Diem's regime seeking okay to set funeral

SAIGON (UPI) — President Ngo Dinh Diem's regime is seeking family permission to make funeral arrangements for an eminent Vietnamese writer who committed suicide as a protest against the government, reliable sources said today.

The sources said the government fears possible student rioting if the funeral for the writer, Nguyen Tuong Tam, 58, is handled privately.

Tam, awaiting trial for alleged complicity in an abortive coup d'etat against Diem in 1960, swallowed poison at his home Sunday and died in a hospital Monday.

He and 34 other civilians had been scheduled to appear before a military tribunal today. Monday the tribunal freed 6 soldiers but sentenced 13 others to jail terms of 5 to 18 years for alleged complicity in the plot.

The trial prosecutor charged that American officials in South Viet Nam sided with the conspirators—a charge which has been denied by U.S. spokesmen here.

The United States has aided the Diem government for several years, pouring 14,000 men and millions of dollars into South Viet Nam's fight against Communist guerrillas.

But reports have indicated that American officials in the beleaguered country have become increasingly concerned about the government's relations with its own people.

Many South Vietnamese have accused Diem, a Roman Catholic, of discriminating against Buddhists. Most South Vietnamese are Buddhists.

To try soldier for violation

BERLIN (UPI)—An American Army spokesman said today a military policeman who shot out four search lights mounted by the Communists to catch refugees will be tried by court-martial.

He said the non-commissioned officer had been drinking when the incident occurred at the tiny enclave of Steinstuecken last Wednesday.

The name of the soldier was not disclosed immediately.

The United States dismissed as propaganda Communist charges—apparently based on the same incident—that American troops fired on East German border guards. But the Army considered the sergeant's act "a serious breach of discipline," the U.S. spokesman said.

In another incident, a 20-year-old East Berliner dodged 20 machine pistol shots by Communist border guards to escape to the French sector of West Berlin through a railway freight yard. Two East German guards chased the refugee 50 yards into West Berlin but were turned back by Western police.

American officials said the soldier involved in the Steinstuecken incident was put in a stockade and charged with drinking on duty and unauthorized use of a weapon.

Neuberger willing to discuss bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Maurine B. Neuberger, D-Ore., indicated Monday she would be willing to discuss possible modification of her bill to establish the Oregon Dunes National Seashore.

Mrs. Neuberger said she would talk with members of the Senate Public Lands Subcommittee after they return from an on-the-spot inspection of the proposed park on the Oregon coast.

However, the Oregon Democrat said pleas by officials of the Pacific Power and Light Co. and the Crown Zellerbach Corp. for further cuts in the size of the proposed park were "not new."

She said the same proposals had been made during hearings on the bill both here and in Oregon.

She said the same proposals had been made during hearings on the bill both here and in Oregon.

The final decision, Mrs. Neuberger said, would be in the hands of the Interior Committee. She is not a member of the committee.

Subcommittee members, headed by Chairman Alan Bible, D-Nev., were expected to return early this week from an inspection tour of the Oregon Dunes and other proposed park areas in the West.

Mrs. Neuberger's bill calls for a park of about 42,000 acres, compared with a 30,000-acre park proposed by Rep. Robert B. Duncan, D-Ore., in legislation pending in the House. Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall has recommended a park of about 44,000 acres.

Do Oregonians Deserve to live in Oregon?

'All right, all right! Don't get sore. We know that you deserve to live in Oregon. Our question is aimed at the guy who doesn't appreciate this great state of ours, who knows next to nothing about it—the guy who thinks he has to leave the Pacific Northwest and go all the way to California or some other such fastness to have a good time. Ridiculous, isn't it?

Yet such misguided guides do exist, and the picture part of this ad is for them. (You, being a loyal, knowledgeable Oregonian, can skip down to "What difference does it make what kind of a guide you are?")

How well do you know the territory? Take this difficult test. Simply stare long and hard at each of the six photos, decide what each is a photo of, then check off your answer. No cheating. The answers are way down at the bottom, but to protect you from temptation, they're printed upside down.

☐ MT. JEFFERSON. Second highest mountain peak in state. Hiking, camping, fishing in several lakes. Also boating, picnicking, motels and cafes at nearby Detroit Dam.

What kind of a guide are you, anyway?

Now that you've taken the test (whew!), count five points for every correct answer and see what kind of a guide's rating you deserve:

30 points ..... Grand Exalted Guide
25 points ..... Somewhat Exalted Guide
20 points ..... Tenderfoot Guide
15 points ..... Newcomer
10 or less ..... Misguided Out-of-Stater

What difference does it make what kind of a guide you are?

Well, for one thing, the more you know about Oregon, the better you and your family can enjoy it. Then, too, the more you know, the more you can help others less fortunate than yourself. Like misguided out-of-staters. And the more they know, the more likely they'll become tourists and bring all that lovely tourists' money into Oregon. And it's big money, too.

If you like statistics, try these: Today tourism is Oregon's Number 3 Industry. In the last four years, tourists have spent an average of $185 million dollars a year in Oregon. ($217 million in 1962, with the World's Fair as a magnet.)

More statistics: Each tourist in Oregon spends about $6.20 per day or $20.45 for the average family of 3.3 people. (Seen any three-tenths of tourists lately?)

And—according to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce (which ought to know), an annual average of 24 tourists a day is equal to a new industry with a payroll of $100,000. Enough?

Why is the Telephone Company helping promote Oregon?

We're proud to be part of the statewide team that's promoting tourism in Oregon and its Welcome Mat Campaign. Like you, our future is invested in Oregon. (We're second only to Georgia-Pacific in the number of employees. We're first in plant investment—over $300 million dollars.) Like you, we're proud to "tell the world about Oregon." We're convinced that if we all work at it, we can make Oregon the most rewarding, the most prosperous state in the nation.

What can you do? Plenty!

First take a trip through the state and check up on things. (When's the last time, for example, that you viewed the scenes in our picture quiz?) Then turn State's Witness. Be a one-man (or one-family) Chamber of Commerce. Make yourself insufferable with your out-of-state friends. Let's tell the world about Oregon.
