a third-string catcher like Ralph Houk keep you off the All-Star team," Stuart said, according to the Boston Record American. "What would he know about how important it is to be on an All-Star team? He never made one in his life. All he ever did was sit in the dugout."

The Yankee manager, who will handle the American League All-Star team in Cleveland on July 9, was calm when he learned of Stuart's remarks but suddenly snapped:

"In the last game of the recent Red Sox series here — it was an important game — and his own manager (Johnny Pesky) used a fellow by the name of (Dick) Williams at first base."

Houk was upset over Stuart's criticism but tried his best to conceal his feelings.

"I don't blame him for being mad," the Yankee manager said at first. "I'm sorry he feels that way about it, but a manager can't always stick to the second choice in the balloting."

"I left off some other pretty good players like Whitey Ford, Bill Monbouquette and Roger Maris, and I think Stuart is a good player."
