

SCENES OF GRID WAR—If ever there was a hard-fought prep football battle it was last Saturday when Bend staved off Prineville 8-6 in a cliffhanger. Jerry Rich, 23, (left pic) finds the going rough when two unidentified Poke defenders knocked him to the turf after a short gain. No. 46 in background is Prineville's Phil Powell. Above, Prineville tried the Jim Elliott, 29, to Gary Jackson, 16, halfback pass. It was incomplete. From left Bend players are, 55 Clyde Smith, 54 Steve Rozewski and 45 Jim Tye. No. 66 blocking Rozewski is George Brick. (Ed Park photos).

Packers' Bart Starr getting back in form

GREEN BAY, Wis. (UPI)—"Let me tell you. It felt real great just holding the ball."

Quarterback Bart Starr of the Green Bay Packers was talking about his return to "action" after suffering a broken bone in his throwing hand two weeks ago against the St. Louis Cardinals.

"My hand feels much better. I can flex it again," Starr said. "But I still have no idea when I'll be able to really play again."

Starr held the ball for Jerry Kramer as the place-kicking guard booted four field goals in four tries and three extra points to aid Green Bay to a 33-14 victory over Pittsburgh, their seventh win in a row this year and their second since Starr, the league's top passer last year, was sidelined.

Praises Roach

Replacing Starr at quarterback has been John Roach, who has drawn praise from both Starr and Coach Vince Lombardi.

"John is doing a fine job—just great," said Starr. "Roach played real well. He called a heady game," said Lombardi after the latest win Sunday.

Lombardi has indicated Starr may be ready to return as a passer when the Packers take on the Chicago Bears at Wrigley Field Nov. 17 in a National Football League Western Division showdown. Both teams are 7-1 this season, with Green Bay's only loss a 10-3 decision to the Bears on opening day.

Starr has started to pass in practice, but most of his time has been spent on exercises along the sidelines and tutoring Roach and Zeke Bratkowski, obtained last week on waivers from the Los Angeles Rams. Bratkowski saw no action last Sunday.

Break Appears Healed

Starr's hand has been in a splint since the injury, and the break seems to have just about healed.

"It's just in getting the flexibility back," Lombardi said. "The break heals fast."

Starr's return, limited as it was, gave the entire Green Bay squad—and especially Kramer—a lift.

"Having Bart back there really helps," Kramer said. "You can really appreciate having a guy like him holding for you."

Kramer's kicking day Sunday was the best of a two-year career. His field goals covered 23, 36, 12 and 37 yards and with the three extra points raised his scoring total for the year to 71, just one point less than Jimmy Brown of Cleveland, the NFL's leading scorer.

Idaho Vandals to be 'reckless'

MOSCOW, Idaho (UPI)—Coach Dee Andrus of the University of Idaho Vandals says his team will be "more reckless" in its encounter with the University of Arizona this weekend.

Andrus, who ran his team through dummy drills Monday, said Idaho's 14-10 loss to Washington State last weekend was a result of being "overly cautious in the first half."

San Jose will upset ASU next

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UPI)—The San Jose State Spartans held a rugged practice session today in preparation for what they think will be their fourth "upset" of the season—this time against Arizona State University.

William Hallock wins football contest 1st prize

William L. Hallock, Box 783, Redmond, picked 19 out of 24 winners in The Bulletin Football Contest for the week of October 29, and emerged first prize winner, it was announced today.

Hallock, missing only five, wins the weekly $15 first prize. T. A. Hutton, Route 1, Bend, missed only six and his prognosticating effort was good enough to gain him the $7.50 second prize.

Mrs. F. R. Bailey, 754 Broadway, Bend, missed only six, too, but lost out to Hutton on the tie-breaker. Though she missed it (62) by only one point with a guess of 63, Hutton hit the nail right on the head.

Mrs. Bailey gained the $2.50 third prize.

Others in the running but going prizeless are: William Mayer, Bend; Pat Kelly, Sisters; Andy Coray, Sisters; Mrs. M. L. Morris, Bend; and Robb Rush, Prineville.

Wake Forest to analyze slumping football program

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (UPI)—A study of the Wake Forest College athletic program, "with special emphasis on football" is underway at the Baptist-supported institution which currently has the nation's longest string of consecutive football losses.

Wake Forest President Harold Tribble said Monday the study was started in response to "questions from various parts of the state." He said the study would be made of the entire athletic program.

The Demon Deacons under Coach Billy Hildebrand have lost 17 consecutive games—the nation's longest continuing string of defeats—and have not scored since the first game of the season when they got 10 points against East Carolina.

Hildebrand, whose contract with Wake Forest has two more years to run, has won only 6 while losing 31 games since he took over the job here four years ago.

There has been speculation that Hildebrand would be replaced but the coach answered all rumors by saying he was sure Wake Forest would honor his contract.

Tribble said the study was being conducted by presidents of organizations having to do with athletics at the school.

Cal Bears back in full swing

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI)—The University of California Bears returned to full-scale practice today, confident that they can knock the Washington Huskies off the top rung in the Big Six standings when the two teams meet Saturday.

MAY LOSE SERVICES

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Giants, fighting to overtake first-place Cleveland in the Eastern Division of the National Football League, may be without the services of tackle Roosevelt Brown, flanker Frank Gifford and safetyman Allen Webb for next Sunday's game against the Philadelphia Eagles.

Brown and Webb suffered severe bruises of the right knee in St. Louis last Sunday and Gifford bruised his left shoulder.

WSU Cougs get workout

PULLMAN, Wash. (UPI)—The Washington State Cougars, fresh from a victory over highly-rated Idaho, put in 90 minutes of drill and contact work Monday in preparation for Saturday's game against the University of Oregon.

Coach Jim Sutherland said his troops should work out their sore muscles and stiff arms in time to be at full strength for the homecoming encounter with the Ducks.

Ducks anticipate tough game

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI)—Coach Len Casanova expects a tough battle when he takes his University of Oregon Ducks to Pullman Saturday to face the Washington State Cougars, because both teams have something in common.

Both teams lost close decisions to San Jose State, but Casanova warned his troops that time is on the side of the Cougars. They lost to the Spartans early this season and bounced back to beat highly-rated Idaho last week, while the Ducks were losing to San Jose.

Remove another barrier

Corcoran suggests U.S. send golfers to Russia

By Jack Cuddy

UPI Staff Writer

NEW YORK (UPI)—To remove the last sports barrier between the United States and Russia, Fred Corcoran suggested today that our State Department send golf ambassadors Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus to the USSR.

Corcoran, tournament director of the International Golf Association, said he was inspired toward the Russian suggestion by the tremendous success of the International Golf Championship near Paris, Oct. 24-27.

Another inspiring fact, he emphasized, was a recent poll taken in Russia by a United States' magazine. The poll disclosed that there's no golf in the USSR because of the mistaken belief there that it's a game for only the wealthy.

"In my opinion," said stocky, dark-haired Corcoran, "the State Department would be wise to send Nicklaus and Palmer, two of our greatest athletes, to Russia and let them give exhibitions of hitting balls, at least."

While there, Jack and Arnold could acquaint the sports-minded Russians with the fact that more than 2,000,000 golfers play on public courses, alone, in the United States today, Corcoran stressed.

Mickey Mantle charged with 'foul dealings'

DALLAS (UPI)—Mickey Mantle, New York Yankees slugger, was charged today with foul dealings with his endorsements and other off-season, money-making activities.

A $200,000 damage suit was filed Monday in behalf of the bankrupt Mickey Mantle Enterprises, Inc., a corporation that originally was to handle all of Mantle's business—except hitting home runs.

The suit charges that the slugger sold his interest in the corporation, then started selling his endorsements of products, personal appearances and other non-baseball activities on his own.

Philip I. Palmer Jr., the trustee, said Mantle signed exclusive rights for use of his name in June, 1956. He sold his 90 per cent interest in the corporation in July, 1960, to Aurora Trading Co. for $90,000. The corporation later went into bankruptcy.

The suit asked that Mantle be ordered to account for all income from outside activities since he sold his interest. Mantle was not available for comment.

Beavers gird for Indiana tiff

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI)—The Oregon State Beavers return to full-scale practice today, with concentration on defense in preparation for Saturday's battle with Indiana at Bloomington.

Coach Tommy Prothro said defensive halfback Dan Seig was a doubtful starter against the Hoosiers, but halfback Cliff Watkins, end Scott Miller and guard Ron Dowman should be ready for action. All four were injured in last week's 10-7 victory over Stanford.

INTRODUCING THE DEPENDABLES FOR '64

We have designs to get you in our power

Our engineers are a wily group of guys who spend most of their time dreaming up ways to win your approval. Take the Dodge Polara 500. You'd be hard-pressed to find a car that's got more going for you. Deeply-padded, contour-formed bucket seats. All-vinyl upholstery. Sil-to-sil carpeting. Padded dash. Center console. And lots of other trimmings. But that's only the half of it.

Perhaps our approach to power will further illustrate the point.

With the Polara 500 you aren't baked in on a certain engine. You can choose from a standard 318 cu. in. V8 up to a street-version of our wallowing, all-out 426 cu. in. Ramcharger V8. Compromise? Nope. We just feel that a freedom of choice is the surest road to your approval. That's our way of doing business—giving you lots of car and lots of satisfaction at a price that's hard to quarrel with.

Your Dodge Dealer will be glad to demonstrate the point.
