

Bears maul Packers in 26-7 romp

By United Press International

They called George Halas "old-fashioned"; there were many who said the parade had passed him by and that he hadn't kept pace with the swiftly advancing times in pro football; they said he couldn't win again.

Yet here is 68-year-old "Papa Bear" on the verge of becoming the most successful coach in any era of pro football.

He coached winners during the National Football League's "Gaslight Era" of Ernie Nevers and Jim Thorpe; he had winners during the transitional T-formation days of Sid Luckman and Sammy Baugh; and now he's headed for a winner in the modern highly specialized era of Jimmy Brown, Y.A. Tittle and Johnny Unitas.

Papa's Bears, using his "old-fashioned" techniques of ball-control and defense, destroyed the proud Green Bay Packers, 26-7, Sunday and virtually assured the NFL of a new champion. Four weeks still remain in the season but the Bears are in command with a 9-1 record and a one-game lead over the Packers in the Western Division.

Giants On Top

The New York Giants also assumed the undisputed lead in the Eastern Division of the league when they clobbered the San Francisco Forty Niners, 48-14, while the St. Louis Cardinals upset the Cleveland Browns, 20-14. The Giants, with an 8-2 record, now hold a one-game lead over deadlocked Cleveland and St. Louis.

In Sunday's other games, the Pittsburgh Steelers remained in the running with a 34-28 win over the Washington Redskins; the Los Angeles Rams upset the Detroit Lions, 28-21; the Baltimore Colts edged the Minnesota Vikings, 37-34, and the Dallas Cowboys beat the Philadelphia Eagles, 27-20.

The Bears won the NFL's biggest battle of 1963 by beating the Packers at their own game — a crushing ground attack and an unyielding defense. Those were the weapons the Packers had used to win three straight Western titles and the last two NFL playoff games.

More Convincing Win

Sunday the Bears were supreme right from the opening minutes and by a more convincing margin than their 10-3 win over the Packers on the opening Sunday of the season. A sellout crowd of 49,166 watched the game at Chicago.

Quarterback Billy Wade completed only 6 of 14 passes, but the Chicago ground forces of Willie Galimore, Joe Marconi and Rick Casares ground out 248 rushing yards. Galimore's 79 yards were eight more than the entire Green Bay haul of 71.

Roger LeClerc kicked four field goals of 29, 46, 19 and 35 yards; Galimore ran 27 yards for one touchdown and Wade carried five yards for another; and the Chicago defense intercepted five passes and recovered two Green Bay fumbles.

Light heavies continue to rule fight card this week

NEW YORK (UPI)—The lively light heavyweight division continues to command fistic attention this week, with contenders Mauro Mina of Peru and Allen Thomas of Chicago slated for a nationally televised 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

It was in a similar Garden TV fight last Friday that light-heavy contenders Gregorio Peralta of Argentina and Wayne Thornton of Fresno, Calif., staged a terrific battle from which Peralta emerged with an unpopular split decision.

However, the Peralta decision was upheld 11-3-1 by an official ringside poll of boxing writers. And the fight was so thrilling that matchmaker Teddy Brenner is trying to make a return bout for Dec. 13.

For next Friday's Garden bout 26-year-old Mina — the World Boxing Association's third-ranking contender — seeks his 30th straight victory over ninth-rated Thomas, who lost but two of his 22 fights. Mina is favored at 2-1.

A near-riot occurred at Manila Saturday night when Gabriel (Flash) Elorde of the Philippines kept his world junior lightweight boxing title on an 11th round disqualification over Love Allotey of Ghana.

Bellingham wins volley ball go

VANCOUVER, B.C. (UPI) — Bellingham YMCA won the senior section of the University of British Columbia Invitational Volley Ball Tournament here Sunday.

In the final matches, Bellingham defeated Vancouver, B.C., YMCA 14-16, 15-9 and 15-8.

GUY IS REACTIVATED

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Giants activated halfback Louis Guy of Mississippi from their taxi squad Sunday and put Johnny Counts on the waiver list. Counts, a second-year man from Illinois, had been on the Giant kickoff return team.

Ruby Thorn of Portland still heads women bowlers with 599

For the third consecutive week, Ruby Thorn of Portland has emerged atop the list of competitors in the Oregon State Woman's Bowling Association state tournament with a score of 599.

She bowled her 599 the first weekend of tourney action, and the mark has held through two consecutive weekends of bowling sieges.

States Battery, a team from Portland, still leads the class A pack in team competition. States Battery bowled its loop-leading tally of 2700 two weekends ago. Last weekend's action failed to change the picture.

However, there was one new leader after the bowling tournament closed out its third weekend of seven Sunday evening. It came in the doubles competition.

New Mark

June Homer and Jo Gillette of Portland bowled a 1124 (each had a 562 series) to edge by a two-way deadlock which resulted from action the previous weekend. The Portland pair thus emerged 11 pins better than Della Knapp and Loraine Layton of Coos Bay, and Naomi Mohning and Betty Schroeder of Portland, who were leading the pack with 1113.

This weekend, however, produced some unusual bowling. Grace Thompson of Grants Pass scored a stair step: 166, 167 and 168. Betty Beindiek of Prineville scored a triplicate of 115, 115 and 115. Jean King of Newport scored a 187 all spare game.

Dana Deidrickx of Hood River has bowled the highest game to date with a 245 tally.

Other rankings are as follows: Singles: Class A, second Dana Deidrickx, Hood River, 598 and Corrine Talley, Portland, 594. Class B, first, Audrey Dagostini, Coos Bay, 595; June Paxton, Lakeview, 580, and Dottie Rainsien, Portland, 574.

Class C

Class C, Iris Novak, Corvallis, 568; Betty Hartman, Sandy, 567, and Neil Landers, Silverton, 560. Class D, Phyllis Tharp, Creswell, 559; Lenette Frost, Oakridge, 545, and Mary Cogswell, Bend, 543. Class E, Joyce Goodwin, Sweet Home, 527; Dorothy Farrington, Madras, 501, and Jeanne Brown, Warrenton, 483.

Team: Class A, second, Conrad Lumber Co., Coos Bay, 2680, and Team No. 5 Journal Traveling League, Portland, 2654. Class B, One Hour Martinizing, Beaverton, 2437, and East Albany Merchants, Albany, 2433. Class C, Pioneer Real Estate, Sandy, 2316, and Consoli-

RALSTON WINS TOURNEY

SYDNEY, Australia (UPI) — United States Davis Cupper Dennis Ralston recovered from a first set loss Sunday to defeat Mike Sangster of Britain, 6-8, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4, for the men's singles title in the New South Wales tennis championships.

Ralston, of Bakersfield, Calif., is the first American to win this tourney since Vic Seixas' 1951 triumph.
