PCL all stars grab 4-2 win over Spokane

By United Press International
The Pacific Coast League's 1963 All-Star game is in the record books, and Spokane pitcher Jack Smith is probably hoping it is quickly forgotten.

Spokane played host to the All-Stars Monday night for the second consecutive year and was making a strong bid for its second win in a row when Smith lost his control in a nightmarish sixth inning. A wild pitch by Smith, one of six in the inning, permitted the All-Stars to score what proved to be the winning run in their 4-2 victory.

With the score tied 1-1, Denver's Lou Klimchuck opened the sixth with a single and advanced to second on a wild pitch. Dave Roberts of Oklahoma City walked and Hawaii's Herb Plews reached on an error to load the bases.

Smith then uncorked another wild pitch and Klimchuck scored. Several plays later Roberts scored the deciding run on another wild pitch by Smith.

Reliever Pete Richert gave up a run-producing single to Gil Garrido of Tacoma before finally retiring the side.

Spokane's John Werhas, who had a hand in both Indian runs, was voted the game's Most Valuable Player. Werhas tied the game at 1-1 with a bases-empty home run in the fourth and then scored Spokane's other run after singling in the sixth.

The league's regular schedule resumes tonight with three games on tap. All 10 teams will be back in action Wednesday.

Schoendienst to take permanent coaching spot

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — The playing career of former National League star second baseman Red Schoendienst presumably came to an end Monday when the St. Louis Cardinals announced they had planned to give him his unconditional release.

However, the 40-year-old Schoendienst will be retained as a coach on manager Johnny Keane's staff, the position in which he started the season with the Red Birds.

In addition, the Cardinals said they have called up infielder-outfielder Gary Kolb, who is batting .318 for Tulsa, to replace the veteran infielder.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Veteran offensive ends Bill Anderson and Fred Dugan have signed their 1963 contracts, the Washington Redskins announced today.

Murray club defeats COR 2-1 in seventh

Four games were played last night in Little League and Rookie baseball.

In the American League, Moose defeated Dairy Queen 15 to 1 in a slugfest. In other games, Lelco downed the Elks 5-2 in National League play, Shoop and Schulze defeated VFW 6-5 in Cascade league play and Murray Bros. defeated Central Oregon Roofers 2-1 in Rookie League action.

Pitcher Morry Douglass of Moose served up a six hitter to the Dairy Queen team but managed to hold them to one run in the sixth inning game.

Meanwhile, his Moose mates scored eight times in the third inning on seven base hits to take the rather easy victory. Shortstop Burl Plannary was the leading hitter with a single and a triple.

The Elks took a 2-1 lead over Lelco and held it until the fifth inning when the Lelco club exploded for three runs and the ball game. Singles by Bruce Maudlin and Dennis Murphy and a double by Tony Trumbly gave the Lelco team the margin it needed. Mike Williams was the winning pitcher.

In the Cascade league, Shoop and Schulze squeezed two runs across in the bottom of the sixth to come from behind for the 6-5 victory over VFW.

Singles by Cary Dyer, Greg Geser and Des Triplett plus a base on balls produced the winning two runs in the final inning. Gary Geser and Max Mills shared pitching duties for the winners.

The Rookie League game between Murray Bros. and COR started with a rhuabar and ended when Murray scored two runs in the bottom of the seventh for the victory.

The game was a scoreless pitching duel between Steve Bergseng of COR and Mark Metke of Murray's until the sixth inning. Then, Bergseng singled for the only hit.

Cleveland's Paul wants to return All-Star game to baseball fans

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — President Gabe Paul of the Cleveland Indians led a growing campaign today to return the All-Star game to the fans.

By their votes, baseball fans throughout the country used to dictate the make-up of the two All-Star teams until 1958 when the players took over the balloting.

There has been increasing dissatisfaction over the present system, not only among the fans, but also among some of the players.

The sentiment now is to "give" the game back to the people who actually pay the freight — the fans.

"I think it was a mistake to take it away from them in the first place," said Paul, who was a principal factor in the change of the voting system.

"I think the present system of voting actually hurts the All-Star game," Paul said. "The players cast their votes and the results of their balloting are announced shortly before the game itself is played. There's hardly any publicity on the game at all this way."

of the evening off Metke and scored. The Murray coach filed a protest.

In the seventh, Bergseng, who had limited the Murray hitters to only one single in six frames, weakened. Singles by Dave Shores, Chris Ricci and Alan Damon resulted in two runs and a Murray victory.

PISTONS SIGN TWO

DETROIT (UPI) — Guards Eddie Miles of Seattle and Jerry Smith of Furman, the top two draft choices of the Detroit Pistons, have returned their signed contracts for the 1963-64 National Basketball Association season.

Big rainbow from Crane even bigger

The Bulletin received erroneous information on big fish catch from Crane Prairie Reservoir last week, according to the lady who caught the fish.

Instead of a 6½ pound rainbow, she caught a 7¼ pound fish which measured 27½ inches, says Mrs. Helen Parker of P.O. Box 152, Redmond.

She reports that she caught the fish on an eight ounce ultra light rod with eight pound test line. It took her 30 minutes to land the fish.

She and her husband have caught several that approach the six pound mark in recent weeks. However, the seven plus pounder was their largest catch this season.

loaded, driving in two runs to give the Emeralds what proved to be their winning runs. Lee Featherstone (3-2) was credited with the win for Eugene, Fred Alworth (8-2) was the loser.

Bob Leopold went the distance for Tri-City, striking out 11 and walking two to record his sixth win against two losses. Catcher Jack Hiatt drove in two runs for Tri-City, on a single and a sacrifice fly. Jim Lefebvre and Benny Marquardt hit solo homers for the losers.
