BEND SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

DON M. WILSON, PASTOR

"IT IS MORE BLESSED TO GIVE"

Christmas is the season for the cutting of trees, worship, good will, home coming, carols and the giving of gifts. But today in the world at large this spirit has been almost lost sight of. Fear grips many hearts; hunger stalks society; cold winds lash out at ill clad humanity. War seems imminent on every horizon. Yet the longing of every sincere heart is depicted in the one word—PEACE.

Soon through every village, city, and hamlet, touched by Christianity, will be heard the music that angels would again delight to sing: "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men." Will these words be uttered by sincere lips or will they be mere mockery? It is hard to answer this question on a world level, but what about our own hearts, do they reflect sincere gratitude for the great blessings which have flowed earthward because of the Babe of Bethlehem?

The greatest nation on earth today is America, for this bastion of Christianity is holding the torch of truth and freedom. However many are beginning to doubt the sentiment expressed in the words of Jesus when He said, "Is it more blessed to give than to receive."

From these fair shores have gone forth a great army carrying to many lands a new hope. While the world has struggled with its great problems underneath the babel sounds, Christians of every faith have launched out with the "Good tidings of great joy" that in Christ deliverance can be complete. It is impossible to hold ourselves aloof from the situation which confronts us, to withdraw from suffering humanity means spiritual death, and in the wake of spiritual death comes national destruction. The One who holds the key to all knowledge said, "Go ye therefore into all the world . . ." And not only did He say "Go" but He also draws the curtain aside through divine revelation revealing a nail pierced hand holding the winds of war, strife, and blood shed until His will is accomplished.

If Jesus should visit our city, would there be room in the inn? If He should travel our streets would we recognize His voice? If He should hunger and thirst would we care? "Oh Yes!" You exclaim, "I would not turn the Master aside."

Scripture makes it plain what the measure of judgement will be by saying, "I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: . . . Naked, and ye clothed me . . . Then shall the righteous answer Him, saying, Lord when we saw Thee an hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave Thee drink? . . . And naked and clothed Thee? . . . And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren ye have done it unto Me."

(Matt. 25:35-40)
