'776' gives person a feeling of participation in history

By Barney Seibert UPI Staff Writer To many a school child the American Revolution was a confused period of history in which the colonists suffered a long series of defeats until the British suddenly up and surrendered.

prepare to burn gunpowder on a grand scale. But ABC had other ideas. It employed actor Frederic March and five other "voices," borrowed a few vintage firearms, and sent its color cameras off to the theaters of action.

Oswald wife wants to become U.S. citizen

FORT WORTH (UPI) — Marina Oswald, widow of the suspected assassin of President Kennedy, was quoted last week as saying she wants to become an American citizen.

—When Virginians voted for independence and marched off to lower the Union Jack over their capitol, the camera saw only a line of musket muzzles and an occasional shadow of a tricorn hat.

Mrs. Shirley B. Williamson, part-time private investigator and housewife, headed a drive to raise money for Lee Harvey Oswald's widow and children.

Historian Henry Steel Commager, a consultant for the television documentary project, said, "launched in 1776 was world revolution whose end is not yet."

Shopping center plans reported

PORTLAND (UPI)—Plans for a multi-million dollar shopping complex in downtown Salem were announced here Friday by Commonwealth, Inc., a local mortgage banking firm.

Corvallis faces pollution move

CORVALLIS (UPI) — The State Sanitary Authority has directed the city of Corvallis to halt its pollution of the Willamette River, City Manager John Porter revealed last week.

No date has been set for construction of the center, which will cover an equivalent of three square blocks. Plans will be submitted to the Salem city council and Salem planning commission within a few weeks.

Porter said the city had anticipated the directive and is setting aside funds from its sewer user tax to pay for a bond issue. A $350,000 bond issue election probably will be held in 1965 and application for a $150,000 federal grant will be made, Porter said.
