Friends honor A. E. McLennan

Special to The Bulletin

CAMP SHERMAN — An old-time resident of Central Oregon, Alex E. McLennan, known to his many local friends as the "mayor of Camp Sherman," was honored here Sunday on the occasion of his 83rd birthday.

He was greeted by scores of friends at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Robert C. Simmers. Signing the visitors' books were friends from all parts of Central Oregon, Portland and other areas.

Guests from Portland included Dr. and Mrs. Brantford P. Miller. Dr. Miller is president of Portland State College. Virtually the entire Camp Sherman community was represented at the open house at the Simmers' home, facing sun-bathed, white Mt. Jefferson on the Cascade skyline.

Serving were Mrs. August Resterer, Mrs. Charles Ferns, Mrs. Edward McLennan and Mrs. Melvin Basim.

McLennan, recently honored as a 50-year member of the Knights of Pythias, is a native of Victoria, B.C., who came to Central Oregon in 1902, to work on the big stock ranch of his cousin, Eben McLennan, in the Shanks area. Before moving to Bend in 1923, McLennan and his family lived in both the Shanks and Antelope communities.

McLennan has been a resident of the Camp Sherman area since 1935, and has long served as caretaker for various properties there.

Edward S. McLennan, Bend, is a son. Catherine Gardner, Mt. Shasta, Calif., is another daughter.

Bulbs smashed by vandals were insured

Despite heavy damage by vandals Friday night to the Scouts' room of the First Christian Church in Bend, Boy Scout Troop No. 81, headed by Bob Moody as Scoutmaster, is still in business.

Just prior to the vandalism, the Scouts had announced plans for a sale of light bulbs, to obtain funds for the purchase of camping gear. The bulbs were stored in the Scout room of the church. Many of the bulbs were smashed, with their value set at $20.

However, Moody reported today, the Scouts carried insurance on the bulbs.

The bulb sale will be continued until all are sold.
