

Returned turncoat faces charge of assault with deadly weapon

AKRON, Ohio (UPI)—Lowell Skinner, the former Army corporal who chose to remain in Communist China at the end of hostilities in the Korean conflict, and only recently returned to this country, is to appear in Municipal Court Friday on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Skinner, 32, was arrested after a shooting incident at the home of an East Akron woman Monday night. He was held on $2,500 bond pending the hearing.

He was arrested after two teen-aged boys claimed Skinner shot at them during an argument at the home of Mrs. Roberta Longgood, 28, whose husband, Jack, is serving a term in the Ohio Penitentiary for robbery.

Wife Has TB

Skinner's Chinese wife, whom he said has tuberculosis of the brain, remained in Red China when he returned to the United States in August. He said then he expected her to follow him here soon.

George Bye, 17, and Harlan Monroe, 18, told police Skinner accused them of "trying to cut him out" with Mrs. Longgood when he found them in the woman's home Monday night, and threatened to kill them.

The boys said Skinner drew a 22-caliber pistol and fired one shot, then aimed the gun at Bye's head and told the youths to leave Mrs. Longgood's home and never return. They left and called police.

Skinner was picked up a short time later driving around the neighborhood. "I did not shoot at them," he told officers. "I could have hit them if I wanted to. I just wanted them to leave me alone."

Says Was Threatened

Skinner told officers he carried the gun because of threat-

BREAK UP DISTURBANCE
PORTLAND (UPI)—Police broke up a disturbance involving about 100 students at the Boise Grade School in North Portland Tuesday.

A 14-year-old girl was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct by fighting. She was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Extension Service report shows busy year for staff

Special to The Bulletin

REDMOND — The annual report of the Deschutes County Extension Service for the period Oct. 1, 1962, to Sept. 30, 1963, shows that the four-agent staff had a busy year. A total of 1,193 farm and home calls were made, 3,134 office calls received and 7,304 telephone calls made and received. In the year, 23,140 bulletins and other publications were distributed.

In conducting the educational program in agriculture, home economics, and 4-H Club work in the county, the agents issued 325 news stories, made 503 radio broadcasts and wrote 100 news letters.

County agents traditionally hold and attend a large number of meetings and this past year was no exception. There were 155 training meetings for adult leaders, with an attendance of 1,265 persons. In addition, there were 56 training meetings for youth leaders, with an attendance of 552. Other meetings at which educational material was presented by the Extension staff included 202 for adults with an attendance of 3,947 and 143 for youths, with an attendance of 1,272, and 792 held by leaders for youth with an attendance of 7,601.

The county staff of the federal cooperative extension service is part of the Oregon State University and is supported jointly by county, state and federal funds.

The staff is composed of county extension agents Jane Schroeder, working with adult home economics, and Miss Lynne Hoffman, in 4-H home economics work, both stationed in Bend; John Schmid, 4-H Club agent, and Robert H. Sterling, agriculture and staff chairman, both in Redmond.
