Make your home sing with the beauty of this continuous filament nylon broadloom! It will brighten your living with warmth and color. It will stage your furnishings, give drama to your rooms and make your home say the nicest things about you . . . all this, at a cost to you of about a dime a day! Let Healy's Homeowners Package Plan accomplish this for you.

Certainly, this is one of the most outstanding carpet values we've found in many long years in the business. Densely packed 100% continuous filament nylon surface yarns, sturdy and hearty, styled stunningly with uncut loop design giving a carved Wilton effect. A double jute back gives the carpet extra body and weight, locks every tuft

In securely. This broadloom, called "Academy", has a luxury feel and appearance usually associated with carpet selling for far higher prices — $3 to $5 more per yard. It is long wearing, easily cared for, mothproof. And it has the unmistakable lustre and fullness of prime nylon. The colors are a masterstroke of the designer's art. Inca Gold, Martini, Royal Blue, Sand Beige, Moss Green, Peacock, Afterglow Red and others. After you've selected the color that will bring your rooms to life, we take over and do the whole job. We measure, cut, sew, and install wall to wall over heavy rubberized hair padding — to your guaranteed satisfaction. Under our Homeowner's Package Plan, the cost becomes much smaller than you may have dreamed it could be. An average 32 yard three-area installation, covering a living room, dining area and hallway, is only $320. You pay no cash down, only $11 monthly. (Larger or smaller areas are priced in proportion.) Figuring an average lifespan of ten years for the carpet, it would cost you actually less than ten cents a day to own Academy, with all the beauty and warmth it will give your home! In this day and age, wall to wall carpeting is no longer a luxury — it is something your family and home deserve to live with. See about it. Without cost or obligation we'll be glad to bring samples to your home, if you can't come right in. We have this carpet in good supply right now. We expect it to sell fast, it is such an unusual value. Delay could result in real disappointment. This week, come in or phone us. Let's find out exactly what the cost would be for installing Academy in your home. We've told you about it — surely you can afford it — the next move it yours!
