Ed Cecil, former Bend mound ace, now top reliefer at Winnipeg

By Web Ruble
Bulletin Staff Writer

Vince Genna, Bend city recreation director and former coach of state champion Bend American Legion baseball teams, just received a letter from Ed Cecil, a former Lava Bear who is now playing professional baseball at Winnipeg, Canada.

One of Genna's proteges, Cecil was a mound ace at Linfield College after leaving Bend High School and the American Legion diamond ranks. This summer the St. Louis Cardinal organization signed him on a bonus basis and sent him to Brunswick, Ga., for experience in a Class D league. He wasn't there long. Eddie Stanky, the man in charge of the Cards' minor league chain, grabbed Eddie, told him he was strictly a relief man, and shot him up to Winnipeg, Manitoba, for "seasoning." Stanky told Ed he had "the stuff," plus the right attitude to become a major league pitcher. Eddie started chugging for the Winnipeg Coldeyes (Class C team) July 1.

In his letter to Genna, Ed said that Stanky talked to him again, suggesting winter ball and disclosed that perhaps Ed may be asked to the major league training camp next spring.

Eddie had a few words to Vince that are a top tribute to his coaching and may be an inspiration to aspiring baseballers. He said, "First, I love it. I think this baseball life is nothing but tremendous. I'll say one thing though, if a person didn't love the game, he could get pretty tired of it."

He continued, "I like pitching, Vince. It is really a challenge to me. . . never the same situation twice. One thing you can be sure of is that I give it my best every time I throw. I had a little arm trouble at first. I think it was from not being used to throwing hard every day. It is fine now though. My curve is improving every day. The changeup you taught me is still one of my best pitches. They are ironing out my flaws slowly but surely, and I learn more every day."

In another paragraph Eddie said, "One thing is for sure. I never will be sorry I signed. I wouldn't trade it (baseball) for anything. . . and I intend to go all the way to the top. . . and I will, too."

Eddie disclosed his record this season thus far. He has been in 17 games and pitched 28 2-3 innings. All of his duty has been "short relief." Eddie now has a 2-0 win-loss record, and has fanned 35 batters. Ed also mentioned that the next step up within the Card camp is to double A ball at Tulsa, Okla. "This (Tulsa) is where I expect to be next year," Eddie added.

MORE ABOUT BASEBALL

Speaking of baseball and considering the more immediate scene, things have been happening at The Dalles.

Bill Bauer's Bend Legion team need not be too disheartened after dropping the district Legion flag to The Dalles. The Dalles, though appearing that weekend as anything but top-flight quality, did turn right around and beat the socks off Pendleton for the area crown. Coach Keith Tucker's squad annihilated the easterns 11-2 in the opener when Paul Duus tossed a six-hitter. In the second game, The Dalles outscrambled the Pendletonians 15-10.

The Dalles, however, was eliminated in the semis against Madison of Portland. Madison, thus, faces defending champion Roseburg in a best-three-of-five series for the state title, beginning Monday.

In addition to baseball, The Dalles is running more sports activity this month. On August 24-25 the Columbia River city hosts an Oregon AAU - sanctioned swim meet, and a non-sanctioned one. The Dalles also will host a meeting of recreation directors on August 10, and an all - corners track meet later this month.

TWO-HORSE POWER—Entries in the Roman race hit the straightaway Sunday at the Deschutes County Fair Rodeo. Each rider races a half mile while standing on the backs of two horses running side by side. Individuals in the race were Carl Campbell, Fred Hall, and Loren Corwin.

Hannum named Warrior coach

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Alex Hannum, star collegiate and professional basketball player with a winning record as a coach, today headed the San Francisco Warriors, a dismal failure in their first year in the National Basketball Association.

Hannum, former coach of the Syracuse Nationals and St. Louis Hawks, was named head coach Tuesday by Eddie Gottlieb, who moved up to become managing director of the club. Gottlieb's old position as general manager was taken over by Bob Feerick, who coached the Warriors last season in their first campaign since moving from Philadelphia.

Hannum resigned as Syracuse coach when the team moved to Philadelphia this year.

Hannum, a former University of Southern California player, played professional basketball for Syracuse, Baltimore, Rochester, Milwaukee, Fort Wayne and St. Louis.

BEGINS SUSPENSION

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (UPI) — Jockey Larry Adams will start a 10-day suspension Thursday for "failing to keep a straight course in the stretch" during the running of Monday's ninth race at Saratoga.

Tobkins win Vern Larson husband-wife tournament

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tobkin teamed efforts at the Bend Golf Club Sunday to overrun a field of hot competitors and win the Vern Larson Husband and Wife Tournament.

Tobkin played right at par golf, carding a 45, but what won the event for the Tobkins was the blistering 48 shot by Lorraine Tobkin.

Under the setup, both husband and wife deduct one half of their respective handicaps for a net score. Tobkin charted a 36 net, but his wife turned in a tremendous performance and combined it with a 35 handicap. This gave her a net score of 30.5, a mark which is 7 1/2 strokes under par.

Elmer and Rene Panner were the first runners-up. Until the Tobkins lodged their scores, the Panner couple led the field. Jim and Peggy Wood emerged as second runners-up with a score of 79. Third went to Chet and Eunice Coryell with a 79.5. Fourth place ended in a tie between Bud and Lou Stipe and Ray and Marion LeBlanc. They carded 80.5's.

Morrie and Betty Jo Olson got the highest score when they carded a 100 total.

Two of the husbands competing in Sunday's golf go have been taking some lessons from golf pro Ken Spence. Both Don Dyer and Olson are hitting the long ball. Sunday, however, saw wife Dot Dyer in trouble with "the water hole," which hurt the couple's overall score.

WIGHTDRAWS FROM FIGHT

LONDON (UPI) — A thickened Achilles tendon has forced British and Empire welterweight champion Brian Curvis to withdraw from a scheduled fight with Isaac Logart of New York at Porthcawl, Wales, Aug. 20.

Curvis, of Wales, is seeking an October bout with world champion Emile Griffith.

New Philly entry given 76er name

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Philadelphia's new entry in the National Basketball Association will be known as the Philadelphia 76ers. Club President Irv Kosloff announced Tuesday that the nickname for the team, formerly the Syracuse Nationals, was selected by a panel of judges from some 4,000 entries in a contest.

Philadelphia has been without a pro team since the Warriors' franchise was transferred to San Francisco over a year ago.

Dolph Schayes, 35-year-old all-time professional basketball great, was signed last month to a two-year contract to coach the 76ers with whom he played in Syracuse.

Cubs have project

Kennedy in bag for 'manager-of-year'

By Gene Bludeau
UPI Staff Writer

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Chicago Cubs, confident that Bob Kennedy already is in the bag for manager-of-the-year honors, are quietly working on another project "for the good of the club."

This is to come up with the team's first southpaw 20 - game winner in 44 years. The last Cubs lefthander to win 20 or better was Jim Vaughn, who wound up the 1919 campaign with a 21-14 record.

The next one could be Dick Ellsworth, a 23-year-old pitcher who has a 15-7 record with two months of the season left.

If Ellsworth makes it, he could also put in a claim for the come-back-of-the-year award on the basis of slipping to 9-20 in 1962 after a promising 10-11 with a seventh place club in 1961.

Ellsworth Confident

Ellsworth is confident he will win 20 this year and Freddy Martin, his pitching coach, believes Ellsworth can't miss.

"If he doesn't get hurt or suddenly develop arm trouble, I don't see how he can miss," Martin said. "His control is as good as any pitcher in the league right now, and he's been winning some close ones where he hasn't been getting much help from the batters."

Martin put in a lot of time with Ellsworth in spring training. The pitching coach said Ellsworth had a flaw in his motion—failing to bend forward far enough with the throw.

"It wasn't extremely noticeable, but it was enough to affect his control. He worked hard on getting rid of that. When he did, his

Phils extend pact for Gene Mauch

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Phillies' manager Gene Mauch, pilot of a "coming ball club" which last month compiled a 21-10 record winning seven straight, was given a two-year contract extension Tuesday.

In a strong vote of confidence, General Manager John Quinn said Mauch has "done a very good job" since joining the rock-bottom Phils in 1960. Quinn said he and owner Bob Carpenter "are delighted to have him as our manager for the next two years."

No terms were disclosed, however, it is believed Mauch will receive a substantial pay hike.

Clay fight cancelled

New York promotion beckons to Liston

NEW YORK (UPI) — Heavyweight champion Sonny Liston was scheduled to begin arranging his big switch today from independent promotion to that of Madison Square Garden.

The switch, Liston said, would entail abandonment of his proposed Sept. 30th defense against young Cassius Clay at Philadelphia, and the arrangement, instead, on a December defense against some lesser contender on home television for promoter Harry Markson of the Garden.

That December contender may be Ernie Terrell, the Chicago giant.

If Sonny does swing over to the Garden, it could be one of the most momentous moves in boxing history — a move that might begin boosting the Garden back to the big-fight promotional supremacy it enjoyed until 1956.

Top contender Clay, visiting in New York, said he was gravely disappointed because of Liston's withdrawal from the September fight, "just because he's scared to death of me."

Liston countered with, "I hope big mouth Clay doesn't fight anybody till I get him next year because the first good man he meets will knock his head off."

It was Liston, himself, who announced in Philadelphia that he planned to visit Markson and his Garden matchmaker, Teddy Brenner, in New York today and discuss possibilities of a home-television defense — possibly at Miami Beach, Fla., or Las Vegas, Nev., in December.

And it was also Liston who announced he was postponing his proposed defense against 21-year-old Clay at Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium until next year because of "tax problems." Total gate, television and other receipts from the Clay fight were expected to approximate $7 million.

CLAIMS SEVEN LIVES

WARSAW, Poland (UPI)—The smallpox outbreak raging in south west Poland has claimed seven lives, including the doctor who cared for the victims, the Polish news agency PAP said today.

It said 23 new cases were reported in the last five days in Wroclaw and Opole provinces near Poland's boundary with East Germany. Among the dead was Dr. Stefan Zawada, a Wroclaw physician who fought the outbreak.

Roseburg wins two straight from Madison

ROSEBURG (UPI) — Dick Williams fired a four-hitter as Roseburg defeated Madison of Portland 8-1 in the second game of a best-of-five series for the Oregon American Legion baseball title Tuesday night.

Madison opened the series with a 2-0 victory in 10 innings Monday night.

Williams struck out 12 and walked three in recording his 12th victory in 14 decisions.

Roseburg combined six hits, seven errors by the Portland team and 12 walks for its runs. Seven were unearned. Jim Beamer and Williams each had two hits for the winners.

The teams continue their series tonight with Ron Westbrook (8-2) or Rojelio Gutierrez (5-0) of Roseburg and Chamberlain listed as the probable pitchers.
