

McPeak says Browns will take East in runaway

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Will the Cleveland Browns make a runaway out of the National Football League's Eastern division?

Cast a dissenting vote from a coach whose team was one of the four whipped by the unbeaten Browns — Bill McPeak of the Washington Redskins.

"Cleveland is no myth," McPeak conceded. "But I think they can and will be liked before the season is over. The Browns are riding an emotional crest right now. They want to win for Blanton Collier and they're playing as good football as they will all year."

McPeak believes the Eastern race won't jell for another two or three weeks.

"It's a pretty even division," Bill allowed. "Philadelphia should have beaten Pittsburgh in their opener, you can't count on the (St. Louis) Cardinals with 56 points against the Vikings, and frankly we should have licked New York last Sunday."

McPeak admitted that the Browns are the surprise team of the East.

"Before the season, if I could have picked one game I expected

TITLE BOUT SET
BERLIN (UPI) — British Empire champion Henry Cooper and countryman Brian London will meet for Ingemar Johansson's vacant European heavyweight title.

The championship committee of the European Boxing Union, in making the ruling, said Germany's Karl Mildnerberger and Wim Snek of Holland did not receive enough votes to be considered leading contenders for the crown.

to win it would have been our own opener against Cleveland," McPeak said. "The Browns really surprised us. Someone told us they held three squad meetings before they played us, meetings in which the players all talked about having to win for Collier."

McPeak was not discounting his own team's chances, either, despite a 2-2 record including Sunday's loss to the Giants. At this time last year, Washington led the conference with three victories and a tie.

"Right now, we're a better football team than we were last season," Bill insisted. "After four games in '62, we were still just a two-man team — Norman Snead and Bobby Mitchell. This year we've got a more solid defense and a more varied offense. If we can get our passing to click better, we'll beat anyone."

Mickey Mantle undergoes knee surgery

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mickey Mantle, who has had more than a nodding acquaintance with doctors in the past, is expected to undergo surgery for removal of cartilage in his left knee next week.

Dr. Sidney Gaynor, the New York Yankees' club physician, plans to confer with Mantle later this week and set a date for the operation in a New York hospital.

Before returning to his home in Dallas Monday, Mantle said he would leave the decision on whether to operate entirely in Dr. Gaynor's hands.

"If surgery is necessary, I'll have it done within six weeks after the series," said Mantle before leaving Los Angeles, where the Dodgers completed a four-game series sweep over the Yankees.

"I am going to wholeheartedly recommend an operation," said Dr. Gaynor. "If Mickey doesn't have that cartilage removed there's a good chance he'll break down next year."

Mantle tore loose the cartilage in his left knee in a game against the Orioles at Baltimore last week.

HEADS HARNESS FIELD
WESTBURY, N. Y. (UPI) — Dr. Donald C. Somers' Harold J. headed an eight-horse field named for the $50,000 Harness Track of America championship pace final at Roosevelt Raceway Friday night.

Others entered are Rusty Range, Leigh Hanover, Coffee Break, Adora's Dream, Buxton Hanover, Mr. C. Song and Mighty Tar Heel.

June 5, when he also broke a bone in his left foot that knocked him out of the Yankees' lineup for two months.

The Yankees appeared more concerned about Mantle's unpredictable underpinnings than their four straight losses to the Dodgers when they returned to New York Monday.

"If Mickey is okay, then we're okay, too," said General Manager Roy Hamey, who added the American League champions were planning no wholesale changes during the off-season.

Go with youth?
British to gamble in Ryder Cup tiff

ATLANTA (UPI) — John Fallon, non-playing captain of the British Ryder Cup team, indicated today he may gamble with youth in an effort to beat the Americans for the first time in this country.

In a surprise move Monday, Fallon teamed Scotsman Brian Huggett and Welshman George Will, a pair of 26-year-old golfers, making their first Ryder Cup appearances. Alternating with the same ball, they responded with an unofficial 67 on the par 70 East Lake Country Club Course.

It had been generally expected that Fallon would pair the young golfers with veterans. But although his move was just an experiment the fact that the Huggett-Will team was five strokes better than any other British two-some Monday indicated the experiment was a success.

Fallon is looking for a combination to send against American captain Arnold Palmer and whoever his playing mate will be in at least four sets of foursomes Friday and Saturday — the first two days of the three-day, 32-match Ryder Cup tournament.

For the singles on Sunday, when Palmer expected to play in two of the 16 matches, Fallon may match him with husky Peter Alliss, 32-year-old son of former Ryder Cupper Percy Alliss.

Britain has beaten the United States in only three of 14 previous Ryder Cup matches and never in this country. One of the chief reasons has been the British inability to score well in the foursomes. Last time they were outscored 6-2 in the foursome and only by one match in 16 singles.

When they last won, in 1957, it was by dominating the singles matches.

PALMER LEADS WINNERS

DUNEDIN, Fla. (UPI) — Arnold Palmer, the first "hundred grand" pro golfer, has won $127,353 in official PGA earnings this year through last weekend's Whitmarsh Open. Palmer's $26,000 gain for his Whitmarsh victory put him a considerable distance in front of Jack Nicklaus' $85,990. Julius Boros is third with $77,236.67.
