BUILDING OR REMODELING? CHECK CLASSIFICATION NO. 22 FOR CONTRACTORS

Firemen unable to save trailer

Two Bend fire rigs and 29 firemen were unable to save a home-made wooden trailer house that burned late Thursday afternoon in the yard of Mrs. Diane T. Stowe, 831 Federal Street. Ownership was traced to Carl Larson, with no address furnished.

The trailer house and all its contents were destroyed, firemen said. The blaze apparently originated in a mattress in one corner of the structure, but no absolute cause was determined. Neighbors stated that youngsters had sometimes been seen using the trailer as a playhouse.

No one was living in the trailer when it burned. Several toys and an accordion were among articles destroyed. Firemen said no insurance was carried on the trailer.

Other Thursday alarms kept fire crews hustling. Two grass fires broke out during daylight hours, one on Brooks-Scanlon property and another on property owned by L. H. Gless, Parrell Road. Neither caused damage.

About 2:10 this morning, at the Wall-Greenwood intersection, a seat cushion that caught fire inflicted considerable damage to a parked car registered to L. C. Corey, Creswell. Firemen said the fire was caused by a careless smoker.

Gold-plated trophy will go to winner

The swiftest of the dogs that bound across the Municipal Ball Park turf on July 27 will earn for its owner a towering, gold-plated trophy.

That's the grand prize in the Bend Jaycees' first annual Preakness. The 28-inch-high trophy will be the largest of those to be awarded. Others will be handed out to youngsters whose dogs win preliminary heats.

But no youngster who enters a dog will leave the field without a prize, reports Vern Robinson, Preakness organizer. All who participate will collect tickets of free admission to Walt Disney's film, "Savage Sam," billed for showing July 25-28 at the Bend Tower Theater. And they'll be able to keep the decorative racing blankets they receive when they register their dogs.

All Deschutes County boys or girls between 6 and 16 are eligible, so long as they get their dogs examined by a licensed county veterinarian. In Bend Drs. James E. Hoffman and W. D. Ward will examine Preakness dogs. Examinations will be free of charge but a $1 entry fee must be paid to enter the dog and receive a blanket. All dogs must have current rabies certificates.

The number of heats will depend on the number of dogs entered in the Preakness, Robinson explained. In each heat, eight dogs will be raced across the turf to their beckoning owners. Basets and Dachshunds will compete in a special race.
