

Tuesday's mat card offers famed wrestling midgets

More professional wrestling is in store for local mat fans. Bend's National Guard Army will again be the scene of action. This time Oregon grappler promoter Elton Owen brings a minute grunt and groin tag match card. Four of the world-famous wrestling midgets will go at it next Tuesday night in a tag affair. Sky Low Low and Irish Jackie will team up against Billy The Kid and Tiny Tim. These little guys, who weigh in between 90 and 100 pounds, always wow the fans with their fast (and sometimes hilarious) antics. They take their lumps just like the big boys do, and they have the cauliflower ears to prove it. However, the midgets are not billed as the main event. It's popular Nick Kozak vs. giant Soldat Gorky on the main bill. Kozak will match his

"great" airplane spin against Gorky's wolf leap and neck breaker. Kozak has wrestled many main events in Houston, Tex., and is rated just as good as Frank Stojack with the airplane spin. He will need his speed and finesse against the big "Russian Bear" Gorky. Luther Lindsey will wear his protective headgear into the ring in the other preliminary. He goes against blond, "dirty" Don Duffy. It will be a semi-final. Lindsey is still rated as the greatest Negro wrestler in the country by many experts. He has wrestled Lou Thesz to a draw in Portland. He, however, was in a bad automobile wreck a week ago and is just now rounding into shape. Duffy is a tough Irishman from San Diego. He is the same size as Lindsey. They both weigh in at about 225 pounds.

2 AFL field generals to 'show 'em'

HOUSTON (UPI)—Two former National Football League quarterbacks in their mid-30s will be out to prove it's an "old man's" game Sunday in American Football League clash between division leaders San Diego and Houston. Tobin Rote, 35, and George Blanda, 36, will be guiding the Chargers and Oilers, respectively, in what could be a preview of this year's AFL championship game. Tobin is having a great year in his first try at the AFL. San Diego Coach Sid Gillman calls him "as fine a quarterback as I've been associated with." And that includes such signal callers as Norm Van Brocklin, Bob Waterfield, Jackie Kemp, Bill Wade and Frank Ryan. Gillman adds that he believes Rote is just as good as Y. A. Tittle of the Giants. Most football fans thought Rote was through when he played out his option for Detroit in 1960. But Rote went on to play Canadian ball and then to the AFL. He led the Canadian loop in passing in 1960 and '61 and now leads the AFL in yards per pass and percentage. Blanda is now in his 14th season as a pro. He came to the Oilers in 1960 after being the highest scoring player in Chicago Bear history. He holds many AFL records and is currently third in league passing.

Cassius still on draft list

NEW YORK (UPI)—New York City's director of Selective Service said today that Cassius Clay's transfer of physical examination and reported shift of residence to New York need have no effect upon the date of his possible induction by Uncle Sam. Col. Paul Akst explained: "The date of his induction will still depend upon the needs of his local draft board at Louisville, Ky. His local board of registration will always be the local board of jurisdiction." The date of induction is very important to heavyweight challenger Clay, who is signed for a title fight with champion Sonny Liston sometime in February at a city to be announced soon. Were he to be drafted before the end of February, Clay—who will be 22 on Jan. 17—might be deprived of a tremendous purse and his shot at the most valuable title in all sports.

'He's All-American in my book'—Cas

PORTLAND (UPI)—"I wouldn't trade him for any other quarterback in the country." The Oregon coach added that the speaker was Len Casanova. The quarterback is Oregon's Bob Berry. Casanova told sports writers and broadcasters Tuesday that "Berry is an All-American in my book even though he won't make it this year." The Oregon coach added that he thought Berry was a better all-around player than Navy's Roger Staubach although the latter may be a better passer. He saw movies of Navy's game with West Virginia. Casanova said Berry's shining quality was his leadership ability. "He makes a coach look good," he said. Jerry Long, Oregon State assistant coach, was on hand to put in a few plugs for a Beaver named Burke. Long said Vern Burke was, in his opinion, "the greatest offensive college end ever to play the game." Berry and Burke will be on opposite sides when Oregon meets Oregon State at Eugene Saturday. Oregon will have a guy named Renfro (Mel) around, too.

2nd stringers take Husky helm

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI)—The former second string University of Washington backfield, moved up following UCLA's win last week, remained intact today with the exception of quarterback. UNDER CONSIDERATION NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. (UPI)—Illinois, Michigan State, Navy, Pittsburgh and Texas are the five schools still in contention for the 1963 MacArthur Bowl, presented annually by the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame. The Carling tourney will match about 40 top foreign stars against a group of United States' players.

UCLA works on passing game

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The UCLA Bruins went through their final workouts at Spaulding Field today before meeting University of Southern California's Trojans Saturday. Athletic Director J. D. Morgan predicted that a crowd of 35,000 to 40,000 will show up for the game in the Coliseum "if the weather is good and the interest high."
