Farmer's share of consumer dollar drops

By Gaylord P. Godwin

UPI Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Agriculture Department said today farmer's share of the consumer's food dollar dropped to 36 cents in the April - June quarter of 1963.

This was the lowest quarterly average share recorded in more than 20 years. Farmers received 37 cents in the previous quarter, and 38 cents in April - June, 1962. In 1952, the farmer's share of the retail dollar spent for farm-originated food was 47 cents.

In a review of the marketing and transportation situation, the department said marketing charges in the second quarter of 1963 averaged 3 per cent higher than in the same period of 1962. The marketing charges were up mainly because: (1) Retail prices of beef did not decline as rapidly as farmers' prices of cattle; (2) Retail prices of frozen orange juice concentrate and canned single-strength orange juice rose rapidly after the freeze in Florida than prices growers received for oranges; (3) Marketing costs for bakery and cereal products rose significantly during the year.

The department said price farmers received for food products in the second quarter averaged 3 per cent lower than in January-March, mainly because of decreases in farm prices of beef cattle, milk for fluid use, and eggs. The second quarter average this year also was 3 per cent lower than a year earlier and resulted largely from lower prices for beef cattle, hogs, and fresh vegetables.

The department said the bill for marketing domestic farm-originated food products to civilian consumers totaled $42.9 billion in 1962. This was an increase of 3 per cent over 1961 and less than the annual rise during the past 10 years.

The marketing bill has increased every year since 1950 when it was the same as in the preceding year. From 1952 to 1962 it rose 52 per cent.

The civilian expenditure for farm goods in 1962 totaled $64.3 billion. With the marketing bill subtracted, the resultant farm value of the farm-originated food was $21.4 billion.

REMAINS ON FORCE

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI) — A police dog named "Sabre" sported a gold tooth today.

Sabre, who was threatened with retirement when he lost his rightfang recently, preserved his status on the department's canine corps with the help of a dentist.
