

Hatfield subject for 'Portrait' on TV Friday

SALEM (UPI)—Gov. Mark Hatfield and newsman Charles Collingwood will appear calm and relaxed at 10:30 p.m. Friday when "Portrait" is broadcast over CBS-TV.

Their apparent calm belies the electric air of frantic activity which surrounded the taping of the program at Hatfield's home here Monday.

Scores of cameramen, directors, producers, technicians, and truckloads of equipment converged on the northwest corner of High and Kearney streets early Monday.

Lights were installed, furniture moved, cameras placed, microphones set up.

Crowd Gathers

The Hatfields, who were away for the weekend, met Collingwood in Portland in the morning. They arrived in Salem shortly before noon. Streets were blocked off while pictures were taken of their house. Crowds of onlookers gathered.

Mrs. Hatfield had left instructions to prepare lunch for 14. She ordered a quick change, and 40 were fed.

After lunch the taping of the interview began.

A sound recorder went out, and they had to start over. Then a grass fire threatened a nearby television relay, and firetrucks roared past the house while Hatfield chatted unconcernedly inside.

Wife Watches in Truck

Mrs. Hatfield, still wearing an apron from lunch, sat in one of the television trucks and watched the program on a monitor.

The Hatfield living room became oven-like from the heat of television lights.

When it was over, a director commented on Hatfield's relaxed air.

"I don't feel relaxed," the governor smiled as he wiped perspiration from his brow.

A director, after reviewing the taped interview, commented "that's the best interview we've ever done. The governor is charming, and he's so articulate."

EXTENSION VOTED

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate, beating back an economy drive, voted Monday to extend for three more years the current authorization of $75 million annually in federal aid for airports.

The Senate rejected 64 to 14 a move by Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., to cut the program back by one third, or to $50 million a year.

Oregon, $901,766; Idaho $657,532; Washington $673,862.

Civil defense victory scored

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The national civil defense program took its biggest step forward in congressional history today when the House Armed Services Committee approved a limited fallout shelter plan designed to protect 11 million Americans.

By a vote of 32-4, the committee endorsed a bill that would permit the federal government to spend $190.6 million on the project during the current fiscal year.

Congress would review the plan next year and decide if it should complete the rest of the projected five-year program to provide 95 million spaces at a cost of more than $2 billion. Added to existing spaces, the ultimate figure would be 240 million spaces.

Committee Chairman Carl Vinson, D-Ga., successfully beat back Republican attempts to trim down the size of the bill. A cut would have ranged from 125 million to 175 million.

PLANE IDENTIFIED

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI) — The wreckage of a plane found Sunday by an Anchorage pilot was positively identified Monday as that of a plane which crashed three years ago with seven persons aboard.

Identification was made by Capt. Frank C. Fox Jr., pilot of an Air Force helicopter that reached the scene of the crash Monday.
