villain was rival pitcher Major leagues Robin Roberts, who has seen a number of his own no-hitters ruined but never before had acted as the spoiler himself.

Peters, a 26-year-old southpay for the Chicago White Sox, struck out 13 batters and did not walk any in beating the Baltimore Or- Chicago ioles, 4-0.

Were it not for Roberts, the kind of hitter no pitcher ever real ly worries about, Peters would have become the first man ever to hurl a perfect game in regular major league competition since 1922 when Charlie Robertson die so for the White Sox. The only other perfect game since was Don Larsen's World Series masterpiece in 1956.
