Fair - good lake fishing seen

Fishing this weekend in the Central Oregon Cascade lakes and streams should continue at the fair-to-good pace, a report from the Oregon State Game Commission said today.

Fishing at Elk Lake continues to be good with limits of small kokanee being taken on bait. Wickiup Reservoir continues to drop and improving catches of kokanee and brown trout are being taken in the channels.

Davis Lake fishing is slow, but a few four to five pound rainbows are being caught with dry flies near the south shore. Crane Prairie Reservoir continues good with four to six pound rainbows being caught in the Deschutes River channel. Catches of smaller rainbow are being taken on trolled and dry flies. Kokanee are taking bait in both Quinn and Cultus River channels.

East and Paulina Lakes are fair with most catches being made on troll with spinner and worms. Fishing at South Twin Lake is fair while North Twin Lake is producing excellent catches of rainbow on dry flies (black gnat). Three Creeks Lake is fair for rainbow, trolling spinner and worm. Still fishing is producing good catches on eggs and worms. Blue Lake is very good for 11 to 12 inch rainbow on lures ("Wob-Rite" and "Triple Teaser"). Mud Lake continues good for Atlantic salmon with a few large brook trout being taken.

STARTS TWIN DOUBLE

San Diego's Ellis, Spokane's Reed lead toss stats

SAN MATEO, Calif. (UPI) — Sammy Ellis of San Diego and Howie Reed of Spokane dominate Pacific Coast League pitching statistics in games through Sunday, according to official statistics released here today.

Reed has compiled a fine 16-1 mark, but his lead among starting hurlers is in jeopardy. Reed lost Tuesday night, while Terry Nelson of Oklahoma City (13-5) and Ray Rippelmeier of San Diego (11-2) are also vying for honors of having the league's best record.

Aurelio Montegudo of Portland has recorded 201 strikeouts and Denver's Chi Chi Olivo has tossed 213 innings, both league highs. Billy Cowan of Salt Lake City has regained the batting lead his ding-dong battle with Chi Salmon of Denver, .328 to .326. Cowan also leads in total bases, 297, and runs batted in, 114.
