Congo police grab 3rd Russian in retaliation for subversion

LEOPOLDVILLE (UPI) — Congo police seized a third Russian today in apparent retaliation for suspected Soviet support of subversives seeking to overthrow the pro-Western government of Premier Cyrille Adoula.

Police dragged a Russian journalist out of his bed and took him into custody. The action followed the arrest Tuesday of two Soviet diplomats who are still being held.

The arrested diplomats also were manhandled by Congolese police when they refused to permit security officers to search their briefcases.

The fate of the diplomats, Boris Voronin and Yuri Maikotnykh, remained unknown. Voronin was described as an embassy counselor and Maikotnykh as a press attache.

There has been no official word on the incident involving the diplomats from the Congolese government for more than 36 hours despite a stiff protest by the Soviet Union. The diplomats were taken into custody by Congolese state police.

Well informed diplomatic sources in Leopoldville said the Congolese government may soon declare most Russian and Czech diplomatic personnel in the capital "persona non grata." They said it was unlikely the Congolese government would break off diplomatic relations, but that it probably would permit the two Communist countries to leave a skeleton staff in Leopoldville to handle embassy affairs.

The Soviet journalist detained today was identified as Benik Beknazir - Yuzbashev, 35, who arrived in the Congo a month ago to open a bureau for the Communist news agency Novosti in Leopoldville.

There was speculation the Russian journalist would be questioned about any possible Communist links to opposition Congolese elements.

The Congolese government has hinted that Communist embassies in Leopoldville have supported subversive activities aimed at overthrowing the pro-Western government of Premier Cyrille Adoula.

The government's Radio Congo reported Wednesday that "documents of the utmost importance" had been confiscated from foreign diplomats suspected of subversive activities against the Congo. But it did not name them or give their nationalities.

Church council names UO head new president

EUGENE (UPI) —Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president of the University of Oregon and a Methodist layman, Wednesday was elected president of the Oregon Council of Churches.

He succeeds the Rev. A. Raymond Grant, resident bishop of the Alaska-Oregon Conference of Methodist Churches.

Flemming was elected on the final day of the council's 29th annual general assembly here. He will take office Jan. 1.

New vice presidents representing the council's various denominations are: The Rev. George A. Ashwood, Jr., Eugene, Presbyterian; the Rt. Rev. Lane W. Barton, Bend, Episcopal; the Rev. Dwight S. Dodson, Portland, Baptist; Mrs. P. L. Herbig, Eugene, Episcopal; the Rev. A. J. Buttrely, Portland, United Church of Christ; the Rev. Dwight Russell, Lake Oswego, Presbyterian; and the Rev. Henry L. Searle, Portland, Disciples of Christ.

The Rev. Charles H. Addleman of Woodburn was elected secretary and James L. Sampson, Portland, treasurer. New members of the board of trustees are John W. Pugh and Mark A. Talney of Portland and James Whipple, Drain.

Letter writer threatens Queen

LONDON (UPI) — London police today charged a man with writing a letter threatening to kill Queen Elizabeth.

George William Mead, a 40-year-old clerk, appeared at the Mansion House Court today, and was ordered held in custody until Nov. 28.

He was charged with "uttering a letter" threatening to kill the queen.

Mead was picked up by detectives after he had spoken with a clergyman at historic St. Paul's Cathedral.

Informed police sources said he had written the threatening letter and handed or tried to hand it to the clergyman.

No further details were immediately available.

FOUND GUILTY

PORTLAND (UPI) —Former Multnomah County Deputy Dist. Atty. James Collins was found guilty Wednesday of unlawfully entering a motor vehicle with intent to steal.

A Circuit Court jury returned the verdict and Judge Herbert M. Schwab ordered a pre-sentence investigation. Defense attorney George Haslett said the verdict would be appealed.
