

Dick Stuart crusades to beat Yankees

By United Press International
Smoldering Dick Stuart is so burned up that he's just liable to foul up the whole World Series.

He's carrying on a whacky one man crusade to annihilate the Yankees all because their manager, Ralph Houk, passed him up for the American League All-Star team last month.

"I'm gonna try to beat their brains out every time I play against them," Stuart proclaimed.

"Let him try," Houk snuffed. Stuart not only tried Wednesday but succeeded handsomely as he pounded out six hits and drove in as many runs to help the Red Sox sweep a day-night doubleheader from the Yankees, 14-7 and 5-4.

The big outspoken Boston first baseman hit Houk where it hurt the most. With the Yanks leading 5-2 in the opener, Stuart singled off the left field wall with the bases full to drive in the lead runs during a seven-run fifth inning explosion.

He then blasted a two-run homer in the eighth inning of the nightcap and that blow turned out to be Boston's winning margin. The home run was Stuart's 29th, tops in the AL, and his 84 runs batted in also lead the league.

Pitcher Homers
Bill Monbouquette picked up his 15th victory in the opener with help from Jack Lamabe, who slugged a three-run homer in the seventh. Rookie Dave Morehead won his seventh in the nightcap although chased in the ninth when the Yanks scored all their runs. Ralph Terry (13-12) and Jim Bouton (15-6) were the losers.

Elsewhere in the AL, the Indians blanked the White Sox, 1-0, in 11 innings, the Twins tripped the Orioles, 2-1, in 13 innings, the Tigers defeated the Athletics, 5-2, and the Angels downed the Senators, 2-0.

In the National League, the Dodgers' lead was shaved to three games when they were beaten by the Braves, 5-3, and the second-place Giants outlasted the Reds, 7-6, in 10 innings. The third-place Cardinals climbed to within four games of the top with a 3-2 victory over the Colts, the Phillies swept a pair from the Cubs, 7-2 and 9-3, and the Mets hurled the Pirates, 4-2.

Willie Kirkland's homer with two out in the 11th inning gave the Indians their first run in 27 innings and a victory over Ray Herbert of the White Sox. Dick Donovan held the White Sox to four hits for his eighth victory in 18 decisions. Herbert, who allowed nine hits, now is 11-7.

Win in Thirteenth

Vic Power's double in the 13th inning followed by Bernie Allen's single broke up a 1-all tie between the Twins and Orioles. Allen connected off Stu Miller, who came on in the 11th for starter Robin Roberts. Russ Snyder put Baltimore ahead with a first-inning homer but Harmon Killebrew tied the score with his 28th homer in the eighth. Reliever Bill Dailey gained his fourth victory in six decisions.

Bill Bruton drove in four runs for the Tigers with a homer and two singles against the Athletics. Phil Regan went the first eight innings to register his eighth victory. Moe Drabowsky homered for the A's but it wasn't enough to keep him from suffering his ninth defeat against four wins.

Dean Chance boosted the Angels into seventh place with a five-hitter against the Senators that earned him his 11th triumph. The Angels scored their first run off loser Claude Osteen on three singles in the first inning and added their final run in the fourth on two singles and a double play ball.

Battle royal developing among hurlers in PCL

By United Press International
There's a battle-royal underway for top pitching honors in the Pacific Coast League.

The latest statistics showed that Howie Reed, Spokane righthander, still tops the circuit but he's being challenged by Ray Ripplemeyer, of San Diego.

Both men pitched for their respective teams Wednesday night. Neither lasted with Seattle decision Ripplemeyer and the San Diego Padres 7-2. Reed got off the hook after being touched for five runs as Denver and Spokane went into extra innings with the Indians finally winning 7-6 in 10 after the Indians took the first game of the twin bill 8-1.

In the Southern Division the Alfonso-Gason act continues with Dallas-Ft. Worth moving into the lead by one-half game by virtue of its double-victory over Oklahoma City, 2-1 and 5-1. Tacoma downed Salt Lake City 6-4 and

Former NY hurler, Drews killed in auto mishap

DANIA, Fla. (UPI) — Former major league pitcher Karl August Drews, 43, was struck and killed early today by a car that he tried to flag down for help when his own car stalled.

Drews, a righthander, pitched with the New York Yankees, St. Louis Browns, Philadelphia Phillies and Cincinnati Reds from 1946 to 1954, compiling a 44-53 won and lost record.

Police said Drews' car stalled at a construction area on the road and he got out to get help. His 17-year-old daughter, Geraldine, remained in the car.

Drews tried to stop a car driven by Earl Richard Johnson of Hollywood, Fla., but Johnson's car smashed into him, hurling him 80 feet through the air, police said. Johnson was charged with driving while intoxicated and causing an accident.

Drews lived with his family in nearby Hollywood. He was a native of Eltingville, Staten Island, N.Y.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — End Dee Mackey will become property of the San Francisco Forty Niners today if the Baltimore Colts do not withdraw his name from the waiver list.

NW ace hurls one-hitter

By United Press International
Wednesday night was pitchers' night in the Northwest League, as one tossed a brilliant one-hitter, another got the deciding hit in a key victory and a third made his first professional baseball start a success.

Righthander Ron Tompkins allowed only a third-inning single and got hefty support from his Lewiston teammates to shutout Tri-City 12-0.

Tompkins struck out 11 and walked three in picking up his 10th victory.

Hud Gelein, a fair hitter for a pitcher, got a pinchhit double to drive in two runs to give Yakima a 11-10 come-from-behind victory over Wenatchee.

Yakima, the league leader, was trailing 10-6 going into the bottom of the ninth. Two runs scored on a pair of doubles, then one more came in on a bases loaded walk and the stage was set for Gelein's hit, a double off the rightfield fence.

The other pitcher to share the glory was Cecil Ira, of Eugene. He pitched a five-hit, 3-2 victory over Salem for his first victory in professional baseball.

The victory enabled Eugene to move out of the league cellar.
