

Redmond 'Cats dog Bulldogs, but lose tough battle, 6-0

SPECIAL TO THE BULLETIN
HERMISTON — Coach Doc Savage's once-tired Panthers from Redmond almost pulled the prep upset of the weekend here last night when they lost a close, knock-down drag-out Intermountain Conference grid test to favored Hermiston, 6-0.

It was a grand effort for Redmond, but Hermiston proved too much for the Panthers when the Bulldogs halted a last gasp Redmond effort in the final quarter. The Hermiston line, backed up against its own goal post, stiffened and halted a 73 yard Panther drive at the Bulldog goal.

It happened this way: Redmond moved the ball deep into Bulldog territory as the final minutes were ticking off the clock. Savage's warriors drove all the way from the Panther 20 to the Hermiston

7, but couldn't punch it over. Only three minutes remained.

Redmond met its Waterloo in the second period, when Bob Webb plunged off tackle six yards to paydirt for the only score of the game. Dan Wardwell, Hermiston guard, missed the extra point kick, and the Bulldogs led by what turned out to be the final margin, 6-0.

Hermiston seized an opportunity to do it when a first quarter punt gave the Bulldogs the ball on about the Redmond 30. Hermiston then commenced a 30 yard drive that ended in Webb's TD flank movement.

Hermiston's balanced attack that worked so well against Prineville a week ago, didn't click with the same efficiency against Redmond. The fighting Panthers held on doggedly throughout the contest. Hermiston, a pre-season favorite to knock off defending IC champion Pendleton, found the going rough, and it got tougher as the contest wore on.

In that series of downs that provided Hermiston with the TD, Savage's Panthers intercepted a Bulldog aerial. The effort would have ended the Bulldog drive, but Redmond was penalized for pass interference. And the Hermiston wheels rolled on.

Cowboys tie La Grande, 6-6

SPECIAL TO THE BULLETIN
LA GRANDE — Coach George Tallchief's Tigers came on strong here last night at the Eastern Oregon College stadium to set favored Prineville back on its heels and gain a 6-6 Intermountain Conference deadlock.

Playing before a hometown crowd, the once vanquished Tigers saw its line come on like gangbusters and stymie an aggressive Cowboy bunch from Crook County. Prineville's hard-charging forward wall failed to provide running room for the backfield and the visitors were forced to take to the air lanes late in the contest.

La Grande posted the first tally. It came in the final two minutes of the first quarter when Ted Hilliard, a tricky running 190 pound halfback who was a thorn in Prineville's side all night, rounded right end and swept 15 yards into the Cowboy end zone.

Coach Bud Dowling's 'Pokes went until the third quarter before the Central Oregonians scored. It came in the dying seconds of the period when Rob Rush took a handoff from quarterback Gary Jackson and scooted around his left end and hit paydirt. The play covered five yards.

Prineville's tally was set up by a sustained drive that started on about the Prineville 20 and culminated with Rush's five yard sweep. Prineville's 70 yard drive was mainly a ground attack. It wasn't until the final quarter that the Cowboys filled the air with passes.

When it rained (with passes), however, it poured. Dowling's charges had one TD called back. A 3-yard backfield-in-motion penalty nullified a 45-yard scoring play. Junior signal caller Jim Elliott set loose a long bomb that hit Bob Rush right on the button. The latter trotted into paydirt unmolesed.

Elliott minutes later provided more thrills for a one-sided Tiger crowd. In the final seconds of the game he hit Rush three times with more missiles that put the 'Pokes back down there knocking on the Tigers' door.

One pass covered 40 yards, another went for 20, and the third one was a 15-yard howitzer. When the dust cleared the favored visitors had the ball on the Tigers' 13-yard stripe. The gun sounded before the Cowboys could get off another play.

Coach Dowling made special mention of brothers Mike and Fred Phillips, who were 'Poke stalwarts up front all night long. Rob Rush was the outstanding Prineville back, gaining 55 yards. The biggest impression that the Prineville coaches received was that passing wizardry of Elliott. "He almost pulled the game out for us," Dowling said after the disappointing deadlock.

Dowling made special mention of Ted Hilliard, La Grande's broken field back. "Hilliard was hard to stop and his broken field exhibition was by far the best ground attack performance of the evening," Dowling said. Apparently the Tiger dynamo was injured, as he made an unusual number of trips in and out of the game.

Score by quarters:
 La Grande 0 0 0 6
 Prineville 0 0 6 0
