John Pennel hopes to top own vault mark next year

LONDON (UPI) — A confident John Pennel predicted today that his new world pole vault mark would last only as long as it took him to return to shape next season.

"I hope to reach 17 feet, four inches, or maybe even 17 feet, six inches by Olympic time next year," he said.

Pennel busted his own world record Monday with a vault of 16 feet, 10 1/2 inches, which helped carry the United States Men's track and field team to a 120-91 victory over Britain in a dual meet. It was the fourth victory without defeat for the Yanks on their European tour.

However, the U.S. women, given a chance to win their first meet of the tour, fell apart on the final day against England and lost, 65 1/2-51 1/2. The British 440-yard relay team set a women's world record of 45.2 seconds.

Pennel extended the drama of his record attempt until his final jump before a receptive crowd of 30,000 in White City Stadium. After failing on his first two attempts at 16-10 1/2, the 22-year-old Northeast Louisiana State student cleared the bar on his third try. He then missed three attempts at 17 feet, 1/2 inch. Pennel's old mark of 16-8 3/4 was set here July 15 and equalled by him at Warsaw on July 26.

The U.S. men won six of the 16 events on the final day's program for a total of 13 in the

Leads Giant dive

Traded player does not haunt Dodgers

By United Press International
 Many major leaguers who are traded come back to haunt their old club—but not Carl Warwick.

The only regular in the majors who bats right and throws left did his old Los Angeles Dodger teammates a big favor Monday night when he sparked the Houston Colts to a 6-5 comeback victory over the San Francisco Giants.

It was a tough setback for the Giants, who had hoped to pick up ground on the idle Dodgers. Instead, Al Dark's men dropped five games off the pace and into a second-place tie with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Warwick, who broke into the majors with the Dodgers in 1961 before moving on to St. Louis and then Houston, knocked in the Colts' winning run with a line single that capped a two-run rally in the bottom of the ninth.

It was the third time the Colts had come from behind in the game — the only one scheduled in the majors Monday. The Giants had tied the score at four-all in the eighth with the help of Willie McCovey's 33rd home run of the season and went ahead in the top of the ninth on another solo blast by Willie Mays, his 28th of the campaign.

Juan Marichal of the Giants and Houston's Don Nottebart—a pair of no-hit pitchers—dueled through the first seven innings but neither figured in the decision. Hal Woodeshick, who relieved Nottebart in the eighth, gained his ninth victory against six defeats and Jack Fisher (6-8) was the loser.

The Dodgers resume their road trip today at Chicago, where they open a three-game set against the Cubs. Last season, Walt Alston's men lost only four of 18 games to Chicago. They haven't found the Cubs such pushovers this season, posting eight victories in 13 games.

The New York Yankees, riding along with a 7 1/2 game lead in the American League, open a two-week road trip tonight with a doubleheader against the Washington Senators. August was a bad month for the Yankees last season when their pitching collapsed and they finished the month with a 17-18 record.
