CHURCH OF GOD, BEND

Mark 12:17 ... "Unto Caesar ... Unto God"

Rev. John Marsh - Pastor, Church of God — 12th & Fresno

Echoing across the world are the cries of man. These include all manner of intent and meaning. The entire gamut of emotion is run, and still year upon year, century upon century the cries go on.

There has never been a greater teacher than Jesus. His intellect remains unsullied by those who would entrap His words to this day, yet what He said during His ministry is, for the most part, tolerated but unheeded. We speak of and view mans inhumanity to man, and do little about it. Somewhere from Jesus's time until now truth has been restricted and fallacy been given free reign until it has become easy for Americans to be "half truthful".

Somehow one feels today that taking a stand in behalf of American heritage and freedom marks one as some sort of fanatic or political something-or-other. Similarly taking a stand for Christ and His word marks one as a religious fanatic or "peculiar person".

Whether we as Christian Americans know it or not there is an evil force at work which is slowly, deliberately, eating away at every side of our political and religious foundation and pulling at our soul trying to ensnare it.

Recently we in this country saw a person who was a militant atheist pursue a belief until every citizen of this country was affected. Isn't it possible then for every Christian to take Christ's words and in these days pursue His cause until all are affected by them.

We must be unafraid to be counted as Americans. Also we must be unafraid to be counted as Christians. What a tremendous effect it would have on our society if we could do as Christ directs in the text and be truly Christian Americans. Those who would ensnare us as a people promise easy living and say "a new suit for every man", but long ago Christ told us that to follow Him was tedious and hard but His promise was "a new man in every suit".

PRAYER: Father of Light, help us in this darkened world to truly be Lights out from under the bushel of fear and criticism. Help us to stand for our heritage of freedom and true democracy. Help us to not forget Thee or to neglect giving unto Thee that which is sorely is ours at Thy hand. In Jesus name we pray ... Amen.
