

SIGNS WITH 76ERS
PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Chet Walker has signed his contract for the 1963-64 season with the Philadelphia 76ers of the National Basketball Association. Walker was the fourth top scorer and second in rebounds when the club was based in Syracuse last season.

Musial, Cards vow to make last ditch try to overtake LA

By Martin Lader
UPI Staff Writer

If Stan Musial is as sharp with his words as he is with his bat, there's another dark cloud hanging over Los Angeles. The Dodgers, who apparently had wrapped up the National League pennant with a seven-game win streak last week, continue to be their own worst enemies as the race heads for the treacherous September stretch. Musial promised Monday after his St. Louis Cardinals had whipped the San Francisco Giants, 6-3, that "we've still got a chance to overtake them." The Dodgers then added life to the prophecy by dropping a 2-1 decision to the Cincinnati Reds Monday night, allowing the Cards to creep within 5½ games of the league lead. Los Angeles now has lost four of five games in its home park following the impressive streak, and 1962 isn't so far behind that the players don't remember. The Milwaukee Braves slugged the Houston Colts, 11-7, in Monday's only other National League contest. American League action was limited to a two-night doubleheader at Washington between the Minnesota Twins and the Senators. Minnesota lost a chance to gain a firmer hold on second place by dropping the nightcap, 7-3, after capturing the first game, 5-2. Jim O'Toole, a loser in eight of his last 10 decisions, was the messenger of ill tidings for the Dodgers. The husky left-hander retired the first 10 men he faced and limited Los Angeles to five hits for the game to gain his 16th triumph against 11 losses. Gordy Coleman provided the major share of the batting support with his ninth home run of the year following a single by Frank Robinson in the fourth inning. The Reds picked up their final run in the eighth when Tommy Harper scored from first base on a Vada Pinson single and a poor relay home by Junior Gilliam. The lone Dodger score came in the fourth when Tommy Davis singled home Willie Davis, who had walked. Don Drysdale (16-15) was the losing pitcher. The Cardinals pushed across three runs in the ninth inning to snap a two-game losing slump and foil Juan Marichal's bid for his 20th victory. Singles by Curt Flood, Dick Groat and Ken Boyer provided the decisive runs after the Giants had tied the score in the eighth. George Altman had hit a two-run homer for St. Louis in the top of the eighth. Eddie Mathews, Don Dillard and Hank Aaron all hit homers for the Braves to more than offset an inside-the-park circuit by Houston's John Bateman. Aaron then followed Orlando Cepeda and Willie McCovey of the Giants with a home run in each of the National League parks this season. Relief pitcher Ron Piche gained his first triumph of the year. Resounding back-to-back homers by Harmon Killebrew and Bob Allison sparked the second-place Twins to their opening game victory. Dick Stigman, with late-inning relief from Bill Dailey, evened his record at 11-11. But the Twins' edge over Chicago was narrowed to a half-game again when the Senators capitalized on Dick Phillips' homer and erratic Minnesota pitching to capture the nightcap. Starter Steve Ridenour (5-4) was the winner.

'Vandy' will get initial pro shot Saturday against Eagles

By United Press International

Ron VanderKelen, the Minnesota Vikings' widely-heralded rookie quarterback, will receive his National Football League "baptism" in an exhibition game against the Philadelphia Eagles Saturday at Hershey, Pa. "It's Vandy's game," head coach Norm Van Brocklin said Monday in announcing he will start the former Wisconsin star, who has watched the Vikings' first three pre-season contests from the bench. Van Brocklin also announced the purchase of two defensive tackles — Billy Wilson and George Holtz — from the St. Louis Cardinals. The newcomers brought the club roster to 54, so the Vikings will have to cut 11 players today to reach the 43-man limit. Buddy Parker, the Pittsburgh Steelers' head coach, had no such problem, for his roster already was pared to 43 players. Parker, though, remained in an unhappy mood because of the Steelers' 17-14 loss to the Baltimore Colts last Saturday. "I'm really disgusted," he said. "Our offense wasn't clicking against the Colts and the defense was fooled on simple draw plays." In other NFL camps: The Detroit Lions are fearful that flanker back Pat Studstill, who suffered a leg injury against the Cardinals last weekend, may miss the season opener against the Los Angeles Rams Sept. 14. Head coach Bill McPeak described the Washington Redskins' performances against the Eagles as "rotten."

Goldman training Carter for 'Fitzsimmons triple'

CHATHAM, N. J. (UPI) — Here in America's oldest fight camp, ancient Charley Goldman is training Rubin (Hurricane) Carter, whom Charley picks to do the "Fitzsimmons Triple." The late great Bob Fitzsimmons won the world middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight crowns, although not in that order. Goldman, 75, has already trained five world titleholders: Rocky Marciano, Al McCoy, Marty Servo, Lou Ambers and Joey Archibald. And the biscuit-faced little man, veteran participant of nearly 400 old-time bouts said today: "I'm positive that Carter will be at least my sixth champion — and quite likely my seventh and eighth." Ehsan Karadzag, 72-year-old owner of this hillside lay-out, sounded almost Irish (although he's Persian) when he said: "And he can do it, too!" Lean, swarthy Ehsan and the late Madame Bey opened this camp 40 years ago — in 1923.

Bo Belinsky reforming? Hawaii fans believe it—four hitter

By United Press International

Maybe Bo Belinsky has reformed! From the way he is pitching for the Hawaii Islanders, it sure looks that way. Bo, warming up the record crowd of 16,954 which turned out at Honolulu Stadium Monday night for the Islanders' final home game of the season, pitched a neat four-hitter to lead Hawaii to a 6-0 victory over Spokane. In gaining his third victory without a loss since being sent to Hawaii by the parent Los Angeles Angels, Bo set the Indians down with ease. He didn't permit a runner to reach third and hardly was in trouble. Stan Paly and Bobbie Knop homered to make things easy for Belinsky. He helped himself, too, striking out eight batters and walking only three. The Islanders collected 10 hits in all off a trio of Spokane pitchers. In the only other game played Monday, the Seattle Rainiers broke open a 3-3 tie in the seventh inning en route to an 11-3 victory over the Tacoma Giants. Tacoma scored in the top of the inning to tie the score and the Rainiers then sent 12 men to the plate in the bottom of the frame to bust the game wide open. Seattle collected 15 hits in all off four Giant pitchers with Dave Hall getting three singles. Five other Rainiers had two hits each and only one man, Bill Tuttle, went hitless. Billy Spanswick gave up nine hits but struck out 12 batters to register his 14th victory of the season against eight losses. Bill Hands, the Tacoma starter, took the loss, his fifth against only one victory. Despite their victory the Islanders still trail Spokane by 1½ games in the PCL's Northern Division race. The Rainiers' victory moved them to within a game of fourth-place Portland. A full schedule of action resumes tonight.

Coach gets big dinner

PORTLAND (UPI) — About 200 persons attended a farewell banquet here Friday night for Tom DeSylvia, former Jefferson High School and Portland State College football coach. DeSylvia, who resigned at Portland State earlier this year in a dispute concerning athletic policy, has accepted a job as an assistant coach at a high school in San Mateo, Calif. Terry Baker and Mel Renfro, two of his former stars at Jefferson, attended the banquet.

Fishing to be heavy at Odell Lake

Special to The Bulletin

CRESCENT LAKE — A good heavy Labor Day weekend for fishing is expected at Odell Lake. The management at the Odell Lake Resort has advised fishermen to arrive early and reserve boat and cabin. Fishing has been excellent, trolling small fluorescent lures being flashers. Within the last couple of weeks, there have been several kokanee up to 18 inches and weighing two pounds, several nice rainbows up to 6¼ pounds and Mackinaw up to 20. Odell Lake was producing kokanee by the limits last weekend. The weather has been dry with slight breezes in the afternoons. The best fishing has been from 5 a.m. to 10 a.m., and from 5 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.
