

Youth arrested, juveniles cited in Allen theft

Sheriff's officers are continuing investigation of a recent burglary on the Bear Creek Road property of John C. Allen, although an 18-year-old boy has been arrested, and two juvenile boys have been cited to appear in Juvenile Court.

Allen, who is employed as a lookout on Tumalo Mountain, for the State Forestry Department, is an angry man. This is the second time that one of his houses was burglarized while he was away at summer work. The same thing happened last year.

This time, items conservatively valued at $800 were taken or damaged. The break-and-entry and vandalism were discovered by a deputy sheriff while checking in the area on another matter. A quantity of household and radio equipment, tools and camera gear was strewn around the yard.

Acting on a tip, officers arrested Lowell Thomas Laite, 18, of Bend, on a burglary charge. He appeared Monday in Circuit Court, but did not enter a plea, and a court-appointed attorney was named for him.

Officers say that Laite had admitted taking a voltage regulator, a small movie camera and a voltage checker from one of the two houses, on Allen's property, but denies any participation in damage to numerous other items.

The damaged articles include a chain saw and motor, a deep fat fryer, various radio equipment, a photographic enlarger, a body vibrator pad, a camera, a grease gun and miscellaneous drill accessories.

Officers indicated that it is possible additional arrests will be made in connection with the case.

Auto vandalism is investigated

Sheriff's officers yesterday investigated vandalism to an automobile near the Little River home of Mrs. A. Langford, who operates a restaurant in LaPine.

The car was parked on the road, which is covered with cinders. Apparently using a large cinder rock, someone had made deep gouges in the paint, on a large area on one side of the car.

The vandalism occurred Monday evening, Mrs. Langford reported.

County school calendar due

A calendar of all school events in the county, for the 1963-64 school year, is being compiled in the office of County School Superintendent David Potter.

The list will be available to schools planning programs, open houses, carnivals and other events, and is intended to avoid conflicts whenever possible.

The calendar will also give opening and closing dates, and vacation periods, at the various schools. As the year progresses, additions will be made to bring the calendar up to date.

Agenda set for commission

Bend City Commissioners will discuss or take action on four ordinances when they convene tonight at 7:30 in City Hall.

Second readings will be given two vacation ordinances: a portion of the old Bruin Field roadway running from E. Third Street, and a portion of W. Second Street south of Portland Avenue.

Also scheduled for second reading is an ordinance amending changing from single-family dwelling to multiple-family dwelling zone a piece of property between E. Fourth and Fifth Streets and Alden and Burnside Avenues. The board also will consider an amendment providing new requirements for the keeping of livestock within the city of Bend.

Petitions for street improvements will be heard. These include a portion of E Sixth Street from Revere to Innes Lane, and a portion of Emerson Avenue from E. Third to Sixth Street.

Commissioners will consider bids submitted by private firms for the asphaltic concrete paving of four strips of city roadway.

Dimick home hit by thief

Thirty-one dollars cash and several articles were stolen from the home of Mrs. Pat Dimick, police learned yesterday.

Mrs. Dimick told officers that her home, 65 Shasta, was vacant between about noon and 10:30 p.m. Monday. The prowler apparently entered through a door.

Stolen besides the money were a .25-caliber Russian automatic hand gun, transistor radio, flash camera, metal horse statuette and portable electric mixer.

Police are still investigating.

Statement issued to give clarification in milk case

The Oregon Department of Agriculture has issued a statement to clarify a misunderstanding arising out of the recent hearing before Marion County Circuit Judge George Duncan on application for a temporary injunction against enforcement of the milk stabilization law.

An item carried by The Bulletin earlier was on information from the plaintiff, Oregon Milk, Inc., Bend. The incorporators, Bruce Markell and Dennis Marvin, buy milk in both Oregon and Washington.

The plaintiff is seeking to have the court declare the new milk law, which establishes prices at the producer level, null and void.

On August 2, the date the suit was filed, Judge Duncan issued a temporary restraining order against the department. In the hearing August 9, preliminary to the trial of the suit itself, Judge Duncan dissolved the earlier court order, permitting the Department to go ahead with preparation to establish a market pool, effective October 1. The judge also enjoined the Department from enforcing minimum prices on plaintiff's out-of-state milk, pending outcome of the suit itself.

He also ordered any poundage fees collected on out-of-state milk purchased by the plaintiff held in trust pending outcome of the suit.

Both sides are pressing for an early trial date.

Motel purchase reported here

A Mt. Angel couple has purchased the City Center Motel from Mrs. Frances Waldron, owner since March, 1958.

New owners are Mr. and Mrs. Klaas Schenk, who in recent years have managed a dairy in Mt. Angel. It will be their first enterprise in the motel business, Schenk said this morning.

The Schenks came to the United States in 1951 from The Netherlands. They lived for a year in Newberg where Schenk was engaged in farm work, and then moved to Salem. Schenk has been active in dairy work in both Salem and Mt. Angel.

The Schenks have two boys, both students at Oregon State. Klaas, 23, a member of the OSU swim team, manages the Newberg municipal swimming pool during summer months. Henk, 18, was with a team of young Oregon wrestlers which toured Japan this summer.
