

Skiing commences this weekend

Winter is here. Skiing is commencing on the slopes of Bachelor Butte... A PNISA-sanctioned ski instructors' clinic will be held this Sunday at the Bachelor ski area.

Mighty Mite racers will practice at Bachelor on Saturday from 10 a.m. until 12 noon, and on Sunday from noon until 1:30 p.m.

Rosburg, Beard lead in $50,000 Sinatra golf go

FALM SPRINGS, Calif. (UPI)—Bob Rosburg, 37-year old veteran of the golfing wars, and Frank Beard, a yearling pro, ran one-two today in the second round of the $50,000 72-hole Frank Sinatra Open.

Beard, 24, in his 12th month on the pro tour, shot a 68. The difference between the two lay in the birdies. Rosburg had four birdies and no bogeys and Beard had three birdies and no bogeys.

After the second round the field will be cut to the low 75 with ties and some well-known pros were in danger of losing out.

Fifty-one year old Sam Snead was on the shaky side with a first round 36-37-73. Bob Goalby had 35-38-73.

At 74 were Jay Hebert, 33-41; Mike Souchak, 34-40; and former National Open champion Dick Mayer, 37-37.

Loonel Hebert had 36-39-75, and Tony Lema carded 36-38-76.

Doug Sanders withdrew after nine holes because of blisters on his hands. He had a 43-seven-over-par.

Haystack Calhoun heads Bend grunt and groan card

Haystack Calhoun, a 601 pounder who claims to be the world's biggest wrestler, will appear in a giant seven man battle royal at the Bend Armory next Tuesday night.

Haystack is from Morgans Corner, Ark., is 6-4 and tips the scales consistently around 600 pounds, but his weight "varies a little" from day to day because of his enormous appetite.

Zealander, Abe Jacobs, The bearded Gorky will have the weight bulge on his speedier opponent, and is expected to use his famed "wolf leap."

In the other, Luther Lindsey, considered by many to be the greatest colored wrestler in the world, will pit his 230 pounds and great strength against the 260-pound and equally strong Gil Ane.
