

Ten Oregonians die in accidents over weekend

By United Press International
Ten Oregon residents died during the weekend as a result of accidents. Eight of the deaths were recorded in the state.

James Cellars, 69, of Astoria, executive secretary of the Columbia River Packers Association, was killed Saturday in a one-car accident on U.S. Highway 101 about six miles south of Astoria.

Harry Saville, 38, Coos Bay, was accidentally shot and killed while deer hunting east of Reedport Saturday. He was the state's fourth deer hunting season gunshot fatality.

An Air Force man drowned Saturday after a 14-foot boat overturned near Brookings where the Chetco River flows into the Pacific.

The victim was S. Sgt. James Morelock, 30, who was stationed at Kingsley Air Force Base near Klamath Falls.

Two companions, Jerry Nelson, Klamath Falls, and Roy Brimm, Brookings, made it to shore. Nelson was rescued by the Coast Guard after another fisherman threw him a life-jacket and Grimm made it to shore by using a gasoline can as a float. Another small boat trying to help also turned over and the occupants were rescued by the Coast Guard.

Jack Coates, 23, Albany, was killed in a one-car accident on a logging road about 35 miles southwest of Corvallis Saturday.

Mrs. Harold Griffin, 20, Bend died Saturday as a result of injuries suffered when her car collided with a cattle truck near Bend Thursday night.

Harry Strand, 47, Madras, died when he was struck by a large earth-moving vehicle at the Round Butte Dam construction site near Madras Saturday.

Two youths from The Dalles lost their lives when their motor scooter crashed head-on into a car near Honolulu Saturday. The victims were Nathan Francis, 22, and Dennis Angilante, 19, both students at the University of Hawaii.

Mrs. Pauline Burrows, 40, Shady Cove, was fatally injured in a two-car collision near Diamond Lake Friday night.

A 15-year-old Corvallis High School student, Patricia Wust-rack, was killed when she slipped off a flatbed truck and fell beneath its wheels at an Oregon State University Homecoming rally at Corvallis Friday night.

POTATO DIGGING — Central Oregon potato digging hit high gear last week and machines like this one near Culver were busy in fields throughout the Tri-County area. The machine is a potato combine which picks up spuds behind a digger. The crew cleans away other materials and the potatoes move into a truck.

Rocky due in West Tuesday

ALBANY, N.Y. (UPI)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller takes his political thermometer to the Far West Tuesday following a weekend appearance there by Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., his major rival in the unofficial race for the GOP presidential nomination.

Rockefeller criticized Goldwater while on a political pulse-taking tour of New Hampshire over the weekend for speaking out against the United Nations, the U.S. foreign aid program and the World Bank.

Rockefeller will stop off Tuesday at Salt Lake City for a conference with Utah Republican leaders and a speech at the University of Utah before resuming his flight to San Francisco Tuesday night. He is scheduled for a round of speeches and a news conference Wednesday in San Francisco and Thursday in Los Angeles.

He will leave Los Angeles for New York Friday afternoon. Sunday, Rockefeller talked for an hour and a half with 34 Vermont GOP leaders at Woodstock, Vt. A Rockefeller spokesman later said no effort was made to obtain commitments should the governor officially seek the Republican presidential nomination.

Throughout the trip, the governor maintained he would enter the New Hampshire first-in-the-nation presidential primary March 10 if he decides to seek the GOP nomination.

Baer, Shive attend session

Special to The Bulletin
REDMOND — In Portland this week for the annual convention of the Oregon Association of Hospitals are Fred Baer, Central Oregon District Hospital administrator, and Neil Shive, office manager.

The sessions began Sunday and will run through October 23 at the Hilton Hotel.

Baer is on the State Board of Trustees, representing hospitals in Lakeview, Burns, John Day, Bend, Redmond, Prineville, Hood River and The Dalles. He serves on the group hospitalization committee and on the rules and regulations committee.

Related groups meeting at the same time are Oregon Association of Hospital Auxiliaries, Oregon Chapter of American Association of Hospital Accountants and Oregon Affiliates of the American College of Hospital Administrators.

Sisters residents discuss school district proposal

SISTERS — A panel of citizens, Pete Leithauer, Albert Demaris and Jonas Hammack, led the discussion of the proposed merger or consolidation with the Bend School District, meeting here this past weekend. Hammack opened the proceeding with a review of the meeting concerning presentation of the petition and the various steps to be followed.

Charles Morris, chairman of the school board, said the directors have gone on record as approving the presentation of the petition to the boundary board for the Sisters School District to be joined to the Bend District.

If the petition is accepted and approved by the boundary board, a remonstrance signed by 5 per cent of the registered voters or 500 registered voters, whichever is less, will be necessary to bring the proposal to a vote in either of the districts affected.

The panel advised the people present that they would circulate the petition to obtain the necessary signatures for the remonstrance at the proper time.

Arguments for and against the merger were heard. The majority of those presenting arguments were against the merger. Several of those who spoke against the merger, preferred to have a smaller school with a local board. The possibility was pointed out that, under the merger, the high school could be transported to the Bend School. Under the merger plan, one person would represent the Sisters area on the Bend District board.

Harold Barclay, a member of the school board, stated that with the financial picture at the present time, he believed the school district would be unable to maintain a standard school here without the merger or additional revenue.

Albert Demaris subdivision of land for new homesites in the area lying south of the city limits. It was brought out by others present that other summer home development was possible in the near future within the district.

A suggestion was made by Pete Leithauer that a citizens' committee be formed to explore possible sources of financial aid.

David Potter, County School Superintendent, said additional help through federal or state aid is a possibility but would require a lot of hard work.

Approximately 50 persons were present.

Niskanen heads bus system

The National Trailways Bus system at its annual meeting this past weekend in Miami Beach, Fla., named a Bend man, William Niskanen, chairman of the board. He succeeds John Reardon, of Raleigh, N.C.

National Trailways, an association of 44 independent bus lines operating under the common trade name of "Trailways," is the nation's second largest intercity bus system with routes in 42 states. Niskanen is vice-president and general manager of Pacific Trailways Bus Lines, which has headquarters in Bend.

The Bend based system serving Oregon, Idaho and Utah points had its origin here in early years as Mt. Hood Stages, headed by Myrl H. Hoover, now president of the system.

Niskanen in his report to the national group said that information from all 44 member carriers indicated generally that all companies had experienced a profitable year in 1963 and were optimistic that 1964 would be even better.

JC SENATORS NAMED

THE DALLES (UPI) — The executive board of the Oregon Junior Chamber of Commerce named three new international Jaycee senators Saturday.

Receiving the lifetime memberships were Gerald Thomson of Junction City, Al Ringo of Woodburn and John Bigge of Beaverton.

M.; Willie B. Walker, 43, Detroit, Mich.

Man in hospital after accident

A Portland man, Miles C. Benik, 46, was hospitalized Sunday evening following a two-car accident on U.S. Highway 97 a short distance south of the Bend city limits.

Investigating officers said the accident occurred when Edward M. McCarthy, Bend, was turning east on Parrell Road from U.S. 97 when the Portland car approached from the south. The driver of the oncoming car applied his brakes and his vehicle skidded into the Bend car, striking it on the right side. Benik was taken to the St. Charles Memorial Hospital. His injuries were not considered critical. They included the loss of six teeth.

Hawaii accident takes lives of 2

HONOLULU (UPI)—A motor scooter ridden by two University of Hawaii students from The Dalles, Ore., crashed head-on into a car Saturday on Diamond Head road, killing both students.

They were identified as Nathan Emmett Francis, 22, and Dennis Craig Angilante, 19. Police said the motor scooter was registered to Francis, and that he was apparently the driver.

Police said the men were driving toward the Waikiki area. Police said the automobile, driven by 20-year old Jacob Kahele of Honolulu, was apparently passing another vehicle at the moment of the accident.

Kahele has not been cited, pending police investigation. Police reported that Kahele was driving about 30 miles an hour.

The student personnel office at the University of Hawaii said Francis was registered with the college of business and that Angilante was a student with the college of arts and sciences.

The accident took place about two miles from the university and about four miles from downtown Honolulu.

Army beefs up its nuclear in Europe, Pacific areas

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Defense Department announced today that the Army is increasing its nuclear punch in Europe and the Pacific by a broad-scale deployment of more modern weapons. This entails withdrawal of older types.

Weapons being withdrawn include the 280-millimeter cannon, said to be the first gun capable of firing an atomic shell. Also being pulled back are the liquid-fueled Corporal missile and the winged Lacrosse missile.

Solid-fueled Sergeant missile units, a new 175-millimeter self-propelled gun and an improved Honest John rocket are being substituted for the older weapons.

"In addition, the Army is deploying larger numbers of nuclear warheads for the eight-inch howitzer," the Pentagon said.

Picture judging due at meeting

Judging of pictures taken in connection with the Cascade Camera Club's fall contest in Prineville will feature a meeting of the club to be held Wednesday at 8 p.m., in the Bend City Hall. Three Photographic Association of America judges will be in charge, with judging to be conducted at the meeting.

A number of Prineville members of the club will attend. Cascade Camera Club members are being asked to bring slides for showing. The meeting will be open to all interested.

Rehearsal set by Bend band

Bend Municipal Band members will hold their first rehearsal of the season tonight, in preparation for various programs to be presented through the winter.

The rehearsal will be at 7:30 p.m. on the Senior High School auditorium stage.

Norman Whitney, director, has announced that all adults and high school graduates interested in playing with the band will be welcome to attend tonight's organization meeting and rehearsal.

Young marriages to be discussed

A panel discussion of the pros and cons of young marriages will be held Tuesday evening, October 22, at 7:45 in the Allen School auditorium. This will highlight the monthly meeting of the Allen - Marshall - Yale Lane PTA. Everyone interested is invited to attend.

Orval D. Boyle, principal of Bear Creek School, will be the moderator. Panelists will be Roy Sailer, of the Central Oregon College faculty; The Rev. John Bright, of Trinity Episcopal Church, and two Bend High School seniors, Yvonne Stevens and Clyde Smith.

Preceding the program, the room count will be taken and refreshments will be served. Present Camp Fire Girls will be present to provide child care.
