COAST COLLEGE FOOTBALL ROUNDUP

By United Press International

Color Stanford "dead" in the Big Six race but the Indians were very much alive on a national scale today with a rousing, 24-14 upset of Notre Dame. Two touchdowns underdogs at the kickoff last Saturday, the Tribe galvanized a home crowd of 55,000 and countless television viewers by twice coming from behind to flatten the Irish behind great blocking and half-back Steve Thurlow's clutch scores. The reconverted quarterback tallied twice and passed for another touchdown that sewed up the game. Yet the Indians are stuck in the Big Six basement with an 0-2 mark and will be spinning their wheels at Oregon State next Saturday when they face the Beavers in a non-conference tilt. Key Game At Seattle The race for the Rose Bowl may be settled in Seattle on the same day when Southern California and Washington, who are rated one-two for the title, come to grips. Another Big Sixer between potential also-rans is at Los Angeles where California and UCLA tangle. In other leading games featuring West Coast eleven, Washington State is at Idaho, San Jose State at Oregon, San Diego State at Fresno State and the San Diego Marines at the University of the Pacific. Notre Dame took a one touchdown lead over Stanford and clung to a 14-10 margin at the half. But Thurlow scored his second touchdown of the day from five yards out to put the Indians ahead permanently in the third period and passed seven yards to Ray Handley for a clincher. Great defensive play by tackle Al Hildebrand kept the Irish offense in trouble. Easy Win For USC Form prevailed at Berkeley, where Southern California knocked off California, 36-6, without much strain. Willie Brown set up the first two Trojan touchdowns with punt returns of 43 and 36 yards and USC held a 28-0 advantage at the half.

JERRY THACKER LEADS TYEES

TACOMA (UPI) — Jerry Thacker passed for three touchdowns and scored another to give the Tacoma Tyees a 28-21 victory over the Portland Thunderbirds in a North-Pacific Conference semi-professional football game Sunday. Tacoma, which wrapped up the conference title last week-end, improved its league record to 6-0. Portland now has a 3-3 mark.

FUMBLE?—Though there appears to be a loose pigskin in the Sisters backfield, the Outlaws (light jerseys) managed to pick up nearly 10 yards on this power sweep. Quarterback Wayne Rowe, 12, has already pitched back to halfback Steve Shehan, 20. Sisters downed Culver 34-20 before a Homecoming throng.

Rams hit unaccustomed altitude, whip 49'ers

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Los Angeles Rams, headed on a three-game road-trip, have to get used to the giddy altitude of fifth place in the National Football League's Western Conference today.

The Rams got out of the basement Sunday by coming from behind to beat the San Francisco Forty Niners, 28-21, before a crowd of 45,532 at Memorial Coliseum.

Cellar Indians cleave mighty Irish, 24-14

This was the first time since 1961 that the Rams put two victories together. They got their first win of the 1963 season Oct. 20 against Minnesota. They're tied for fifth place with the Vikings with a record of 2-5.

The Forty Niners, now 1-6 on the season, took a physical beating from the Rams according to coach Jack Christiansen.

"You can safely say we got the hell kicked out of us—in the line and everywhere else," said Christiansen.

Tackles Walter Rock and Charley Krueger came out of the game with twisted left knees; linebacker Ed Pine sustained a broken nose; defensive end Clark Miller got it in the nose also with a possible fracture; and halfback Don Lisbon was shaken up and "kind of goofy" after the game, according to Christiansen.

Rams' Casualties The Rams also suffered several casualties—halfback Jon Arnett, a twisted right knee; line-backer Jack Pardee, bruised left ankle; halfback Dick Bass, painfully bruised left heel; end Lamar Lundy, injured left shoulder; and defensive back Ed Meadow, a stiff right knee.

Christiansen said the Forty Niners apparently relaxed after their 20-14 win over the Bears and added:

"The Rams of today were better than the Bears of last week."

Ram coach Harland Svare was happy at his selection of Gabriel as his No. 1 quarterback after weeks of indecision.

"Gabe threw beautifully," said Svare. "He keeps improving every week."
