

Los Angeles climate adds spark to visiting pitchers

By Alex Kahn
UPI Staff Writer

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—There's something about the Los Angeles climate that seems to spark up visiting pitchers. Angels manager Bill Rigney decided today as he reviewed the results of Tuesday night's 5-1 victory of the Minnesota twins over his Los Angeles Angels.

The beneficiary of the Angels this time was Lee Stange who had never beaten Los Angeles. In the past such hurlers as Chet Nichols and Steve Ridzik had benefited from the visit to Los Angeles at the expense of the Angels.

Stange threw a fast ball and an occasional curve but despite his lack of variety he stood the Angels on their ears for seven innings, gave up one run in the eighth and missed a complete game victory by one out.

"That's the best I've ever seen Stange pitch," Rigney muttered after the game. "His stuff was alive and he was all around the plate all night."

And Stange said it was his best performance since he threw a 1-0 shutout against the Detroit Tigers.

The slim righthander was given a three-run lead by his teammates in the first inning and that was all the edge he needed to record his fourth win of the season.

Stange allowed only two singles for seven innings and he appeared on his way to another shutout until the eighth when the Angels put together three straight singles for their only run.

The Chicago-born hurler for 5 2-3 innings faced the minimum of 17 batters although he gave up a second inning single to Leon Wagner but the Angel outfielder was erased on a double play.

But before Bill Dailey relieved him in the eighth with two out and two men on the bases, he gave up six hits, four of them in the final two innings.

Stange spent six weeks with the Twins' farm club at Dallas-Ft. Worth where he compiled a 7-1 record and had a 2.05 earned run average. And since his return to the Minnesota club he has been used in a starting role.

Despite the score, the game was a close pitching duel after Angel starter Dean Chance put himself in the hole in the first inning when he allowed three runs.

Chance pitched one-hit ball for the next six innings but then loaded the bases for a second time in the eighth, allowed two runs to score and was lifted for Julio Navarro who recorded the final out and retired the side.

Big Bob Allison's bases-loaded single started the Twins rally in the first inning, driving in two runs, and Los Angeles-born catcher Earl Battey sent home the third run. Battey also drove in another run in the eighth on a sacrifice fly.

The two big guns of the Twins mound staff are scheduled to work the next two games. Tonight Camilo Pascual, 22-6, whose hurling has baffled the Angels in the past, takes the mound. But the Angels send their top pitcher, Ken McBride, against him in quest of his 13th win.

Dick Stigman was scheduled to work Thursday's afternoon contest for the Twins, probably against Paul Foytack.

Willy Mays bat rings as Dodgers go

By United Press International

Those front-running Los Angeles Dodgers must realize by now that the National League pennant race is as hot as Willie Mays' bat happens to be.

The Dodgers are five games in front of the Giants and the St. Louis Cardinals and they're coasting along with a tidy three-game winning streak.

Willie's average dipped to .240 in mid-season and this looked like the worst season he ever has had in the majors. But he's rifting that bat with six hits in his last eight trips to the plate and he's raised his season average to .290. The message to the Dodgers is loud and clear—falter and you'll pay the penalty of blowing a second straight pennant.

Mays hammered out a triple and two singles to lead the Giants' 12-hit attack Tuesday night in a 3-1 victory over the Houston Colts. It was the first time the Giants beat the Colts in Houston in five games.

Dodgers Down Cubs

The Dodgers downed the Chicago Cubs, 4-1, the Cardinals topped the New York Mets, 4-3, the Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the Milwaukee Braves, 3-0, and the Philadelphia Phillies scored a 7-1 triumph after a 6-4 10-inning loss to the Cincinnati Reds in other National League games.

In the American League, New York beat Washington, 1-0, after an 8-5 loss, Baltimore downed Cleveland, 6-4. Detroit routed Boston, 10-1. Kansas City shaded Chicago, 4-3, and Minnesota defeated Los Angeles, 5-1.

Jim Duffalo went eight innings and allowed six hits to win his fourth straight game without a loss for the Giants while Hal Brown suffered his seventh defeat against four wins. Mays tripled and scored in the fourth inning and contributed a key single in the sixth when the Giants scored their final run. Jim Wynn had two hits for the Colts.

Maury Wills paced the Dodgers' 10-hit attack with a double and three singles and Don Drysdale pitched a six-hitter and fanned six for his 14th victory against 12 losses. Drysdale, now gunning for his second straight 20-win season, halted Billy Williams' 12-game hitting streak.

Bobby Shantz' 1-2-3-innings-of-close-out relief pitching helped the Cardinals deal the Mets their 15th defeat in 17 games. Ken Boyer, Julian Javier and Tim McCarver had two hits each for the Cardinals, with Boyer driving in the winning run with a fifth-inning single. Galen Cisco suffered his 10th loss against seven wins.

Don Cardwell shut out the Braves with four hits for eight innings and Al McBean closed it out in the ninth to earn Cardwell his eighth win against 12 losses. Key blows in the Pirates' three-run seventh inning were a single by Roberto Clemente, a double by Donn Clendenon and a single by Jim Paggiaroni.

Pete Rose's two-run homer and three hits by Vada Pinson led the Reds to their opening-game triumph at Philadelphia but the Phillies won the nightcap on the strength of three doubles by Johnny Callison and the three-hit pitching of Denis Bennett. Joey Jay suffered his 16th loss against four wins for the Reds.

Post diagrams plays in football game-toss suit

By United Press International

ATLANTA (UPI)—Georgia coach Johnny Griffith, a prime witness in the $10 million libel suit Wallace Butts is pursuing against the Saturday Evening Post diagrammed plays Tuesday which he said were the secrets allegedly given Alabama coach Paul Bryant.

Griffith drew the formations on a blackboard in federal court where the Post is attempting to prove to a jury the truth of an article carried in the magazine last spring. The Post said Butts gave the secrets to Bryant in a telephone conversation accidentally overheard by Atlanta insurance man George Burnett.

Griffith, who succeeded Butts as head coach of the University of Georgia when Butts was promoted to athletic director, said he considered the information helpful to the Alabama team prior to the 1962 Georgia-Alabama game which Alabama, a 17-point favorite, won 35 to 0.

Testified For Two Hours

Griffith testified for two hours and 45 minutes in the federal courtroom crowded with some 200 spectators.

He was the first of a number of coaches or assistants who Post attorney Welborn Cody said he planned to call to the witness stand.

Additionally, Cody said he planned to show movies at today's hearing of the game, the third session of the multi-million dollar libel action.

Griffith, 39, said that the information about the two formations would have helped Alabama concentrate on Georgia's key plays.

Cody asked Griffith if the notes Burnett took of the Butts-Bryant call reflected the two formations that Griffith considered vital.

"Yes sir, they do," Griffith replied. "They show both the formations we planned to use and did use."

However, Griffith, who admitted that Butts had loaned him money and had helped establish his career as a football coach, said on cross examination by William Schroeder, Butts' chief attorney, that the formations were widely used in the previous season of 1961 not only by Georgia but the other Southeastern Conference teams.

Butts, who resigned as athletic director last February when publication of the Post story became imminent, has never denied that he made a telephone call to Bryant. But both he and Bryant, who has also sued the Post, have denied that vital information was exchanged.

K-Falls wins in Babe Ruth shot

KELLOGG, Idaho (UPI)—Klamath Falls walloped New Westminster, B.C., 14-2 in the first round of the regional Babe Ruth baseball tournament Tuesday night.

Riverton, Wyo., defeated Ketchikan, Alaska, 11-3, Aberdeen, Wash., scored a 16-3 victory over Wallace, Idaho, and Great Falls, Mont., topped Kellogg 9-4 in other opening games of the eight-team, double-elimination meet.

Klamath Falls rolled up an 8-1 lead against the British Columbia team in the first three innings of seven-inning contest.

Among players with the required 375 at bats, Cowan holds a healthy lead over his nearest rival, Cesar Tovar of Dallas-Ft. Worth, who is hitting .326.

Tovar leads in doubles with 36 and runs scored with 93. Deron Johnson had 23 homers and has crashed two more this week already, while Cowan's 93 runs batted in are tops in that department.

Mrs. J. Barlow shoots low gross

Mrs. James Barlow was low gross golfer among Bend women Wednesday when the Redmond women golfers hosted a joint golf affair between the two clubs.

Low net honors went to Mrs. Carl Erickson. Closest to the pin on Hole 6 was Mrs. Vern Proehl. Mrs. Mert Waugh hit the longest drive on Hole 2.

This Wednesday will see the Bend women enter into a "tee to green low score" tournament. It will also be the fourth day's play for the Nellie Sullivan trophy.

Mrs. A. C. Stipe is luncheon committee chairman. She will be assisted by Mrs. Don Hampson and Mrs. Len Standifer.

There will be a mixed two-ball affair on Sunday.

O-City moving ahead in PCL while still idle

Oklahoma City has moved ahead in the Pacific Coast League's Southern Division race while standing still.

The Oilers were idle Monday and rained out at Denver Tuesday night, while Salt Lake City two-timed arch-rival Dallas-Fort Worth to make it three straight over the Rangers.

Thus, Oklahoma City has moved from 1-2 game behind Dallas-Ft. Worth to one game ahead of the Rangers while not playing a game.

Salt Lake nipped Dallas - Ft. Worth 4-2 Tuesday night and then exploded for five runs in the seven inning nightcap to pull out a 7-3 decision.

In other games Tuesday, Spokane rolled on with a 3-2 victory over Tacoma to climb back to a 10 1-2 games over the Giants in the Northern Division. San Diego dispatched Portland 6-3 and Hawaii closed in on Portland in the Northern Division by crumpling Seattle 15-2.

Salt Lake exploded for four singles and three runs in the first inning of the first game against Dallas-Ft. Worth and then made them stand up. Jim Schandever relieved starter Wayne Carlander in time to pick up the decision and then Jack Warner helped out Schandever.

In the nightcap, Jim Stewart's triple and Cuno Barragan's double high lighted the five-run bash that decided it. Lloyd Walls had a two hit shutout for five innings and then surrendered a run in the sixth and a two run pinch hit homer to Chuck Weatherspoon but still got the win.

Standing board jump — 5 year olds, Kandi Koth (H) and Barbara Mayne (A), 6 year olds, Charlotte Miller (A) and Pam Sprague (A), 7 year olds, John Douglas (H) and Kris Kemple (H), Girls 8-9, Molly Douglas (H) and Janice Johnson (A), Boys 8-9, Steve Maker (A) and Pat Rutherford (H), Girls 10-12, Lynn Hawes (A) and Regina Douglas (H), Boys 10-12, John Rutherford (H) and Boyd Bolton (H), Boys, 13, Paul King (A) and Roger Radke (H).

Sack race — 5 year olds, David Arndorfer (H) and Kenny Kemple (H), 6 year olds, Vickie Newman (A) and Charlotte Miller (A), 7 year olds, Bobby Stephens (H) and Mike Tolle (H), Girls 8-9, Janice Johnson (A) and Cindie Provencel (A), Boys, Pat Rutherford (H) and Billy Douglas (H), Girls 10-12, Regina Douglas (H) and Laurie Comarck (H), Boys, Karl Johnson (A) and John Rutherford (H).

Three-legged race, 5 year olds, Ricky Miller (H) and David Arndorfer (H) and Kandi Koth (H), and Cindy Bolton (H), 6-7 year olds, Mike Tolle (H), Kevin Tolle (H), Vickie Newman (A) and Charlotte Miller (A), Girls 8-9, Janice Johnson (A), Cindie Provencel (A) and Glenda Bilderback (A), Boys, Pat Rutherford (H), Billy Douglas (H), Ken Putman (H), and Alan Burmeister (H), Girls 10-12, Margaret Mayne (A), Lynn Hawes (A), Regina Douglas (H) and Sandie Alvinger (H), Boys, John Rutherford (H), Jerry Tubbs (H), Gary Rutherford (H), and Billy Douglas (H), Boys, 13, Dan Rutherford (H), Roger Radke (H), Ken Eckes (A), and Paul King (A).

Lombardi still smarting

Packers hard at work since loss to all-star collegians

By United Press International

Although the Green Bay Packers wear the title of champions they receive no special privileges when it comes to hard work.

Coach Vince Lombardi, still smarting from the 20-17 defeat administered by the College All-Stars last Friday, sent his squad through a bone-crunching 15-minute scrimmage Tuesday which many observers termed "brutal."

The Pittsburgh Steelers, who meet the Packers on Saturday night in Miami, were hard at work to duplicate the All-Star victory which snapped Green Bay's pre-season victory string at 19.

The Detroit Lions were duly impressed with rookie Larry Ferguson of Iowa, who scored the All-Stars' first touchdown against the Packers. Ferguson was participating in his first scrimmage with the Lions.

The Chicago Bears received welcome news when linebacker Tom Bettis' injury, suffered on Sunday, was reported to be only a severe elbow sprain, rather than a dislocated elbow as first believed.

Del Shofner and Dick Modzelewski, two stalwarts on the New York Giants, rejoined workouts Tuesday, but the New York club sliced five others from the roster to reduce their squad to 52 players. Those cut were veteran linebacker Dick Lasse, John Mummey, Stan Morgan, Joe Taylor, and J. R. Williams.

The St. Louis Cardinals held brief contact drills Tuesday while five rookies from the College All-Stars, including Don Brumm of Purdue, Bill (Thunder) Thornton of Nebraska, and Bob Paremora of Florida received their first professional workouts.

The Washington Redskins ran through such a ragged morning drill, that head coach Bill McPeak scheduled an unexpected afternoon scrimmage which featured two near-fights and a good blocking exhibition by rookie full-back Dave Francis of Ohio State.

The San Francisco Forty-Niners were pleased with the work of quarterback John Brodie and tight end Floyd Dean after Tuesday's workouts, while the Cleveland Browns practiced kickoff return patterns with Walter Beach and Jim Shorter on the receiving end.
