L. Dodge, 624 N. Fourth Street, Redmond. The Koiner put in at Cordova and Seward for Fourth of July celebrations. In both cities, the ship was open for public tours. In Seward a party was held for 38 Eskimo children. The ship is a perimeter picket for other units of the First Fleet.

Central Oregon Democratic party workers are all set for their picnic-meeting at 2 p.m. Sunday at Tumalo State Park. They've even made arrangements for a substitute meeting place in case of rain.

Oregon State Senate President Ben Musa of The Dalles will be the principal speaker at the meeting. State Senator Alfred Corbett of Portland is also planning to attend the picnic session.

The party workers and their families will prepare picnic lunches to bring to the affair. Coffee and soft drinks will be supplied at the park.

In case of rain, the meeting will be moved to Ross Hall, 608 Hill Street in Bend.

DAVID H. WATSON

Watson returns to active duty

Pfc. David H. Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McKay, Butler Market Road, is returning to active duty with the U.S. Army after spending part of a leave with his parents.

Pfc. Watson recently spent a tour of duty in Germany as a member of Company B of the 28th Infantry Regiment of the First Division. He was stationed in Berlin at the time of President Kennedy's recent visit and reported to his parents that the nation's chief executive was received with great enthusiasm by the West Berliners.

While in Germany, Pfc. Watson also served at Wildflethen and had an opportunity to visit the city of Mannheim.

On his return to active duty he will be stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas. He expects to complete his two-year's of service later this year and plans to return to college following his discharge.

Picketing ends at local store

Wagner's Super Market, 250 E. Greenwood Avenue, was without a picket today. The store had been picketed since Monday evening by local No. 1565 of the International Retail Clerks Association.

Frank DeSelle, international representative of the union from northwest region headquarters in Seattle, said today that the picket was withdrawn pending the outcome of talks today in Portland.

The local charges that Wagner's Market in Prineville has refused to bargain with the local Union of officers say that a majority of the employees at the Prineville store wish to designate the local as their bargaining agent.

Vandals damage boys' bicycles

Extensive vandalism to the bicycles of two boys who left them while swimming at Juniper Park was reported to city police last night.

The boys are Randy Graven, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graven, 951 E. 11th, and Dennis Murphy, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore E. Murphy, 937 E. 11th. Nearly all of the spokes of both bikes were kicked out, the boys said, and the frame of the Graven boy's bike was beaten out of shape with large rocks.

The bikes were attacked some time between 7 and 9 p.m. ATTACKS DEFENSE DEPT. WASHINGTON (UPI) — The chairman of a House subcommittee has attacked the Defense Department for requiring pregnant wives of servicemen at some bases to seek medical care at private hospitals.

Police to work double shifts

Special to The Bulletin PRINEVILLE — City police will work double shifts during the Crooked River Roundup according to the customary schedule for Prineville's police force during rodeo days.

In former years, rodeo weekend has been marked with only an occasional mishap or over-celebration and the major work of the police has been in surveillance rather than handling complaints, records show.

NO GOOD WHEN COLD

COLUMBIA, Mo. (UPI) — Guests at the Boone County ham breakfast Saturday will get their ham and eggs but no grits, and all because caterer James C. Nanson is a Southern cooking purist.

Nanson said grits must be cooked and served quickly in the best tradition. He feared the grits would not withstand being carted to the fairgrounds to be served lukewarm.

MISS SUE FOUNTAIN

Engagement news is announced

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Fountain, 225 Broadway Avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sue Adell, to Scott L. Jaynes. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Ott, Route 2, Bend.

Both young people are 1963 graduates of Bend High School. This fall, they plan to enroll at Southern Oregon College in Ashland.

The wedding is planned for mid-September.

Ex-Bend principal heart victim

Dr. Arthur S. Taylor, 69, a former Bend High School principal, died at his home in Ashland early today, victim of a heart attack. He was principal in Bend from 1922 to 1924.

Dr. Taylor retired as chairman of the Southern Oregon College Department of Social Science in March. He had been on the SOC faculty since 1926.

He is survived by a daughter, Georgia, of Ashland.

Through the years, Dr. Taylor was a frequent visitor to Bend.
