

Here's good dessert for 4th of July

By Ila S. Grant

You can whip up an elegant Fourth of July dessert with little effort, if you have two cans of commercially prepared chocolate nut roll, a cup of heavy cream and a few blanched almonds on hand. The other ingredients are peanut butter and instant sweet milk cocoa, pantry-shelf staples.

The dessert can fly a small American flag. You can make a fire-cracker by decorating a homemade candle with red paper and stationer's stars.

Firecracker
2 8-ounce cans chocolate nut roll
1 cup peanut butter
1 cup heavy cream
1/4 cup instant sweet milk cocoa
1/4 cup slivered blanched almonds
Slice each chocolate nut roll into 10 slices. Spread each slice, except one, with peanut butter. Stack slices and press together gently. Whip heavy cream with cocoa.
Lay log on side; cover with whipped cream. Garnish with slivered blanched almonds. Chill. To serve, slice on a diagonal. Makes 12 to 14 servings.

Shrimp, avocado add gourmet's touch to salad

This combination of gourmet favorites makes an unforgettable summer salad.

Shrimp and Avocado Mousse
3 cans (4 1/2 ounces each) shrimp
2 large ripe avocados
3 tablespoons wine vinegar
1 teaspoon Worcestershire
Few drops Tabasco
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups water
2 chicken bouillon cubes
2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
2 teaspoons grated onion
1/2 teaspoon freshly grated nutmeg
1/2 pint cream, whipped
Drain and rinse shrimp; chop fine, reserving 1/2 for garnish. Puree one of the avocados by pressing through a sieve; add vinegar, Worcestershire, Tabasco, salt. Combine with shrimp. Soften gelatin in 1/4 cup of water. Bring remaining water to a boil; add bouillon cubes and dissolve. Pour hot bouillon over softened gelatin and combine with shrimp-avocado mixture.
Stir in mayonnaise, onion, nutmeg. Carefully fold in whipped cream and turn into 1 1/2 quart mold. Chill until firm. Unfold on cake stand or flat plate with room to spare for garnishing.
Garnish suggestion: Peel and slice remaining avocado. Marinate slices and reserved shrimp a few minutes in a sharp vinegar and oil dressing. Drain.
Decorate top of mousse with shrimp and the base with crisp greens, avocado, carrot curls and ripe olives.

Skillet macaroni is time saver for summer cook

When warm weather arrives, appetites lag. So does the "chief cook." Keep everyone happy with simple, appetizing dishes.

10 Minute Skillet Macaroni
4 slices bacon
1/2 cup chopped onion
1/4 cup chopped green pepper
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed cream of celery soup
1 cup shredded mild process cheese
2 tablespoons diced pimiento
4 cups cooked macaroni
In saucepan, cook bacon; remove and crumble. Cook onion and pepper in drippings until tender.
Stir in soup, cheese, and pimiento; heat until cheese melts, stirring now and then. Add macaroni; heat, stirring. Makes 4 to 6 servings.
