A family reunion Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Holden in Bend was attended by some 30 friends and relatives. Among those present were Holden's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Holden, from Russell, Kan., and sons Alfred and Phil and families from Los Angeles. Dennis Kobzeff was also present from Los Angeles. Nephews Harold Clutter and Francis Clutter and their families were present from Wichita, Kan. From the Central Oregon area were Holden's son, George Bender, and daughters Elena and Julie, Bend; nephews, John E. Clutter, Bend, and Elvin Johnson, Paulina, and families, and Johnson's son, Gary, and family, Prineville.

Bend Daughters of the Nile will hold their annual picnic Sunday at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hafstad, in Haner Park on the Deschutes. All members and their guests are invited. The group will gather at 1 p.m., with potluck dinner to be served at 3 o'clock. Additional information may be obtained from Mrs. James Mayne, picnic chairman.

Reserve unit gets top rating
The 210 Transportation Company (heavy truck) U.S. Army Reserve Unit comprised of a number of Bend men, received the highest rating of all reserve units on active duty at Fort Lewis, Wash.

The grading came after two weeks' evaluation of the unit's military performance at the annual summer camp. The unit left Prineville on July 7 under the command of Captain James L. Davis, Jr., with a heavy truck convoy. The group returned to Prineville on July 20.

The rating was given by a regular military evaluator observing the unit in all aspects, including military courtesy, appearance, operation and maintenance of equipment. Inspection was also made by Major General Francis M. Goldrich, Tenth Army Corps Commander.

Gem, mineral show planned

Deschutes Geology Club members are again to sponsor a gem and mineral show as a feature of the Mirror Pond Pageant.

The mineral, fossil and gem displays will be in the former City Drug Store building on Wall Street. The exhibit will be on all three days of the Pageant, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, with the hours to be from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

There will be some 20 exhibits entered by members. Also, space for three commercial displays has been allocated. There will be no admission charge, but small contributions will be accepted to meet some of the incidental costs.

Featured in the displays will be Central Oregon minerals which have won national attention and attracted visitors from all parts of the country. There will be displays from the various agate beds.

Also on exhibit will be fossils from various mid-Oregon localities.

Cut and polished minerals will be featured in the club's displays. Deschutes Geology Club mineral shows have been features of Pageant programs for a number of years, and have attracted many visitors.

Prineville home broken into

Special to The Bulletin
PRINEVILLE — Two or more persons, believed to be young people, broke into the Carl Peterson home at the north edge of Prineville in the past few days while the family was away and apparently enjoyed themselves at the Petersons' expense.

Found, returning home from fund wineglasses used and wine spilled and the remains of cigarettes that had been smoked. Further search disclosed a cut screen door on the second floor balcony, indicating that someone had scrambled up the side of the house to effect entrance.

Bureau drawers had also been disturbed. Police were told, however, that nothing appeared to have been stolen from the home.

Municipal court cases reported

Largest assessment collected in Monday's municipal court session were forfeitures of $50 and $15, plus court costs, posted by James E. Traw, Gilchrist. He was cited on charges of providing liquor to a minor, and on excessive vehicle muffler noise.

Forfeiting $25 and costs for illegal possession of alcoholic beverage was Henry George Ashburn, Gilchrist.

Three persons received five-day jail sentences on vagrancy charges. They were Ray Townsend, Alturas, Calif.; Joe Felix Mestas, Albuquerque, N. M.; and Joe Taffora Flores, San Francisco, Calif.

Fred Earl Harrington, 1474 Kingston, paid $5 and costs for excessive muffler noise.

The court suspended a $5 fine and costs charged to Guy Lester Paxton, 1625 Galveston, who appeared to face charges of having no vehicle operator's license in his possession.

Meeting held by radio club

The Central Oregon Citizens' Band Radio Club met last week at the courthouse, with 14 attending. William C. James, Civil Defense director, was guest speaker. He listed the equipment on hand.

Scotch-lite courtesy signs were distributed for Bend and nearby towns, to be placed on main highways to aid traveling CB'ers.

A visitor was present from the Tri-County Transceivers of the Salem area.

The next meeting will be August 21, when pictures for identification cards will be taken.

Davie receives jail sentence

Thomas Gerald Davie, 25, of 129 W. 13th Street, was sentenced Monday in district court to 10 days in the county jail, on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while his license was suspended. He was also charged $5 court costs.

Davie also had a preliminary hearing on a quasi-criminal statutory matter, having been named in a complaint as the father of an illegitimate child. He was bound over to circuit court.
