COWBOY BOOSTER—This booster is actually a Boster of the Ken type. A potential starter on this year's Cowboy five, Boster is a junior and a 6-1 forward. Coach Wayne Lunde is working his charges hard this week, preparing for the season inaugural, Dec. 6, the Central Oregon tourney.

BASKETBALL BALLET—Prineville High School's Les Williamson looks as if he is taking one of the more familiar ballet steps when photog Nate Bull "snapped" him this week. He is a 5-10 senior guard.

Heisman trophy winner wants win over Army

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (UPI)—Roger Staubach, Navy's runaway winner of the Heisman award as the top college football player of 1963, asked for only one thing more today—a victory over Army.
"The award is something I'll treasure all my life," said the 21-year-old Middle quarterback from Cincinnati, Ohio. "Naturally, I'm extremely excited and pleased. This is really great, but we've still got the Army game."
Staubach, only the fourth junior to gain the award during the 29 years it has been given by the Downtown Athletic Club, made his comments even as the traditional Army-Navy game officially was being postponed from Nov. 30 to Dec. 7 because of the late President Kennedy's death.

Staubach's coach, Wayne Hardin, said, "I never personally had any doubt that he would win it. I think that he deserved the award and am very proud of him. I know that he realizes that without the fine play of his teammates he would not have been able to win the award."
The 6-foot, 2-inch, 190-pound Ohioan, who drew a near landslide total of 1,860 points in the balloting by sports writers, broadcasters and telecasters throughout the nation compared with only 504 points for runner-up Billy Lochridge of Georgia Tech, readily conceded he could not have won the award alone.

"I owe it to everyone," he said. "My grade school coach... My coaches in high school and junior college... Coach Hardin and, of course, all my teammates."
Staubach, who will be presented with the award at the Downtown AC in New York on Dec. 4, was mentioned on 694 of the 784 votes cast. He received 517 votes for first place, 132 for second, and 45 for third. He was voted first in each of the five selections of the nation.
Points were computed on a basis of three for a first place vote, two for second and one for third.
Lochridge, Georgia Tech's brilliant quarterback, received 65 first place votes while halfback Sherman Lewis of Michigan State, who wound up third with 369 points, polled 53 first place votes.
Don Trull of Baylor finished fourth with 253 points while Scott Appleton of Texas was fifth with 194.

Cougs to be in top condition
PULLMAN, Wash. (UPI)—Coach Jim Sutherland of Washington State declared the entire Cougar team to be in top condition for Saturday's game with Washington at Seattle.
Sutherland also named junior quarterback Dale Ford to the starting slot after Tuesday's practice.

Blades squeak by Vancouver
By United Press International
The Los Angeles Blades increased their lead in the Western Hockey League Tuesday night, but Rudy Migay of the Denver Invaders is giving the Californians something to think about.
While the Blades were sneaking past Vancouver, 3-2, Migay matched Los Angeles' total effort with a hat trick which sparked the Denver team to a 6-3 victory over Portland.
The victory moved the Invaders into second place in the standings, one point ahead of defending champion San Francisco and two behind Los Angeles.
The battle between the Blades and the Canucks was a nip-and-tuck affair.
Vancouver scored the first goal on a shot by Buddy Boese in the opening minutes, but Gord Vejprava tied it up before the period was over. The two teams matched goals in the second period, with Bruce Carmichael hitting for the Blades and Larry Popen scoring for Vancouver.
Vejprava scored his second goal in the third period, and the Blades held the Canucks scoreless to preserve the victory.
In the contest at Denver, Migay scored twice for the Invaders in the first period, completed the hat trick in the third, and was credited with an assist in the second.

Beavers in full scale practice
CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI)—Coach Tommy Prothro held a full-scale practice session Tuesday to tune up the Oregon State Beavers for their season finale.

Track, Sub-District
Track and field is still set up on a sub-district basis. The sub-district track meet is slated for Saturday, May 23. The west one will be at Prineville. The eastern sub-district will hold its eliminations at La Grande on the same day. The district track meet will be staged at Hermiston on Friday, May 29. It will be on Friday instead of Saturday, because of Memorial Day falling on that Saturday.
Baseball also remains organized on a sub-district basis. The winners of the two sub-districts will play at the site of the winner of the western district, May 15-16. State baseball championships tentatively are slated for May 30.
But perhaps the most important thing in the whole parley was the maintaining of the District 7 A-1 basketball schedule as it is this year. The casaba slates for the years 1964-65, and 1965-66 were adopted identically as it stands today. The schedule was adopted last year. This year's slate merely reverses the home sites.

B-Ball Slate
Next year's slate will be back like the original one last year, with the same teams playing host. The year following will again see the same schedule but with the home sites reversed.
Basketball, obviously, is still set up on a full district basis. In wrestling, there was a limit put on the number of matches. Twenty-six are permitted altogether... 13 varsity and 13 JV. Some discussion was heard relative to the number of officials used at each game. The district made a motion to limit the number to three. It was carried by a split vote. The four Central Oregon schools voted against the measure.

RODEO HONORS
In other Central Oregon sports activity, Saturday will see the Oregon - Washington-Idaho Junior Rodeo Association holding its annual dance and awards dinner at the Rebekah's Hall in Redmond.
Central Oregon has had many outstanding Junior Rodeo contestants this year. Two of these

Texas Tech and Texas Christian boast young teams which could jell faster than expected, but Arkansas appears in for an off year.
Houston and Texas Western, the area's two top major independents, also stack up below their usual standards.

District moguls set spring slate

by Web Ruble
Bulletin Sports Editor

Coaches and supervisors from member high schools of Oregon's District 7 A-1 had an annual pow-wow recently up at Arlington.
Dates were set for winter and spring sports district and state finales.
District 7 A-1's wrestling meet will be held in La Grande on February 28-29. Baker and Hermiston do not wrestle. Each team in the district will send two representatives in each weight bracket. There will be no sub-district eliminations to qualify for the district meet. First and second place winners in each weight division will go to the state meet.

Oregon's State Wrestling Meet is slated for March 6-7 at Corvallis.
As the state golf championships are slated for May 18-19 in Portland, District 7 A-1 will hold its district links matches on Saturday, May 16 at Pendleton.

Track, Sub-District
Track and field is still set up on a sub-district basis. The sub-district track meet is slated for Saturday, May 23. The west one will be at Prineville. They'll Do It Every Time

Browns will be 'sitting pretty' if they finish in two-way tie

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Cleveland Browns will be sitting pretty if they finish in a two-way tie for first place in the Eastern Division at the conclusion of the regular National Football League season Dec. 15.
If the Browns deadlock the New York Giants, the St. Louis Cardinals or the Pittsburgh Steelers for the Eastern crown, they will serve as the host team for a playoff game in each instance Dec. 22.
Because four teams—the Browns, Giants, Cardinals and Steelers—still are in the running for the NFL's Eastern title, 10 possible playoffs were assessed and decided upon Tuesday during coin-tossing ceremonies. The results were announced by Commissioner Pete Rozelle.
The Giants were almost as lucky as the Browns in the "heads or tails" lottery. If the New Yorkers tie either the Steelers or the Cardinals, they will host the playoff game. In the event of a three-way tie among the Giants, Cleveland and Pittsburgh, the Giants draw by a tie and then meet the Browns-Steelers winner at Yankee Stadium.

Only one toss was needed for a possible playoff in the Western Division, where the Chicago Bears and Green Bay Packers are the only teams still battling for the title. The Packers won the toss and will have the home field advantage in a playoff with the Bears, if one is necessary.
If the Cardinals, the Giants and the Browns—currently tied for the Eastern lead—should finish that way, the Browns will host the Giants on Dec. 22, with the winner entertaining the Cardinals the following Sunday. This would postpone the championship game until Sunday, Jan. 5.
If St. Louis ties Cleveland and Pittsburgh, the Steelers entertain the Browns, with the winner hosting the Cardinals. If Pittsburgh, New York and St. Louis finish in a tie, the Giants host the Cards and the Steelers entertain the winner.
