Philadelphia grid squad 'waives' two

By United Press International
The Philadelphia Eagles placed Frank Budd on waivers today along with Bill Johnson, an end from Florida A&M. Budd, who was used sparingly as a flanker back by the Eagles in his first pro season last year, once ran the 100-yard dash in 9.2 while a student at Villanova University.

The National Football League's exhibition season gets underway tonight when the Dallas Cowboys oppose the Los Angeles Rams in a charity game at Los Angeles. Second year quarterback Roman Gabriel will start for the Rams.

The place-kicking department, perhaps the Green Bay Packers only weak spot, may be solved by Willie Wood, a defensive half-back. Wood was connecting from 45 yards out Wednesday.

Glynn Griffing, the New York Giants' rookie quarterback from Mississippi, was reported "making good progress" after the Ole Miss standout ran through his first workout with the Giants.

The Cleveland Browns, pointing toward Saturday night's game with the Detroit Lions, had a longer workout than usual. The Lions eased up on their daily drills to avoid injuries.

Raymond Berry, star split end, shined on offense for the Baltimore Colts but the Colt defense stole the show for the first time since camp opened.

Paul Flatley, rookie flanker from Northwestern, will be the only first year man to start on the Minnesota Vikings' offensive unit in Saturday's game with the San Francisco Forty-Niners although four rookies will start defensively.

The New York Jets acquired veteran tackle Sherman Plunkett from the San Diego Chargers for an undisclosed future draft choice.

Sandy Koufax hurls two more strikeout records

By United Press International
Chalk up two more strikeout records for Los Angeles fireballer Sandy Koufax today.

Koufax struck out 11 batters in the Dodgers' 3-1, 11-inning triumph over the Chicago Cubs Wednesday.

Koufax' 11-strikeouts lifted his season total to 210 in 213 innings and made him the first National League left-hander to record three consecutive 200-strikeout seasons. It also was a league record 48th time in which he has struck out 10 or more batters in a game.

Koufax turned over a tie game to relief ace Ron Perranoski and the latter gained his 11th win of the season when the Dodgers came up with two runs in the 11th inning on Tommy Davis' homer, singles by Willis Davis and Al Ferrara and an error by Ellis Burton.

The victory enabled the Dodgers to increase their NL lead to six games when the Houston Colts topped the San Francisco Giants,

1-0, and the New York Mets surprised the St. Louis Cardinals, 7-3. The Philadelphia Phillies beat the Cincinnati Reds, 2-1, and the Pittsburgh Pirates shamed the Milwaukee Braves, 5-4, in other NL action.

In the American League, New York defeated Washington, 9-1, Chicago beat Kansas City, 7-3, Detroit nipped Boston, 5-4, Cleveland topped Baltimore, 4-1, and Minnesota scored a 9-4 victory over Los Angeles.

Dick Farrell went 8 1-3 innings and Hal Woodeshick threw a game-ending double play ball to pinch hitter Harvey Kuenn to give the ninth-place Colts their fifth win in their last six home games with the Giants. The Col's scored the game's only run off Jack Sanford in the fourth inning on Al Spangler's single, a sacrifice and John Bateman's single.

Jim Hickman hit a homer, triple, double and single and Duke Snider had three hits in the Mets' 11-hit attack that brought Tracy Stallard his fifth win. Ernie Brog-lio, who had beaten the Mets three straight previous games, suffered his eighth loss against 12 victories.

Roofers gain forfeit; OE, Murray Bros. garner wins

Plenty of action is on the docket for this, the final week in Rookie League play, but only two of the three games slated thus far have gotten off the ground.

Last night's Rookie tilt was called off. It was a forfeit. The Central Oregon Roofers gained a victory when the Gordon Randall club failed to field enough players.

Monday night saw a 19-3 annihilation, when Murray Bros. took the measure of AFL-CIO. A 10-run first inning, coupled with a seven-run second frame, put the Murray Bros. squad out of sight for the AFL-CIO nine.

It wasn't until the fourth frame that the unionmen did anything. It was a sizable inning, though. Three base hits, one a triple by Doyle Higgs, and two walks enabled the union team to score three runs.

Murray Bros. did most of its stuff by taking great advantage of the walks handed out hurlers Dave Smith and Neil Hufstader. Murray Bros. did quite a bit of ball clobbering, too. Pacing the Murray batters was Chris Rice, who belted a triple in the second inning.

Tuesday night saw another lopsided victory. Oregon Equipment went berserk in all five innings to overpower Leico, 21-8. Oregon Equipment led 2-1, and it looked like anybody's ball game.

A seven-run Oregon Equipment spurge in the second inning, however, told the story. Leico didn't do anything more until the bottom of the fourth, when it exploded for seven big tallies.

By that time, however, the OE men had tallied 19 and were just about in orbit. When the dust cleared, Oregon Equipment still lead, 19-8. Two more runs were added to the Oregon Equipment meld in the top of the fifth.
