Three killed, 52 injured as bus plunges

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI) — A crowded bus with passengers standing in the aisles hit a wet spot and plunged down a 30-foot embankment Sunday. Three persons were killed and 52 were injured.

Officials feared the toll might be higher, but when the Scenicruiiser was finally righted five hours after the pre-dawn accident, the death count was fixed at three.

"This (accident) is one of the worst we have ever had," a Greyhound official said. The dead were Jack Wesley, 23, Burdette, Ark., Cleophas Johnson, 22, Ann Arbor, Mich., and Mrs. Jessie F. Matthews, 28, Raptan, Ala., who was traveling with her four children to meet her husband. Two of the children were hospitalized.

Ambulances shuttled 28 injured persons to St. Joseph Hospital, Kirkwood, Mo., where 16 were admitted. Twenty-four were taken to St. Louis County Hospital and four were admitted.

The driver, Elliott John Smith, 34, East St. Louis, Ill., who sustained only bruises and shock, said the rear of the bus skidded into a large highway sign and spun off the embankment. It slid backwards into a mud-filled ravine and overturned on its side and top, smashing windows and crumpling the vehicle.

Many of the injured were among the 15 passengers standing in the aisles. There were 43 passengers seated. Mrs. Matthews was thrown from the vehicle and crushed beneath it.

The bus was bound from Memphis, Tenn., to St. Louis when it reached a highway curve 22 miles south of St. Louis, where the accident occurred.

Horse drags girl to death

PENDLETON (UPI) — An 8-year-old Pendleton girl, Madeline Cyd Maloney, was dragged to death Friday night by a shying horse.

The girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Maloney of Pendleton, was attempting to mount the horse when it shied and started running.
