Church of the Nazarene Rev. E. David Wardlaw

In I Corinthians 1:18-25 we read:

For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? Where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom: But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

Man is searching every day for something that will satisfy the hunger of his spiritual nature. Some seek after power, some seek after wealth, some seek after wisdom and others seek in various areas of life to try to find satisfaction for a hunger that can be satisfied only in the plan of God to meet man's spiritual need. Christ is God's gift to the world to meet the deepest and greatest need of humanity . . . that is salvation from sin. According to the scriptures, it is God's good pleasure to save them that believe . . . that is, believe that Jesus Christ came to save those who are lost in sin. In Acts 4:12: Neither is there salvation in any other; for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. It is evident that the preaching of Christ is foolishness to those who seek after wisdom, power and all other like accomplishments of this world but refuse to take Christ as God's provision for man's salvation.

Paul, the Apostle, in his letter to the Ephesians 2:8, 9: For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast. The grace provided is God's love and mercy manifested in Jesus Christ as the gift of salvation, but the responsibility is man's in accepting this provision by faith. In Hebrews: 11:6: But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. And what is the reward of seeking the Lord? . . . Isaiah 55:6, 7 says, Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. Man has sought and found wealth, wisdom and the honours of this world but these have failed to satisfy man's hunger for spiritual need. But there are those who have sought and found Christ and have found love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.
