Van's Vikings

San Francisco Forty Niners open their exhibition season against the Minnesota Vikings tonight here at Five Forty Niner starters are out for a variety of reasons.

J. D. Smith, the team's number one runner, and veteran end Clyde Conner are definitely out with injuries, Guards Bruce Bos ley and Mike Magac are doubtful because of injuries and coach Red Hickey hopes to get by without them. Guard Ted Connolly is warring with the team over his contract.

Kermit Alexander, the much-heralded back, is expected to be restricted to runbacks since he has only been in camp a week. Hickey will especially be look-ing at such backs as Lloyd Winston, Jim Vollenweider and rookies Mike Lind and Don Lisbon, They have run well in practice and if one could be found to join Smith in the starting backfield, the versatile Alexander might wind up playing defense.

The Forty Niner passing game should be a strong one with quarterback John Brodie having a pair of outstanding young re-ceivers in Bernie Casey and Jim

Leon Donohue and John Thomas will open at guards and if they can move a few Vikings aside and men like Winston and Lind can look as good as they have in practice, then the Forty Niners

Minnesota will not unveil its flashy rookie quarterback, Ron VanderKelen, but veteran Fran throw with the best of them. VanderKelen, who started for the college all stars against Green Bay, also has only had a week of practice.

The Vikings' best runner, Tommy Mason, is sidelined because of injuries and the veteran Tommy Wilson will take his place. San Francisco defeated Minnesota three times last year and rates as the slight favorite today.
