State opposes sewer lagoon refuge proposal

Special to The Bulletin
PRINEVILLE — A considerable amount of detailed business was handled by the city council Wednesday noon at their weekly luncheon meeting, including the matter of creating a wild fowl refuge at the city sewer lagoon system west of Prineville.

Some time ago, the council had written to the State Game Commission asking that these large ponds be considered for a wild fowl refuge. A letter received in recent days from the commission was read. It stated, in essence, that the game commission felt that it would be better if birds were not invited to linger at the sewer lagoons.

In other business, councilmen heard a request from Al Hohnstein, owner of the City Sanitary Service, for permission to increase his service to homes of the Prineville area by 25 cents a month. His rate is currently $1.25 per month for emptying one garbage can a week, and 75c for a second can.

Hohnstein asked to change the rate to $1.50 a month for one can and 50 cents for the second can.

The council also heard an offer by Consolidated Pine and Hudspeh Industries for a cash settlement of $5,000, in lieu of filling a tule swamp about three acres in size adjacent to Consolidated Pine. The city accepted the offer.

In 1954, the then Central Oregon Pine agreed to fill the swamp in exchange for title to land on which the company had constructed a building without realizing that the land belonged to the city. Some years later, the companies agreed to fulfill Central Oregon Pine's obligation as soon as possible.

Four astronaut shots dropped

WASHINGTON (UPI) — In a move to save money and speed other projects in the U.S. moon landing program, the federal space agency is eliminating four scheduled astronaut flights.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) said Wednesday that the "re-phasing" of the manned flight missions should advance the date for launching of the spacecraft designed to carry a man to the moon.

The agency said that the cancellation of the four flights would save about $50 million and help NASA stay within the space budget recently authorized by Congress.

The change would mean an estimated nine months delay in the first manned orbit of earth by the Apollo lunar vehicle but would result in a greater efficiency that would keep the program on schedule, a NASA spokesman said.

$70 million saving seen

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Defense Department expects during the year ending next July 1 to chop $70 million from the annual foreign exchange, or cost in gold, of maintaining U.S. forces overseas.

The saving will be a small step toward the administration's goal of reducing this deficit to an even $1 billion a year by mid-1966. This would be a cut of nearly $700 million from the 1963 fiscal year.

A Pentagon summary showed today that the net balance of payments deficit due to defense spending abroad during the 1963 fiscal year ended last July 1 was nearly $1.7 billion. This is based on figures still considered preliminary.

The 1963 deficit was chalked up despite sharply increased purchases of U.S. military supplies by foreign governments, chiefly West Germany, which brought in more than $1 billion to help offset U.S. defense spending abroad.

Total hard - money military outlays overseas were given as nearly $2.77 billion for fiscal 1963, compared to $2.85 billion in 1962 and $2.98 billion in 1961. The forecast for fiscal 1964 is $2.69 billion.

'Treat' may have involved some 'trick'
SAN JOSE, Calif. (UPI) — San Jose police today checked the possibility that a "treat" received by a housewife earlier this week may have some "trick" involved.

The woman received a letter Monday addressed "Occupant," but carrying her address. It contained four colored snapshots — wrapped in five $20 bills — of her 10-year-old daughter.

The pictures showed the little girl playing on the sidewalk in front of her home with a neighbor's child. Neither youngster knew when the pictures were taken or by whom.

The woman also said she has received a series of mysterious phone calls and in each case the party calling held the line open but did not speak.
