Similar scenes will be repeated August 3 and 4 at the Fairgrounds in Redmond. The Christmas Valley Rodeo was held last weekend while the Crooked River Roundup up Prineville will be held August 9-11.

Leico batters Chemult nine

A telephone call from Gilchrist yesterday to the Bend City Recreation Department set up an extra-curricular Little League baseball game that ended in a complete rout at Juniper Park field last night.

Chemult's Little League baseballers took a shot at one of the top midget squads in Bend last night and didn't do so well, or at least that's what the record shows.

Leico turned on the batting power after the first two innings, and had a field day for the remaining three, subduing its rivals from the south pine country, 20-4.

Leico belted home four runs in the third, five in the fourth, and walloped 11 in the fifth. Chemult, however, got the jump on the Bend squad and rode herd over Leico for two innings. In the first frame, Chemult slapped home three tallies, but went scoreless in the second. Chemult added another run in the top of the third, but Leico's onslaught in the frame's bottom half was too much for the visitors.

Leico, the National League's top squad which will represent the loop in the Bend city Little League playoffs, will tackle the American League champ Wednesday night. Wednesday night's winner will play-off against the Cascade League champion for the city flag Friday night. Healy's, the Cascade League champion, draws a bye on the first night of play-off action.

They'll Do It Every Time

By Jimmy Hatlo

Last night's Leico efforts were paced by Dennis Murphy, catcher, who went three for four in the batter's box. Tony Trumbly also offered a top effort when he hit the ball at a two for four clip. Pat Murphy started on the mound and was credited with the win. Ted Crowley was tabbed the losing hurler.

LOUIS BACK IN RING — TEANECK, N.J. (UPI) — Former heavyweight champion Joe Louis will step back into the ring at the Teaneck Armory on Aug. 7. Louis will serve as one of the referees for the eight-car program featured by the bout between Frank DiPaulo of Jersey City, N.J., and Don McAteer of Paterson, N.J.

Warren Spahn now ranks as greatest lefty

By United Press International

Warren Spahn now ranks as the all-time left-handed strikeout king of the majors — but you'd better put an asterisk in front of that. Until Friday, anyway.

That's when Milwaukee's superlative 42-year-old southpaw is due to work next and since he'll go against the Mets that night, he'll probably dispel any existing question.

Actually there should be no question even now. To all intents and purposes Spahn broke the strikeout record for left-handed pitchers by fanning five batters in an 8-2 victory over Cincinnati Monday night.

Those five strikeouts upped his major league total to 2,378. No argument there. But there is some argument over Rube Waddell's total.

Record Books Differ

Most record books say the former Philadelphia Athletics' southpaw struck out 2,375 batters during his career but in some books his total is listed at 2,381.

Ostensibly that was all settled 17 years ago when Bob Feller was officially recognized the single season record-holder after striking out 348 batters for Cleveland in 1946. Feller was acknowledged to have broken the record even though Waddell was credited with 349 strikeouts for the 1904 season in some books and 343 in others.

Those six strikeouts by Waddell are the same ones under question now even though it was all supposed to have been settled in 1946. According to the Little Red Book of Baseball, Waddell's total was 2,375. But some purists insist on going by "One for the Book," which lists Waddell's total as 2,381.

Needs Four Strikeouts

Regardless, Spahn has a much better chance of getting rid of his asterisk than Roger Maris has. All the veteran southpaw needs is four strikeouts against the Mets Friday night and he'll be the new record-holder in everybody's book.

Spahn held the Reds to six hits Monday night in posting the 340th victory of his major league career and his 13th triumph of the season compared with five defeats.

Hank Aaron's 39th homer of the season with one on and Lee Maye's eighth homer with one on, both off loser John Tsitouris in the first inning, proved enough margin for Spahn, who later yielded solo homers to Vada Pinson and Frank Robinson.

The Los Angeles Dodgers snapped their four-game losing streak and maintained their 4½ game lead with a 7-2 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies while the San Francisco Giants won their eighth straight by beating the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-4, in the only other National League action.

CALL UP METCALF

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Yankees have called up Tom Metcalf, a 23-year-old right-handed relief pitcher, from their Richmond club in the International League.

Cincinnati tennis ace vanquished

SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. (UPI)—John Powless of Cincinnati found himself on the sidelines in the Eastern Grass Court tennis championships today although he had given the tournament its most exciting moments of an otherwise uneventful opening round.

Powless, ranked 36th in the country in men's singles, had top-seeded Frank Froehling of Coral Gables, Fla., on the ropes on several occasions before bowing, 4-6, 11-9, 6-3, Monday.

Froehling, second ranked American, was forced to rally from match point to down Powless, who held advantage three times in the 17th game of the second set. Froehling finally pulled out the second set with a service break in the 29th game, and quickly piled up a 3-0 lead in the final set.

Other seeded men advanced with considerably more ease. Second-seeded Ronald Barnes of Brazil defeated Norm Perry of Los Angeles, 6-3, 6-8, 6-1; third-seeded Gene Scott of St. James, N.Y., ousted Walt Johnson of Hollywood, Fla., 7-5, 6-3; and NCAA champion Marty Johnson of Northwestern, seeded fourth, breezed passed Mike Belkin of Miami Beach, Fla., 6-2, 6-2.

Idle Spokane still gains in PCL flag race

By United Press International

Even when the Spokane Indians are idle, they pick up ground in the Pacific Coast League chase.

The Indians stretched their northern division lead to 6½ games when Portland edged second place Tacoma 3-2 in a sharp pitching duel between Monty Monteagudo of the Beavers and Ron Herbel of the Tacomas.

In other action Monday night, Salt Lake edged San Diego 9-7 and Seattle picked up a 10-4 decision over Hawaii. Everybody else took a break, but all 10 teams are in action again tonight.

Monteagudo helped his own cause at the plate in the contest at Portland. He singled in the third and came on Billy Harrell's double and also knocked in a run in the fourth win an infield single. Harrell's homer in the seventh put Portland ahead 3-0.

But in the ninth, Tim Talton and Gil Garrido singled. A sacrifice fly, a double by Jesus Alou, and a single by Joe Sparks made it 3-2.

The 19-year-old Monteagudo, now 9-10, increased his loop-leading strikeout total to 10 more. Herbel is now 12-10 for the Giants.

Salt Lake starter Cal Koonce was staked to leads of 7-2 and 9-4 by his heavy hitting mates and needed those runs when San Diego's Jim Saul whacked a three-run homer in the ninth. Fred Burdette, one of the league's sharpest relievers, came in to preserve the win.

Jesse White, Bob Will, Billy Cowan and Mack Kuykendall all belted two hits apiece for the winners, while San Diego's Rogelio Alvarez also hit a homer for the losers.

Seattle roared off to a five run lead in the first inning and then coasted in as Pete Smith and Hal Kolstad combined on a five-hitter. Mel Nelson surrendered most of the Seattle runs and absorbed the defeat.

Dave Hall and Russ Gibson each knocked home two runs in the big first inning. But the news was not all glum for the Islanders. In Honolulu, it was announced that the team surpassed its 1962 home attendance after just 54 dates this year.

A total of 151,632 customers have watched the team with 19 home games remaining. Last year, the club drew just 149,737.

General manager Lew Matlin said he is sure the club will surpass the 200,000 mark this season.

Babe Ruthers advance

THE DALLES (UPI)—Klamath Falls edged the Jefferson Nationals of Portland 7-6 and The Dalles nipped Wilson of Portland 5-2 as the Oregon Babe Ruth baseball tournament began Monday night.

The nine-team tournament, which will send a representative to the Pacific Northwest regional meet at Kelllogg, Idaho, next month, continues through Saturday.

South Douglas (Myrtle Creek-Riddle) plays Seaside today. Pendleton meets Madison of Portland and McMinnville faces The Dalles tonight.

Roseburg downs K-Falls Legion

ROSEBURG (UPI)—Roseburg posted a 2-0 victory over Klamath Falls here Monday night to move into the Oregon American Legion junior baseball semifinals.

Roseburg won a best-of-three series 2-1.

Dick Williams pitched a four-hitter and struck out 17 for Roseburg. Jim Jackson of Klamath Falls also allowed only four hits.

Roseburg will play host to Salem in a best-of-three semifinal series beginning Thursday night. The Dalles and Madison of Portland meet in the other semifinal series.
