

Kozak whips Soldat Gorky in Tuesday mat feature

Though not overflowing, a large and enthusiastic crowd was on hand at the Bend Armory Tuesday night for the professional mat card.

A midget team of Sky Lew Low and "Billy The Kid" defeated Irish Jackie and Tiny Tim in a match that headed the evening's grunt and groan prelim docket.

In the main event, Nick Kozak defeated Soldat Gorky on a "disqualification". It was a rough contest. Kozak won the first fall with his airplane spin. Gorky won the second fall with a "back - breaker", but got called on a "five count" for refusing to break on the third fall.

Luther Lindsey made short work of Don Duffy in the opening match after he had lost the first fall.

More bone - bending is in store for local mat fans. Next Tuesday December 3, a co-attraction at the Bend Armory will see "Haystack" Calhoun plus the midgets on the same card. Admission prices will remain the same. Tickets are on sale today.

Army, Navy will battle in annual service go

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Army and Navy will get a chance to play their annual football classic at the specific request of the family of the late President Kennedy.

The game will be dedicated to Kennedy's memory, the Pentagon announced Tuesday.

After a day of conferences, Pentagon officials said it was decided to reschedule the Philadelphia game for Dec. 7, a one-week postponement.

Army Coach Paul Dietzel said the postponement was "the least we could do" in memory of the late President.

Termining last Friday's assassination a great tragedy, Dietzel said "we are very honored to dedicate the game" to Kennedy's memory.

Coach Wayne Hardin of Navy said he and his team backed the decision "100 per cent."

"We're glad that it's going to be played, though, and not canceled," he added.

The Pentagon announcement said:

"The secretary of the Army and the secretary of the Navy decided today that the Army-Navy football game will be postponed one week in deference to the memory of President Kennedy. Consideration was given to cancellation of the game. However, President Kennedy's family requested that the game be played. The game will be dedicated to his memory."

Top rookie goes military

BOSTON (UPI) — National League rookie of the year Pete Rose was still at the bottom of the ladder in another league today.

The Cincinnati Reds' second baseman now in his third week of basic training in the Army's six-month program, was waxing a floor at Ft. Knox, Ky., when he learned Tuesday that he was chosen for the rookie honors.

The 21-year-old infielder captured 17 of 29 votes in balloting by the Baseball Writers Association of America (BBWAA) in 10 National League cities, according to Hy Hurwitz, secretary of the association.

Rose, despite a .273 batting average, won decisively over New York Mets infielder Don Hunt and Philadelphia Phillies hurler Ray Culp. Hunt received two votes and Culp got one.

Pvt. Rose paused in his KP duties Tuesday long enough to say that he wasn't too surprised he won but added, "I didn't think I'd win by such a big margin."
