

Reason behind three-way tie for NFL first — Cards' defense

Remember Gipp?

'Don't wear bruises on sleeve'—Fraley

By Oscar Fraley

NEW YORK (UPI)—The year is not important. Only the spirit.

Maybe you'll remember that in the era following World War I they had at Notre Dame a football player named George Gipp who promised to become one of the greatest of them all. Except that he was taken ill and died.

And there came a day thereafter when Knute Rockne gathered around him at halftime a Notre Dame team which was being beaten by Army and told them of the "Gipper's" last request.

"He told me that, someday when things were going bad, to have the team win one for the Gipper," Rockne said to them.

Trounced the Army

Notre Dame went out and ground Army into the ground. And, as a guy named Jack Chevigny, later to die with the Marines at Iwo Jima, burst into the end zone with the winning score, he looked up into the heavens and yelled:

"There's the one for you, Gipper."

Corny, maybe. And it is possible that the "Rock," a master strategist, also was guilty of a bit of "con."

But he taught them, as Chevigny proved later on the field of battle, the value of the indefinable something called

"heart."

Which makes me feel a slight bit ill when I read some of the things he blamed on the tragic happenings in the city of Dallas.

Such as the story out of Australia when Dennis Ralston was beaten in the South Australian tennis finals.

It alighted that a "listless" Ralston bowed because he was "saddened" by the death of our President. He had gone on the court, it related, only after being "urged" by U.S. Ambassador William Battle.

Needed A Rockne

He should have had a Rockne urging him on.

Then, like Chevigny, he might have gone out and won one for the man and the legend.

Cry in your beer if you want to do so. But always I keep thinking of the Rock and Chevigny and winning one for the "Gipper." You don't surrender. You fight all the harder. The more lead in your heart the more lightning in your hand. It's the way any skipper would want it.

I have to hope they play the Army-Navy football game this weekend. Not because it's a spectacle or because I hope to see the Cadets spring an upset. But because these kids deserve to play the game they've been looking toward all season.

The bruises are there for all of us. But let's wear them on the heart, not on the sleeve.

The St. Louis Cardinals should be grateful to their underrated defense for boosting them into a triple tie for the National Football League's Eastern Division lead, and the Chicago Bears can thank Roger LeClerc that things aren't all knotted up in the West, too.

The Cardinals upset the New York Giants, 24-17, Sunday and made it a new race in the Eastern Division. The Cleveland Browns, by defeating the Dallas Cowboys, 27-17, joined in the first-place tie with St. Louis and New York. All have 8-3 records.

The Pittsburgh Steelers nearly threw the Western Division into a deadlock, too, but LeClerc kicked an 18-yard field goal with 4:31 remaining to give the Bears a 17-17 tie.

The Green Bay Packers, who defeated the San Francisco Forty Niners, 28-10, would have tied for the lead if the Bears had lost. Chicago now has a 9-1-1 record; Green Bay is 9-2.

In Sunday's other games, played on a Sunday of mourning for President Kennedy, the Los Angeles Rams edged the Baltimore Colts, 17-16; the Minnesota Vikings squeezed past the Detroit Lions, 34-31; and the Washington Redskins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles, 13-10.

Broke 17-17 tie

The Cardinals broke a 17-17 tie against the Giants on Charley Johnson's three-yard touchdown pass to Bobby Joe Conrad early in the final period. Garland Boyette set up the score by recovering a fumbled punt by the Giants' Ed Dove on the New York 20.

At Pittsburgh, the Bears twice went ahead on short touchdown runs, by Willie Galtimore and Ron Bull, only to have the Steelers come back to score on Dick Hoak's six-yard run and Ed Brown's 31-yard pass to rookie Roy Curry, tying the game at halftime, 14-14.

Lou Michaels put the Steelers ahead with an 11-yard field goal in the final quarter, four minutes before LeClerc tied the score permanently.

Jimmy Brown gained only 51 yards in 17 carries against Dallas, leaving him 30 yards short of his own NFL season rushing record of 1,527. But Frank Ryan threw touchdown passes of 11 and 16 yards to Gary Collins and Ross Fichtner ran back an interception 36 yards for another Cleveland TD. The Browns intercepted four passes by Don Meredith during the second half.

First Half Surge

The Packers, with Bart Starr back at quarterback, scored all 28 points during the first half against the Forty Niners. Elijah Pitts, filling in for injured Tom Moore, threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Ron Kramer and also ran 14 yards for another score.

Danny Villaneuva's 13-yard field goal in the third period produced the Rams' upset win over the Colts. Art Perkins scored two Los Angeles touchdowns of one-yard bucks and Jim Martin kicked Baltimore field goals of 39, 22 and 41 yards.

Fran Tarkenton's passes to Paul Flatley set up a two-yard touchdown plunge by Tommy Mason with less than two minutes to play and gave Minnesota its win over Detroit.

Renfro will not play Saturday

EUGENE (UPI)—Oregon football Coach Len Casanova said today that All-America halfback Mel Renfro "definitely will not play" when the Ducks end their season against Oregon State here next Saturday afternoon.

Renfro slashed his right wrist on a mirror at his Eugene apartment Friday night severing a nerve. He underwent surgery and has been released from the hospital.

"Mel told me he can move his thumb and thought a cast might be designed to permit him to play," Casanova said.

"But the doctors who handled the case have said the wound was too deep and will not let him play," he added.

Dennis Keller, a sophomore, will replace the senior halfback in the Ducks' starting lineup.

The game was scheduled for Saturday but was postponed following the death of President Kennedy.
