Texas gaining grid title in runaway

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stamping Texas improved its No. 1 ranking today in the runaway race for the 1963 national college football title. Thirty-two coaches—one more than last week—rated the Longhorns first in the United Press International ratings on the strength of their perfect record, the only one among the major powers. Pittsburgh and Michigan State negotiated the only change in the top 10 from last week, the Panthers taking over fourth-place from the Spartans, who replaced them in fifth. Navy, enjoying the highest ranking ever held by a service team in the history of the ratings, fattened its hold on second place, drawing two No. 1 ballots. Mississippi slipped but clung to a three-point lead over Pittsburgh in third. The Rebels received the other first-place ranking from the 35-man board. Increase Point Totals Oklahoma, Alabama and Illinois each increased its point total in sixth, seventh and eighth, respectively. Ninth-ranked Nebraska and Auburn, No. 10 had the same totals as last week. While the top 10 went undefeated last weekend for the first time this season, the second 10 was jolted severely with losers Washington (No. 11), Baylor (No. 14), Missouri (No. 15) and Ohio State (No. 17) dropping out of the ratings completely.

Syracuse, Penn State and Mississippi State moved up to take their places as the 11-12-13 teams. Southern California and Arizona State (winner of seven straight) tied for 14th and Wisconsin re-entered the ratings in 16th. Memphis State, in the listings for the third consecutive week, finished in a 17th-place deadlock with Kansas. Utah Enters List Eight-game winner Utah State entered the top 20 for the first time in 19th, and Georgia Tech and Army tumbled into a tie for 20th with the Air Force. The Cadets and Engineers were 12-13 last week, but were drubbed thoroughly last Saturday.

Texas rests this Saturday before completing its regular season Thanksgiving Day against Texas A&M. The three biggest games between ranking teams take place this weekend, with bowl bids at stake in each one. Illinois collides with Michigan State at Lansing, Mich., with the Big Ten title and a trip to the Rose Bowl riding the outcome; Nebraska, at home, tangles with Oklahoma, the winner to collect the Big Eight championship and an Orange Bowl invitation; and Penn State and Pitt meet in their annual rivalry at Pittsburgh with an Orange Bowl bid probably in the offing.

Kansas City A's to look this winter for 'power'

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — The Kansas City Athletics plan to wheel and deal in the winter trading market this year in search of one item—power. They are willing to sacrifice. They will give up front-line pitching, stable defense, percentage hitters and even youth to obtain that one hitting element for their lineup. The Athletics' management believes there is no other solution to the club's perennial problem, a second division berth in the American League. "We are fed up with our pitty-pat offense," said General Manager Pat Friday. "We must have power in our lineup, and we are going to get it." "That means there are no untouchables on our roster. We will consider trading anyone we have in order to get what we want."

Vancouver ice man out in front

By United Press International Vancouver's Phil Maloney is back in front of Seattle's Guyle Fielder in their see-saw battle for the Western Hockey League scoring title. The two great veterans have been fighting it out all season long and are dominating the rest of the league. Latest statistics including games through Sunday show Maloney with 10 goals and 21 assists for 31 points while Fielder has eight goals and a league leading 22 assists for 30 points. Nobody else has compiled over 19 points. Vancouver also has the league's leading goal scorer in Buddy Boone, who has blinked the red light 13 times. Seattle leads in two other departments with Totems goalie Claude Dufour boasting a 2.81 average, best among net-minders, and Larry Zeidel the most penalized player in the league. With the season about one-fourth over, only seven points separate the league's seven teams. San Francisco leads with 20 points, but has played 18 games. Seattle has 19 points for only 16 games and is at Denver tonight in the night's only contest. All teams took a break Monday.

Pay Heavy Price

"We are paying a heavy price to acquire the power hitting we need," said Friday. "But this isn't the end of it. "We have three other probable trades in the works. We are in the market for anyone with power." Colavito was unpopular in Detroit, despite the fact that he hit 35, 45 and 37 home runs there from 1960 through 1962 before dropping to 22 last season. Colavito has hit 222 home runs during the past six seasons. That is more than any other American League player has hit during the same period. In 1959, Colavito hit four consecutive home runs in one game to tie an American League record.

Forest Service studies parking at Mt. Baker

OLYMPIA (UPI)—The U.S. Forest Service has agreed to make a study of parking needs at the Mt. Baker ski area. Vance Blackwell, assistant regional engineer for the service, told the State Highway Commission Monday he would see what could be done to provide additional parking space. Ernest Cowell, chairman of the commission, described the need for additional space as "critical." He said he was aware there was a parking problem in the area but until a few weeks ago he did not know "just how critical it was." The Mt. Baker ski area in Whatcom County has become quite popular in recent years. Cowell said. He noted that about 75 per cent of the skiers come from Canada.

USC linebacker Big 6's best

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Damon Bame, Southern California's hard-hitting linebacker, is the Big Six lineman of the week. Bame was honored for his fine play in Troy's 28-22 win over Oregon State. He sparked a defense which stopped the Beavers' ground game and forced them to pass most of the time.

A-2, B semis get game billing...

PORTLAND (UPI)—Dates and times for class A-2 and B high school football semifinals were announced Monday by the Oregon School Activities Association. In class A-2 Phoenix will play at Vale and North Catholic will meet Siuslaw at Florence. Both games are Saturday at 1:30 p.m. In class B Jefferson will be at Yoncalla at 2 p.m. Saturday and Merrill will play Wasco at Maupin at 1:30 p.m. Saturday. The A-1 games were announced earlier for Friday night with Grant at Roseburg and Beaverton at North Salem meeting in McCulloch Stadium at Salem. Camas Valley will be at DuFour Saturday at 1 p.m. in a class B 8-man semifinal. The winner meets Eagle Valley next week for the crown.

BRUINS REACH LIMIT
BOSTON (UPI) — The Boston Bruins reached the National Hockey League player limit Monday by sending rookie defenseman Don Awrey to Minneapolis of the Central League. Awrey, 20, appeared in 15 games with the Bruins but accumulated little playing time.

Huskies may fall Big Game finales highlight grid sked

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI) — Oregon guard Mark Richards may miss the Oregon State game after sustaining an ankle sprain in last Saturday's 28-22 thriller against Indiana.

Cosch Len Casanova put the Ducks through a light workout Monday and then viewed films of the game against Indiana, which was decided by a 29-yard touchdown pass with 11 seconds to go.

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI) — Oregon State's football team concentrated on pass defense Monday as they readied for the traditional contest against Oregon Saturday.

Guard Al Funston will miss the game with a knee injury received in last Friday's 28-22 loss to Southern California.

PULLMAN, Wash. (UPI) — Coach Jim Sutherland said today he was completely satisfied with his Washington State's 32-15 win over Stanford last Saturday.

He said his team received no major injuries in the Indian contest and will be "fighting-ready" for Washington in Saturday's big battle.

Sutherland said he will stress defense in workouts this week.

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI) — Coach Jim Owens, trying to get his Huskies up for Saturday's game against Washington State, has promoted linebackers Dick Wetterer and Steve Bramwell and fullback Charlie Browning to the first string.

Other personnel changes included Fred Foreburg and John O'Brian, who moved into starting positions at center and guard.

Washington, upset 14-0 by UCLA Saturday, still will be the favorite to receive the Rose Bowl bid if it can defeat the Cougars.

Huskies still lead Big 6 in three stats

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Despite its upset beating at the hands of UCLA last week, the Washington Huskies still lead the Big Six in three statistical departments.

The Huskies have the best total offense, averaging 322 yards per game, compared with runner-up USC with 309; in rushing offense, with 216 yards per game against USC's 166; and in rushing defense, allowing 135 yards against Washington State's 141.

Southern California has the best total defense, allowing 234 yards per game compared with second-place Washington State's 270; and has the best passing defense, allowing only 79 yards per game, against 126 for next-place UCLA.

California, fired by Craig Morton, leads in passing with 155 yards per game.

COACHES SWITCH JOBS
CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — Bill Sudeck and "Nip" Heim switched positions at Case Tech Monday with Sudeck taking over the reins of the varsity basketball team and Heim assuming the role of freshman coach. Sudeck also coaches the cross country and track teams.

UCLAs come down off cloud and turn attention to Trojans

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Coach Bill Barnes climbed off cloud nine today and turned his attention from UCLA's win over Washington to the job of getting his Bruins ready for Saturday's traditional game with University of Southern California.

In the first flush over upsetting Washington, Barnes had said that "USC is next" but he admitted Monday that the Trojans' explosiveness made them an extremely difficult team to defend.

Barnes was given a standing ovation at the Southern California Football Writers meeting for the win over Washington and even the coaches joined in praising him for working out a defense to stop the Huskies.

Short Passes Did It
The UCLA coach said it was a case of taking advantage of Washington's deep secondary and zone defense by throwing in front of their deep men. And he said the Bruins stopped fullback Junior Coffey by giving their linebackers the job of doing nothing else except watch him.

"But in Southern California we will be facing the most explosive team in the country," he said. "Trying to defend Mike Garrett, Willie Brown, Pete Beathard and the others has me wondering where to start."

Southern California's coach John McKay, however, would buy none of that and said the Bruins learned a few lessons from watching UCLA beat Washington.

"If our team had any tendency to be over-confident, it was knocked out of them Saturday," McKay said. "Barnes did a tremendous job of coaching UCLA for their game."

McKay, however, felt his team also did a good job in defeating Oregon State and its amazing pass combination of Gordon Queen to Vern Burke. And he praised the performances of halfback Mike Garrett and end Hal Besdole. Against UCLA, McKay said he would let his seniors start including the recuperating Pete Beathard at quarterback. Beathard saw brief action in the final quarter against Oregon State.

Coach Harland Svare of the Los Angeles Rams joined the ranks of the victorious coaches over the weekend that also included Homer Beatty of Los Angeles State which captured the California Collegiate Athletic Association title.

Dale Praised
Svare's praise went chiefly to end Carroll Dale and quarterback Roman Gabriel as the key men in the Rams' upset win over the Detroit Lions.

"Dale caught everything thrown at him," Svare said. "And Gabriel is showing improvement every week, especially in staying in the pocket." But he said the Rams would have to play another top game to beat Baltimore this Sunday because of the individual brilliance of John Unitas. Svare felt the return to action of Dick Bass was a big factor in the Rams' win over the Lions.

UCLA halfback Byron Nelson was voted university player of the week for catching both touchdown passes against Washington; Ron McCauley of Los Angeles State was chosen college player and Dale was named pro player of the week.

There were five other runners-up who, because of the "tie-breaker" go prize-less. They all missed only six on the regular game picks. They include, R. B. Wick, MMSC, U.S. Navy Recruiting Station, Bend; Patrick Dennis Killen of Portland; William Heath, 14 Lava Road, Bend; Wassie L. Starr, 1519 1/2 E. 8th Street, Bend, and Dan Buckley, 1747 W. First Street, Bend.

This week's contest was "fouled up" with the advent of two ties. Team winners on the contest were, Illinois, Oregon, Kansas State, Purdue, Oklahoma, Alabama, Navy, Florida State, California, Idaho, Southern California, Pitt, Princeton, Columbia, Penn State, Mississippi State, North Carolina, Tulsa, Northwestern, San Diego Chargers, Dallas Cowboys, and the Chicago Bears.

Lateral pass foils robbery
BRISTOL, England (UPI) — Like a pair of razzle-dazzle football players, two bank messengers executed a bit of teamwork Monday that foiled a would-be robber.

Pretty 21-year-old Jill Paget and Leonard Norrish, 39, were just going into a bank. The bandit came running toward them.

He lunged for Norrish's bag, which contained $1,741. Norrish faked, then lateraled the bag to Miss Paget.

In motion, Miss Paget gathered the lateral in as she raced through the bank's doors. The robber, discouraged, jumped on a motorcycle and got away.

Harry Little again wins Bulletin Football Contest

For the second consecutive week, Harry Little, 354 Colorado Avenue, Bend, has won The Bulletin Football Contest.

This week Little missed only six out of 24 along with seven others, but gained the $15 first prize by coming the closest on the "tie breaker" (the most points scored in any one game).

This week's tie-breaker was 83 points. Little guessed 62.

Mickey McCloskey, 1304 Federal Street, Bend, guessed 60 and thus emerged better than the other runners-up and gained the $7.50 second prize. Floyd Holt, Route 1, Redmond, won the third prize when he guessed 58 points.

There were five other runners-up who, because of the "tie-breaker" go prize-less. They all missed only six on the regular game picks. They include, R. B. Wick, MMSC, U.S. Navy Recruiting Station, Bend; Patrick Dennis Killen of Portland; William Heath, 14 Lava Road, Bend; Wassie L. Starr, 1519 1/2 E. 8th Street, Bend, and Dan Buckley, 1747 W. First Street, Bend.

This week's contest was "fouled up" with the advent of two ties. Team winners on the contest were, Illinois, Oregon, Kansas State, Purdue, Oklahoma, Alabama, Navy, Florida State, California, Idaho, Southern California, Pitt, Princeton, Columbia, Penn State, Mississippi State, North Carolina, Tulsa, Northwestern, San Diego Chargers, Dallas Cowboys, and the Chicago Bears.

Cent. Catholic end gets honor

PORTLAND (UPI) — Central Catholic defensive end Todd Taylor was named scholar-athlete among Metropolitan League high school football linemen by the Portland Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Monday.

Taylor will be one of eight nominees at the fourth annual Scholar-Athlete Awards banquet at the University of Portland here Dec. 2.
