U.S. survivor or quake shaken by experience

NEW YORK (UPI)—A Boston University sociologist believed to be the first American survivor to return from the earthquake in Skopje, Yugoslavia, reported himself still shaken by the experience Monday night.

Bernard S. Phillips, 32, an associate professor of sociology, who lives in Lexington, Mass., arrived here on a jet flight from Belgrade. He said he had left Skopje the afternoon of the quake and did not realize its magnitude until he read newspaper reports.

Phillips said he was sleeping in a third-floor room of the five-story Hotel Turist when the earthquake struck shortly after dawn last Friday. "I was awakened by a tremor which seemed to last 15 to 20 seconds," he said. "The building was shaking very badly.

"I knew right away that it was an earthquake. I was afraid, and I knew that I had to get out as soon as I could.

"I threw on my pants over my pajamas, put on my shoes and grabbed some jewelry I bought for my wife. I went down a stairway mobbed with people. Many were yelling and screaming, but there was no pushing or shoving.

"Everyone was standing in the middle of the road or in the large, open squares. Everyone feared another quake and the only way to keep away from buildings tumbling all around was to get out in the open.

"There was so much debris in the air you could hardly see anything at all. It was the most oppressive sight that I have ever seen in my entire life."

I have another lady who wants 3 B.R. for about $11,000. All 3 have husbands with good jobs, proper down payment.

WE SOLD the $16,000 4 B.R. 2 bath home the 4th day we had it listed, now I need another large home.

I still have the 3 B.R. furnished home on 2 lots, E. Side, for $6,000 total price. They will take a nice trailer as part down payment, we need $3,500 down, either cash or equity in trailer.

HERE IS ANOTHER 3 B.R. home, 1½ baths, att. garage, fireplace, oil heat, a real lovely home for $14,500.
