Man's Greatest Needs:

Presented By: Church of Christ, 554 Newport Avenue, Bend, Oregon
Lee R. Nicklas, evangelist

Man's greatest need is redemption from sin! God created Adam and Eve and placed them in the garden of Eden, free from sin. In their original state they were not subject to death, because they could eat of the tree of life and live forever.

"And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, 'Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: but of the tree of knowledge of good and evil thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.'" Gen. 2:16-17. Adam and Eve both ate of the forbidden fruit: "And the Lord God said, 'Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat and live forever: Therefore the Lord God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from whence he was taken.'" Gen. 3:22,23.

Now they were sinners, subject to death and without the tree of life. Since that day man has been a sinner without the tree of life and subject to death: "Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned: For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law. Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come". Romans 5:12-14. Man alone cannot redeem himself. He must accept the atonement of Christ or die without hope. Man's greatest need therefore is redemption from sin! Isaiah 53.

Christ bought his church with his own precious blood. Acts 20:28. He gave the church the great mission of making wisdom of God known to the whole world. Eph. 3:10. This includes the plan of redemption from sin, and the instructions to guide a person through life as a child of God, and one that will bring the respect of the people of the community in which he lives upon him.

By faithfully discharging one's duty to their creator by worshipping him in spirit and in truth, John 4:24 and by serving him, by telling others of him and his son Jesus Christ, a person's life is made stronger, and his influence on others greater.

Attend the services of the church regularly where God's word is taught in its purity and simplicity, and let it be your guide, and you will be a better person in a better community, with a greater hope of a better life in the hereafter.

"See you in the church services Sunday"
