THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS

I Corinthians, 15: 12-14:
"Now is Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen: And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain."
The greatest promise given to man, who has been placed upon the Earth to live each his own life, is that of the resurrection. This promise made whole by the knowledge that after this life we may experience exaltation and an everlasting life.

We who are members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints hold sacred the promise of an everlasting life with the opportunity to be with our families and at the side of God, if we so live and fulfill the ordinances which God has commanded. The gospel we teach is that set forth by the Savior Himself and Christian virtues constitute the standards of living set forth for our members. Some tenets of "Mormon" faith are not unlike those of other Christian churches. We believe in the Trinity, the Lordship and Atonement of Jesus Christ, resurrection from the dead and immortality of the soul. But the interpretation we place on these and other commonly accepted doctrines and the contributions subsequently made in new theological conceptions and principles have given the "Mormons" a distinctive place in the religious world. There is no principle or truth we advocate which has not always been part of the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Our church may be said to give individuals a complete life. Social, recreational, cultural and spiritual activities are all a part of the church. In the recreational area, the largest softball and basketball tournaments in the world are sponsored by the "Mormons". Winners in Districts and States go to the all-church tournament in Salt Lake City each year. To care for the temporal needs of its people, the church has a welfare program. One of the finest parts of this welfare program is the method where by they who benefit work out their aid, or repay the church by helping others.

We believe that the "Glory of God is Intelligence" and advocate full schooling. Church wide, a seminary program is available to high school children. Here in Bend our young people attend two different sessions before school. The first session starts at 6:30 in the morning. The Church has established numerous colleges and universities.

Due to the necessity of adequate buildings in which we may worship, a constant building program is conducted. In Bend, our chapel was finished and dedicated in 1954. We now find that we must build again, and will have a quarter of a million dollar building under way in a short time. In our Church, no building is dedicated until it is completely debt free.

The great body of officers in the church serve without salary, contributing time and often means to their work. Only the general authorities, and others who devote all their time are compensated, and then very little. Generally we are without a paid ministry. Our young men and women are called by the general authorities to serve as missionaries, and use their own money, or that supplied by their families to support them on what is usually a two year term.

We believe that the strongest link in society is the family, and exhort our own people to have a home night once a week. We know that we as parents will be held responsible for the actions of our children. We have many auxiliaries who aid the family in teaching and moulding the character of the members. We hope to maintain our chapel as a credit to this community. We invite everyone to enjoy with us the fellowship of the "Mormon" church and the activities that we enjoy.
