Off-traded Burton lands in record book on 2 homers

By Milton Richman
 UPI Staff Writer

Off-traded Ellis Burton of the Cubs, a tough man to keep tabs on because he never stays in one place too long, landed in the record book for keeps today—alongside Mickey Mantle.

Burton thus joined a select group of seven other major leaguers who switch hit home runs in the same game. Most notable of the group is Mantle, who has done it on nine different occasions. Most recent before Burton was Maury Wills of the Dodgers, who did it last year.

In addition to his two homers Thursday night, Steve Boros and Jim Schaffer also homered for the Cubs as Larry Jackson set down the Braves on seven hits for his 12th victory against nine losses. Lemaster's loss was his sixth compared with seven victories.

By winning, the Cubs solidified their hold on fourth place and moved to within 6½ games of the idle first-place Dodgers.

The St. Louis Cardinals climbed into a tie for second place with San Francisco by defeating the Cincinnati Reds, 3-2, in the only other National League game scheduled.

Eastern lawn tennis tourney resumes today

SOUTH ORANGE, N.J. (UPI)—Play was expected to resume in rain-plagued Eastern Grass Courts tennis championships today with third round matches in both the men's and women's singles.

Only two matches were played Thursday before rain washed out the program. In these, both in women's singles, top-seeded Margaret Smith of Australia and Maria Bueno of Brazil scored victories and advanced to the fourth round.

Miss Smith, the Wimbledon champion this year, dropped only four games in beating Nadine Nutter of Scarsdale, N.Y., 6-2, 6-2, while Miss Bueno turned back Carol Wright of Brooklyn, N.Y., 6-4, 6-2.

connected for his sixth homer while batting left-handed against reliever Ron Piche in the seventh.

Game Rained Out
 The only game scheduled in the American League was Boston at Baltimore and it was rained out.

George Altman's fifth inning homer off Joey Jay broke up a 1-1 tie and paced the Cardinals to their victory over the Reds. Benched recently for weak hitting, Altman collected three of the Cardinals' seven hits.

St. Louis increased its lead to 3-1 in the eighth on a walk, a single by Charlie James and Tim McCarver's sacrifice fly and that turned out to be the winning run when the Reds scored once in the ninth.

Southpaw Curt Simmons won his 10th although he needed help from Ron Taylor and Bobby Shantz in the ninth. The hard luck Jay gave up six hits in seven innings and was charged with his 15th loss against four victories.
