Stuart blasts two as Sox halt Twins 7-4; Dodgers lead by four

By United Press International
New York Yankee manager Ralph Houk may have done the Boston Red Sox a favor when he snubbed Dick Stuart for the American League All-Star team. Houk apparently not only stirred up the hottest controversy of the 1963 All-Star game but also lit a fire under the big first baseman.
In any event, Stuart returned from the two-day vacation resulting from the snub with a pair of homers and five runs batted in that paced the Red Sox to a 7-4, 10-inning victory over the Minnesota Twins Wednesday night. Stuart's second homer was a three-run, 10th-inning wallop that ended Minnesota relief ace Bill Daley's string of 24 consecutive scoreless innings.
Stuart's first homer in the fourth inning was his first round-tripper since June 20, and the two runs he knocked in were the first for him since June 23. The two homers and five runs batted in for the night increased his season totals in those departments to 19 and 55.

Wins Ninth Game
Dick Radatz, who was removed for a pinch-hitter in the 10th inning after shutting out the Twins on one hit for three innings, received credit for his ninth win against one loss. The victory moved the Red Sox into third place and dropped the Twins into fifth.
The Los Angeles Dodgers nipped the New York Mets, 1-0, the Philadelphia Phillies drubbed the San Francisco Giants, 10-2, the Cincinnati Reds defeated the Chicago Cubs, 3-1, and the Houston Colt .45s beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 2-0, in the National League.

Stuart and Lou Clinton hit home runs and Frank Malzone contributed an RBI-double to the Red Sox' fourth inning outburst. Bob Allison hit his 22nd homer of the year for Minnesota in the fourth and the Twins tied the score with two more runs in the sixth. The other eight AL teams were idle.
Johnny Podres pitched a three-hitter for his fourth shutout and seventh win and batterymate John Roseboro homered in the eighth inning as the Dodgers increased their NL lead to four games with their eighth victory in nine games. Left-fielder Tommy Davis saved the win by starting a game-ending double play with an electrifying catch of Frank Thomas' ninth-inning bid for a homer for the Giants.

Joey Jay, already a 12-game loser, flashed his 21-victory form of 1961 and 1962 by striking out 10 and yielding seven hits in 8 1-3 innings against the Cubs. Marty Keough's two-run triple in the first inning was the big blow for the Red Sox against Glen Hobbie. The victory was only Jay's fourth.
Relief star Hal Woodeshick struck out Smoky Burgess with the bases filled in the eighth inning to preserve the Colt victory for Ken Johnson. The Colts got both their runs in the first inning on Ernie Fazio's double, a bunt single by Al Spangler, extending his hitting streak to 14 games. Pete Rummels' single and Carl Warwick's forecourt.

Angling is 'fair' in most Central Oregon water holes, report says

Fishing generally is "fair." The Oregon State Game Commission's weekly coverage of the Central Oregon area and report on conditions can just about be summed up in the above words. None of the many bodies of water locally are reported to be "hot."
Best of the rest appears to be Crane Prairie Reservoir, where fishermen have been taking few fish but fish of monstrous size. Rainbow trout to eight pounds have been taken from Crane during the past week by trollers and by still fishing with worms.
Elsewhere in the Bend district, Elk Lake is still good for small kokanee and Mud Lake is reported good for Atlantic Salmon on dry flies. Wickiup Reservoir is fair for kokanee using bait and brown trout angling is improving. East and Paulina lakes are fair to good on either troll or bait.
Angling is reported good at Blue Lake on worms or eggs and the small kokanee are biting at Suttle Lake on bait.
Pelton reservoir is reported poor. Prineville reservoir is slow but improving for trollers. Ochoco reservoir is fair to good for trollers.

Almost impossible Arnie nine shots off British pace

LYTHAM-ST. ANNES, England (UPI) — Defending champion Arnold Palmer admitted he faced "a tough job" trying to catch up with fellow American Phil Rodgers and Australia's Peter Thomson today in the second round of the British Open golf championship.

Palmer, who won this tournament the last two years, hacked his way to a 76 in Wednesday's first round while Rodgers, a wise-cracking ex-Marine from La Jolla, Calif., and four-time winner Thomson tied for the lead with three-under-par 67s.

Only four other players broke par in their opening tour over the 6,757-yard Royal Lytham and St. Annes links. Scotland's Tom Halliburton and southpaw Bob Charles of New Zealand posted 68s, one stroke ahead of Spain's Ramon Sota and Australia's Kel Nagle. Jack Nicklaus, the burly U.S.

Maris will join Mantle on bench

NEW YORK (UPI) — The New York Yankees, who have been looking forward to the return of Mickey Mantle, today faced the loss of Roger Maris for an estimated 10 days.

Maris will undergo minor surgery Friday at Lenox Hill Hospital for a rectal fissure. The operation will be performed by Dr. John Donaldson of the hospital staff.

Mantle has been out of the Yankee lineup since June 5 when he suffered a broken left foot in a game at Baltimore. He planned to rejoin the club today at Los Angeles but may not be ready to play for several more days.
Maris and Mantle have played together in only 23 of the Yankees' 81 games this season. Maris pulled a hamstring muscle in his left thigh during spring training and missed the first seven games of the season.

Whoops, horse winners given double payoff

NEW YORK (UPI) — Officials at the Aqueduct race track Wednesday found to their dismay that to err is most certainly human.

The electric calculator which automatically figures the payoffs after each race broke down early in the day and the mutual department, forced to rely on the human brain, made a $20,343.40 error in the first race.
Holders of place tickets on the winner, Brenda Hope, were paid $16.30 for $2, whereas the payoff should have been $7.50; and holders of place tickets on Browns Risque, which finished second, were paid $5.50 instead of $5.10.

Lelco, AFL-CIO and Millers top action in Bend Little Leagues

Only three games were played in Bend Little League action last night as one game was forfeited.
Medo Land Creamery could muster only seven players and forfeited a game in American league play to Dairy Queen.
In other games, Lelco defeated Cascade Gas 6 to 5 in the National League; AFL-CIO downed Lelco 12-8 in the Rookie league and Millers downed Shoop and Shulze 4 to 2 in the Cascade League.
In the National League, Lelco's Tom Puddy singled in the sixth inning, his second of the game, and scored on a fielders choice to tie up their ball game with Cascade Gas 5-5. Then Mike Landers got on base on an error and scored on a single by Bruce Maudlin to win the ball game. Tony Tyler singled and doubled to lead the winners.
AFL-CIO smashed eight hits in their free scoring 12-8 win over another Lelco team. Gary Svirner had two singles to lead the hitters for the winners.
Hurler Jim Rozewski allowed only two hits in the 4-2 Miller win over Shoop and Schulze. The losers put across two runs in the fourth inning and didn't score thereafter.
Millers bunched singles by Steve Metke, Mike Rosewski, and Dave Plath to score three runs in the fourth and break up what had been a tight ball game.
