

Good old golden rule days again in Central Oregon

Photos by Nate and Marilyn Bull

GOOD-BYE, FRIEND! — Lorilyn Rainwater bids fond farewell to Judy, German shorthair, before school day opens.

FAMILY PROCESSION — Mrs. Alan Rainwater, 544 E. Emerson, and sons Alan, 4, and Ronnie, 2, walk with Lorilyn to nearby school. This is the children's first separation, marking first big step away from home for the boys' sister.

REUNION — Lorilyn greets brother, Alan, 4, when she returns home from first grade lessons at Allen School.

WITH VIGAH — Madras Rally Squad works on new yells for Friday's game, while football players practice new plays. Girls in the formation from left are Dianna Rayburn, Sharon Jones, Sharon Pulliam, Judi Brooks and Susan Conlee. White Buffaloes meet La Grande in first game of season.

IDENTIFICATION — Jay Barton, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Barton, 621 E. 11th Street, receives name tag from Mrs. Tom Winbigler, first grade teacher at Bear Creek School.

MASS EXODUS — Students at Madras Union High School pour from building when classes are dismissed. Enrollment in most Central Oregon schools is up, in some cases much more than expected. Adjustments are being made to relieve burden in over-crowded classrooms, fill up less crowded areas.

TIRED DOGS — Norma Ruble, teacher at Bend High School, assumes posture common to faculty members, at end of day. Unusually hectic first week of school is at mid-way point.