Rejuggled team

US floors British 6-2 in Friday Ryder Cup go

ATLANTA (UPI) — The United States rejuggled its powerful Ryder Cup golf team today with the aim of delivering a knockout blow to a battered British team which was floored for a 6-2 count in Friday's opening matches.

1-up thanks to a long putt by Ragan on the 18th hole which saved the U. S. lead.

Sweeps P.M. Matches

But the afternoon matches were another story as the U. S. team finally began to flex its muscles and ran off four straight victories.

The biggest victory, and the one which attracted most of the crowd of nearly 10,000, was the one Palmer and Casper posted over Huggett and Will.

Apparently stung by the morning upset by the two youngest members of the British team, Palmer benched Pott and brought in Casper for a second run at the two men who beat him earlier in the day.

It was no contest. Palmer and Casper were 5-up after six holes and although they tapered off a bit midway through the match, won handily 5 and 4 without ever being less than 3-up after the fourth hole.

The other morning pairings: U. S. Open champ Julius Boros and Gene Littler vs. Peter Alliss and Bernard Hunt; Billy Casper and Billy Maxwell vs. Harry Weetman and George Will; and Bob Goolby and Dave Ragan vs. Neil Coles and Christy O'Connor.

John Fallon, Britain's non-playing captain, sounded a note of despair after his final twosome Friday blew a lead on the final two holes to allow the United States to make a clean sweep of the afternoon rounds.

Sums Up Chances

"We must redeem ourselves Saturday if we are to have any chance on Sunday," Fallon said.

Rawls takes to desert course to defend golf lead

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Betsy Rawls, who learned her golf on the windy plains of Texas, goes out to fight the high velocity breezes of the desert today in an attempt to maintain her lead in the third round of the $15,000 Ladies PGA golf tournament.

Miss Rawls, now playing out of Spartanburg, S. C., shot a two-over-par 73 Friday in the second round to take a one-stroke lead over the field with a 147 total for 36 holes.

"Those winds were tough," she conceded. "But we thought nothing of these little 25-mile-an-hour zephyrs down in Texas."

The winds bothered everybody else — and probably Betsy, too. But she had four birdies against six bogies on the round.

Louise Suggs, the first-round leader, and Kathy Cornelius were tied for second with 148s; and National Open champion Mary Mills came next with 149 followed by Carol Mann with 150.

Miss Rawls, 35, one of the feminine golfing trial's most titled ladies, has won the National Open four times; and she captured this coveted tournament in 1959. She has won 46 tournaments during her career.

Mickey Wright, the blonde bomber who has won 12 out of the last 23 tournaments played by the women, took an horrendous 82 to go with an opening round 72 for 154.

The final round is slated for Sunday, with the winds slated to slack off. The last day will be televised nationally (NBC).

No action against Clay

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) — Those who had hoped that cocky fighter Cassius M. Clay would get a verbal knuckle-rapping by the Kentucky State Boxing Commission Friday for ducking out of a fight were disappointed when no punitive action was taken.

Kentucky Boxing Commissioner Bob Evans said he was "greatly disappointed" over Clay's refusal to fight George Chuvalo Nov. 8 here, but said he was unable to take punitive action because no contract existed.

Clay announced last month that he would fight the winner of the Chuvalo-Mike De John fight here Sept. 27, which Chuvalo won by a majority decision.

Bend female golfers slate last tee tiff

Women of the Bend Golf Club will have their last scheduled play of the season next Wednesday, October 16. Brunch will be served at 9:30 a.m., when partners will be drawn for two-ball play.

That same evening, men and women of the club will have their annual dinner meeting, at 7:30. Plans for the new clubhouse and another nine holes will be discussed. All members are urged to attend. Reservations should be made by Tuesday noon, by calling 382-3057 or 382-5592. Officers will be elected.

The women played to "beat the champion," Lou Slips, on women's day Wednesday. No one tallied a lower score, but Eileen Skinner tied the champion's winning score. Balls for the day's play were also won by Eunice Coryell and Betty Prodehl, taking the most strokes off the second nine.

Detroit Mayor Cavanagh goes today to bid for '68 Olympics

DETROIT (UPI) — Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh and his official party leave for Baden-Baden, West Germany, today to make Detroit's bid for the 1968 Olympic Games.

A vanguard of 22 Detroit Olympic Committee members and technicians along with 3 1/2 tons of equipment already is in Baden-Baden for the 45-minute presentation to the International Olympic Committee (IOC) on Oct. 18.

Gov. George Romney will fly over next week to help make Detroit's presentation to the 64-member IOC. The Motor City is bidding against Mexico City, Buenos Aires and Lyons, France.

Detroit's presentation includes a film of President Kennedy supporting the Motor City and a congressional resolution pledging United States support of Detroit's bid.

To dramatize its bid, Detroit Friday completed a 2,571-mile relay in which an Olympic torch was carried from Los Angeles to Detroit by more than 400 long-distance runners.

The end of the run at the City-Country Building was witnessed by hundreds of cheering persons and scores of demonstrators who interrupted the ceremony with shouts and boos.

Hayes Jones, a 1960 Olympic bronze medal winner, handed the torch over to Cavanagh amid jeering from the demonstrators. They carried signs reading "Is

1 American will not vote for Detroit

LANSING (UPI) — Douglas F. Roby, one of the United States' three members of the International Olympic Committee (IOC), predicted today one American will not support Detroit's bid to host the 1968 Olympics.

But the 2-1 split in the American delegation won't hurt Detroit's chances, Roby said.

Roby, who lives in Ypsilanti and is the former chairman of the board of the American Metal Products Corp. in Detroit, has been trying to bring the Olympics to the Motor City since 1939.

As he left for Baden-Baden, West Germany, Friday to attend the 60th Plenary Congress of the IOC, Roby said, "Personally this is the first time I've gone to one of these meetings with the feeling Detroit will come home with it."

Roby said there is no question on how he will ballot on the vote to choose the 1968 Olympic site and he added he felt IOC President Avery Brundage would also support Detroit.

"But John Garland of California — I doubt he will vote for us," Roby said.

"He was quite hurt that Detroit prevailed over Los Angeles" in the competition before the American Olympic Committee for the right to bid for the games.

"But I don't think that will hurt us," Roby said. "On the contrary the propaganda by people out in California against us might help because it has been unrepresentative," Roby said.

Running against Detroit in earnest are Mexico City and Lyons, France, while Buenos Aires, Argentina, is making what is regarded as a token bid.

Hockey teams flop in openers

By United Press International
San Francisco and Seattle—Considered by the experts as the Western Hockey League's strongest clubs—were just a couple of also-rans today.

They both flopped in their debuts Friday night as Norm Johnson's goal gave the Los Angeles Blades a 3-2 win over the Seals and Vancouver blitzed Seattle 7-2.

A crowd of 10,227 piled into the Cow Palace for the Seals-Blades battle and they saw a beauty.

Former Seal goalie Jim McLeod, now in the Los Angeles nets, stopped one with his face in the early going and had to give way to rookie Jack Norris. Norris gave up second period goals to Charlie Burns and Mo Mantha, but then blanked the Seals the rest of the way.

San Francisco's new goalie, chunky Bob Perrault, gave up tallies in the first period to Marc Boleau, the second to Stan Maxwell, and the third to Johnson. Norm's goal came with only 29 seconds to go.

At Vancouver, 2840 saw Vancouver push three goals across in the second stanza.

Ageless Phil Maloney, still tough to stop at 38, hit two goals and added five assists. Five other men scored singles for the Canucks.

Vancouver netminder Marcel Paille had an amazingly easy night as he only made a dozen saves while letting a couple slide by.

In action tonight, it's Vancouver at Seattle and Los Angeles at Denver.

Lakers cleave Frisco, 109-93

PORTLAND (UPI)—The potent Los Angeles Lakers—with Elgin Baylor, Jerry West and Dick Barnett combining for 50 points—rolled over the San Francisco Basketball Association exhibition game Friday night.

Baylor scored 20 points and West and Barnett each tallied 19 as the Lakers posted their fourth win in six games of their barnstorming Pacific Coast preseason tour with the Warriors.

Los Angeles held 29-14, 58-32 and 82-64 quarter leads.

San Francisco was led in scoring by Wilt Chamberlain, with 25, and rookie Nate Thurmond, with 14. Rudy La Russo had 15 and Don Nelson added 13 for the winners.
